

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Dean and Chapter of Ely 10 days' previous Notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new Burial Ground in the Civil Parish of Ely College, in the Isle of Ely, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that Burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz:—

ELY COLLEGE.—Forthwith and entirely in the ground known as the ancient Burial Ground of the Monks in the precincts of Ely Cathedral, which adjoins the Lady Chapel, Choir, and South Transept of the Cathedral, and includes an area lying to the east of the public footpath leading from High Street to the south side of the Cathedral, bounded on the north for a distance of 260 feet or thereabouts by the Almonry Garden, on the east for a distance of 280 feet or thereabouts by private gardens, and on the south for a distance of 180 feet or thereabouts by private gardens:

Provided that in the said Burial Ground, in grave spaces in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the Very Reverend Alexander Francis Kirkpatrick, Dean of Ely Cathedral, the Wife of the said Dean, Canon Berkeley William Randolph, Canon George Hodges, Harriet Duke Lowe, and Cassandra Bury Dickson at their decease, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 5th day of February next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 5th day of February.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON ACT, 1898.

Notice is hereby given, in pursuance of the above named Act, that the following amendment of Statute 111 of the Statutes of the University of London has been made by the Senate, and that copies of the amended Statute can be obtained on application to the Secretary to the Senate, University of London, South Kensington, S.W. 7.

Statute 111 of the Statutes of the University to be amended by adding thereto a second Proviso, the said Statute as so amended running as follows:—

111. Except as hereinafter provided, no degree other than an honorary or ad eundem degree shall be conferred on any Student who has not satisfied the Examiners in the prescribed examination or examinations, and fulfilled all other prescribed conditions, and no Student shall be allowed to become a candidate for any higher degree who shall not have previously taken the lower degree or degrees of the same class. Provided that Students whose qualifications are considered suitable may be admitted by the Senate as Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Science without their having previously obtained the Degree of Master of Science. Provided also that during the War begun in 1914, and after its termination for such period as the Senate shall see fit, the Senate shall have power to waive the conditions of this Statute in such a way as will prevent as far as possible any Student of the University (whether an honorary (War) degree has been conferred on him by the University or not) from being placed at a disadvantage through going on active service or undertaking other approved duties in connexion with national defence, and in particular the Senate may accept such test as the Senate may consider adequate in lieu of the prescribed examinations.
