PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 8th day of November, in the year 1917, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty,

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the Cure of Souls within the Parishes attached to the said Benefices of Highclere, Burton Joyce, and Saint George, Netherfield, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said Benefice of Gedling which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Gedling is now full, the Reverend the Honourable Alberic Edward Bertie being the Rector or Incumbent thereof:

“ Provided always that the whole of the First

Fruits and Tenths now payable to the Governors of Queen Anne’s Bounty in respect of the said Benefice of Gedling shall continue to be payable by the Rector or Incumbent of that Benefice.

And whereas by Section one, sub-section two, of the said Act, it is provided that any List of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom such trading is prohibited by a Proclamation under the said Act may be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of a Secretary of State:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the following effect:—

That the Statutory List should be further varied and added to as set forth in the Schedule hereto.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Statutory List be varied and added to as set forth in the Schedule hereto.

Whereof the Right Honourable Arthur James Balfour, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Controller of the Foreign Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

NOTE (1).—All persons or firms resident, carrying on business or being in the United Kingdom are prohibited from having, with any person or firm mentioned in this List, or in any List issued under the Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, 1916, No. 3, any dealings other than such as are expressly authorised by paragraph 5 of the Proclamation. A List (The Consolidating List, No. 41A) consolidating all previous Lists was published on the 7th December, 1917, which, together with the List herewith annexed, contains all the names which up to this date are included in the Statutory List.

Additions to and variations in these Lists will be published at intervals approximately of two weeks.

The Lists are published in the London Gazette and reproduced in the Board of Trade Journal, and separate copies of all Lists may be obtained at a small cost from the Superintendent of Publications, His Majesty's Stationery Office, Imperial House, Kingsway, W.C.

† NOTE (2).—Where a person or firm mentioned in the List has more than one address in the country or group of countries under which the name of the person or firm appears, all dealings in that country, or in any country in the group, with such person or firm are prohibited, even in cases where one only of the addresses or one only of the countries is specifically mentioned.

NOTE (3).—Trading is prohibited under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamations of 25th June and 10th November, 1915, with any person or firm of enemy nationality resident or carrying on business in China, Siam, Persia, Morocco, Liberia or Portuguese East Africa. Persons or firms in the United Kingdom are therefore prohibited from trading with any person or firm of enemy nationality in any of those countries, even though such person or firm is not mentioned by name in the Statutory List.

NOTE (4).—In order to minimise as far as possible any inconvenience which may be caused to British traders by the dislocation of export trade owing to the inclusion in the Statutory List of a former connection, the Foreign Trade Department is collecting and classifying the names of non-enemy firms who may be able to act as substitutes for firms mentioned in the Statutory List. A considerable amount of information is already available at the Foreign Trade Department, and it is in many cases possible to suggest the names of satisfactory substitutes without the necessity of referring the matter abroad. The Department is, however, prepared on application to enquire of His Majesty's Representatives abroad for the names of suitable substitutes. When the applicant wishes this done by telegraph he is required to undertake to pay the cost of the telegraphic correspondence. It would greatly facilitate the work of the Foreign Trade Department if applicants in making enquiries would specify the particular trade or trades for which substitutes are required.

NOTE (5).—The Statutory List for each country is telegraphed, on the day of issue, to His Majesty's Representative in that country, who is instructed to notify accordingly British Consular Officers, to whom persons abroad should apply for information as to names on the List. Persons and firms in the United Kingdom with agencies or branches abroad would, however, be well advised to furnish such agencies or branches with issues of the List as they appear. The Lists for all countries in Central or South America are also telegraphed to His Majesty's Ambassador at Washington, who transmits them to H.M. Consul-General at New York and to other centres in the United States likely to be interested.

* NOTE (6).—It is not unusual for firms in Holland and the Netherland East Indies to be registered under names commencing with descriptive terms such as "Handel Maatschappij" (Trading Company) or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (Limited Liability Company). In such cases it has been found more convenient to publish the firm under its proper name, followed by the general descriptive term "Handel Maatschappij" or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (N.V.) as in the case of an English company. For instance, Handel Maatschappij van den Berg & Company, and Naamlooze Venootschap de Komeet v/h Dumonceau Frères will be found under "Berg" and "Komeet" respectively, and not under "Handel" or "Naamlooze."

