

SEVENTH SUPPLEMENT

TO

The London Gazette.

Of FRIDAY, the 4th of JANUARY, 1918.

Published by Authority.

The Gazette is registered at the General Post Office for transmission by Inland Post as a newspaper. The postage rate to places within the United Kingdom, for each copy, is one halfpenny for the first 6 ozs., and an additional halfpenny for each subsequent 6 ozs. or part thereof. For places abroad the rate is a halfpenny for every 2 ounces, except in the case of Canada, to which the Canadian Magazine Postage rate applies.

TUESDAY, 8 JANUARY, 1918.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace,

1st January, 1918.

The KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Medal of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire upon the undermentioned persons for services in connection with the War, in which great courage or self-sacrifice has been displayed. Further lists of awards of the Medal for War Services will be issued later:—

Adair, Robert.

For courage in continuing to work his engine while molten metal was falling round him.

Adams, Mary.

For courage in assisting others, at great personal risk, in a fire.

Alford, Frederick John.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Allen, Arthur Ernest.

For courage in rescuing a fellow-worker at great personal risk.

Allen, Arthur Joseph.

For courage and resource in assisting to extinguish a fire at an explosives factory at great personal risk.

Andrew, James.

For courage in remaining at his work during a fire which resulted in a very serious explosion.

Andrewartha, John, Fitter, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage on the occasion of the trials of a submarine.

Andrews, Edwin Bolwell.

For courage in extinguishing a fire in chemical works under circumstances of grave personal danger.

Andrews, John Edward.

For courage in keeping up steam immediately after an explosion when another explosion seemed imminent.

Armes, Charles, Cable Foreman, G.P.O.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Assirati, F. W., Postman.

Devotion to duty under specially difficult and dangerous circumstances.

Attrill, Jesse, Boatswain.

For coolness and resource in averting a serious accident to one of H.M. Ships.

Auger, Ethel Alice.

For courage and high example in remaining at her post on a tram, and thus preventing severe casualties to fellow-workers. In doing so she was severely injured.

Aylward, Sidney.

For courage and resource in subduing a fire at imminent personal risk.

Badger, George.

For courage and self-sacrifice in attempting to save life, in spite of severe personal injuries.

Badsey, George William.

For courage in fighting, at very great personal risk, a fire caused by an explosion.

Baillie, John, Chageman of Engine Fitters, Northern Base.

For courage and perseverance in carrying out work involving much exposure and risk.

Baird, George.

For courage in saving a child from drowning at the works and returning at once to his work.

Ball, Daniel.

For courage in having several times effected temporary repairs to important plant in an explosives factory at considerable risk to his life.

Bannister, George Charles.

For great courage in clearing a man-hole at great personal risk.

Barber, John Thomas, Carpenter, G.P.O.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Barnard, Henry.

For courage in fighting a fire at great personal risk while many bags of explosives were being removed.

Bashford, Thomas Henry.

For great courage on two occasions, entering a tank to recover a fellow-workman who was gassed, and entering a tar still heater.

Baxter, Robert.

For courage and resource in saving the life of a fellow-worker at great personal risk.

Beaufort, Beatrice Oxley.

For courage and high example in continuing to do very dangerous experimental work in spite of injuries received in consequence.

Beaumont, Fanny Elizabeth, Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Beer, John Finnis, Cable Hand.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Bellis, Thomas Bond.

For courage and resource in assisting, at great personal risk, to extinguish a fire at an explosives factory.

Bennett, Samuel Hall.

For courage in returning to work within an hour of breaking his thumb whilst at work. Sixty-nine years of age.

Bessent, Myra Grace, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Black, Sydney Rome, Assistant Draughtsman.

For courage on the occasion of the trials of a submarine.

Bloomfield, James Elias.

For courage in extricating living and dead from ruined buildings under circumstances of great danger.

Bloxam, Emmanuel.

For great courage displayed on the occasion of a serious explosion, when he assisted in extinguishing a fire and saved the life of a fellow-worker at very great personal danger.

Boal, Robert Leach.

For courage in keeping down a fire in an explosives factory.

Bond, Edward.

For courage in closing a main valve on a steam boiler at great personal risk of scalding and suffocation.

Booker, Francis, Leading Man, Works Department, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For perseverance in carrying out certain difficult works in the face of grave risks due to bad weather.

Booth, John.

For courage in extinguishing a fire on two occasions at very great personal risk.

Bostock, Lilian Ada, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Bradbury, Arthur.

For courage in dealing with fires in an explosives factory and remaining at work in a poisonous atmosphere in order to ensure the safety of plant.

Bradbury, George Arthur.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire in an explosives factory at great personal risk.

Bramhall, Martha.

For courage in remaining continuously at a very dangerous task in spite of the occurrence of several explosions.

Brelsford, J. H.

For courage in assisting, though severely injured, to rescue fellow-workers and to extinguish a fire which resulted in a very serious explosion.

Brisley, Amelia.

For courage and high example in cases of explosion in a factory.

Brooke, Emily.

For great courage shown at an outbreak of fire in an explosives factory.

Brown, Andrew.