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Doreen Ashburnham, aged 11 years, and Anthony Farrer, aged 8 years, residing at Cowichan Lake, Vancouver Island, in recognition of the great bravery displayed by the children in the following circumstances:—

On the 23rd September, 1916, the two children left their homes at Cowichan Lake for the purpose of catching their ponies and, when about half a mile from home, they were attacked by a cougar. They were almost upon the animal before they saw it crouching in a path at a corner. The little girl was first attacked; the cougar sprang upon her, and she was knocked down with her face to the ground, the animal being on her back. The boy at once attacked the cougar with his fists and riding bridle, and drove the animal off the girl; it then attacked him, and his companion, getting to her feet, came to his rescue, fighting with her clenched hands and bridle, and even putting her arm into the cougar's mouth, to try to prevent it from biting Anthony. She succeeded in getting it off the boy, and it stood on its hind-quarters and fought with her, but evidently it was disturbed by some sound, for presently it slunk away and ran under a log, where it was afterwards killed. The children, though both badly injured, were able to make their way home.

The cougar measured over 7 feet from nose to tip of tail.

Re GEORGE BRUFORD, Deceased.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Justice (Chancery Division), England, dated 22nd January, 1917, made in the Matter of the estate of George Bruford, deceased, Bruford v. Davies (1916, B. 2605), after an inquiry (No. 1) for the purpose of ascertaining whether Ann Bruford Davies, the Granddaughter of testator, George Bruford, was living or dead, and whether she was ever married, and, if so, her children, the following inquiry was directed:—(2) "Who was or were the person or persons who would, by virtue of the Statutes of Distribution, have been entitled to the personal estate of the said Ann Bruford Davies at the time of her decease if she had died intestate and without leaving a husband or child." Now all persons claiming to be interested are, personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 14th day of June, 1918, to come in and prove their claims, at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Eve and Mr. Justice Peterson, Room 696, Royal Courts of Justice, London, England, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Friday, the 21st day of June, 1918, at 12 o'clock noon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

NOTE.—Ann Bruford Davies died 8th January, 1916. It is alleged she never married. She was the only child of Stephen Davies, Newington, Surrey, by his first Wife, Ann, formerly Bruford. His second Wife was Mary Ann Boyce Bickerton, by whom he had several children, amongst others (1) Stephen

Lloyd, baptized 1833, who went to California about 1850; (2) William Errington Davies, born 1837, who went to America, and was last heard of in 1894; (3) Mary Ann, born 1844, who has not been heard of since 1867; and (4) George Edward, born 1845, who went to sea, and was last heard of in 1892; and (5) Anna Maria Smith (died 12th January, 1913), who had, amongst other children, (a) Charles Fowle Smith, who married Helen Macowan in 1888, and last heard of in 1913, when he was at Sydney, N.S.W.; and (b) Ernest Sidney Smith, last heard of in Buenos Ayres in 1908.

Dated this 17th day of December, 1917.

ARTHUR F. RIDSDALE, Master.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated 23rd June, 1914, made in re MARY DAINS, deceased (Harwood v. Paul, 1914, D. No. 681), the following inquiry was directed:—"An inquiry who were respectively the first cousins once removed, the first cousins twice removed, the second cousins, the second cousins once removed, and the third cousins of the testatrix, living at her death, who had then attained the age of 21 years, and whether any of them are since dead, and, if so, who are their respective legal personal representatives." Now, all persons claiming to be interested under the said inquiry are, either personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 12th day of February, 1918, to come in and prove their claims, at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Eve and Mr. Justice Peterson, Room No. 696, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Tuesday, the 19th February, 1918, at 12 o'clock noon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for the hearing and adjudication upon the claims.

NOTE.—The testatrix, Mary Dains, died, aged about 84, on the 20th February, 1913, at Trimley St. Mary, near Ipswich, Suffolk; her parents were Thomas Dains and Sarah (formerly Prentice), his wife; her paternal grandparents were Jonathan Dains (died 1829) and Martha (formerly Tokelove), his wife; the parents of Jonathan Dains were Daniel Dains (died 1770) and Mary (formerly Kersey), his wife; the father of Daniel Dains is said to have been Lionel Dains, who had also sons named John and Jonathan, a daughter named Sarah Kirke, and grandsons, Lionel and John. Mary Kersey (died 1815) was daughter of Robert Kersey; Martha Tokelove's parents were William Tokelove (died 1777) and Martha (formerly Swallow), his wife. The maternal grandparents of testatrix were Manning Prentice (died 1836) and Catherine (formerly Oliver), his wife. The parents of Manning Prentice were Thomas Prentice (died before 1782) and Elizabeth (formerly Moore or More), his wife; she died 1759. Catherine Oliver's parents were James Oliver (died 1757) and Deborah (formerly Newson), his wife. It is alleged that the last named (died 1806) was the daughter of one Newson, of Wrentham, and had a sister, who married Thomas Brett in 1755. It appears from the evidence generally that the family of testatrix on both sides belonged to the Eastern Counties, and were Nonconformists and for the most part Independents.—Dated 14th December, 1917.