For conspicuous courage in stopping a fire and giving the alarm, under circumstances of the gravest personal danger, after he had been injured by the explosion and rendered unconscious.

Brown, Edwin.

For courage in extinguishing a fire after an explosion in which he lost the sight of an eye, and enabling 600 of his fellow-workers to get clear.

Brown, Ethel.

For courage on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Brown, Harry.

For courage in working continuously under circumstances of very great danger.

Brown, Mary.

For courage and high example in getting work started again under circumstances of considerable danger.

Bryant, William.

For courage in preventing further serious explosion in a filling factory, at very great personal risk.

Buckley, John.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Burdett-Coutts, Margaret Winifred.

For courage in that, after losing a finger and badly lacerating her hand in a circular saw, she went away quietly to have it treated, in order not to unnerve her fellow-workers.

Burrell, Marion, Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Burton, James.

For great courage in rescuing workers from burning explosives shops, at great personal risk.

Busby, Louisa.

For courage in returning to work after an accident resulting in loss of right hand and other injuries.

Butler, Edith.

For courage, resource, and high example. Has saved the lives of at least two workers, and has displayed exceptional skill and courage in several serious accidents.

Butler, Gertrude Elizabeth.

For courage and high example in continuing at her work during a fire, under circumstances of great danger.

Campbell, George Patrick, Carpenter, G.P.O.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Cardo, Richard.

For courage and resource shown on several occasions under circumstances of great personal danger.

Carlton, Louisa Margaret, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids and bombardment from the sea.

Carter, Samuel.

For courage and resource in saving the life of a chemist and three workers who were overcome by fumes in an explosives factory.

Cass, Florence Marie, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty while in charge of a telephone exchange during a serious explosion at a neighbouring munition works.

Chambers, Sydney.

For great courage in rescuing workers from burning explosives shops at great personal risk.

Chorley, William Frank.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Clarke, Annie.

For courage in keeping workers together under circumstances of great danger.

Clarke, Mabel Eleanor, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Clelland, Alexander.

For courage and resource under circumstances of great danger.

Coles, Gertrude.

For courage in returning to work after her hand had been mutilated by an explosion.

Corder, John.

For courage in fighting a fire caused by an explosion, at very great personal risk.

Cornelius, Alexander.

For courage in having, on two occasions, saved a large amount of raw material in an explosives factory at the risk of his life.

Cosby, Thomas, Fitter, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage on the occasion of the trials of a new submarine.

Costa, Herbert Luigi.

For courage in continuing to work under circumstances of great danger.

Cox, Mabel Rosa, Chargewoman, Royal Naval Cordite Factory.

For devotion to duty and great presence of mind in averting an explosion when in charge of a guncotton press.

Croucher, May Victoria.

For courage and high example on the occasion of a fire at an explosives factory.

Crutchley, Thomas.

For courage in entering a gas main and saving the lives of two workers who were gassed, at very great personal risk.

Cunningham, Sophia.

For courage and high example in continuing her duties immediately after a severe explosion.

Cuskearn, John.

For courage in making a determined attempt to recover a valuable instrument from the cooling pond, in consequence of which he contracted blood poisoning and nearly died.

Dartnell, Lucie Jane, Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Davidson, James, Bricklayer's Labourer.

For courage in rescuing a fellow-workman who had been overcome by gas inside a gas apparatus.

Davies, Ben.

For courage and high example in remaining at work for an hour after being painfully burnt on his hands, face and neck, and returning to duty for another five hours immediately after treatment.

Davies, James Henry, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Showed habitual courage in carrying out repairs to submarine cables in difficult and dangerous waters.

Davies, Robert John, Electrical Fitter, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage and self-sacrifice on the occasion of an explosion on a submarine boat on which he was at work.

Davies, Violet Annie.

For courage in remaining at her post at the telephone during a severe explosion. Age 15.

Dixon, William.

For courage in rescuing a fellow-worker at great personal risk.

Doran, Joseph.

For courage and resource in preventing a fire in an explosives factory under exceptionally dangerous circumstances.

Downie, James, Engine Fitter.

For courage and prompt action in helping to extinguish fires which had broken out in the stokeholds of two patrol vessels fitting out.

Duff, John.

For courage in preventing a serious explosion under circumstances of great danger.

Duffy, James.

For courage in attempting to stop a fire in an explosives factory under exceptionally dangerous circumstances.

Dunbabin, Peter.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Duncombe, Lucien.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Dunn, Albun.

For courage in saving the life of a fellow-worker after an explosion, and giving the alarm, although himself injured by an explosion.

Easter, Bertha Annie Florence, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Edghill, Nicholas.

For courage in helping to subdue fire at great personal risk.

Edwards, Mabel Ann.

For courage and high example on the occasion of a fire at an explosives factory.

Egan, Nora.

For great courage shown at an outbreak of fire in an explosives factory.

Etheridge, Henry, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Evans, Frank Cyril.

For self-sacrifice in continuing to work, though blind in one eye and the other affected, caused by an accident at work, and in spite of constant pain.

Evans, Fred.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Evans, James.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Evans, May.

For courage in assisting to stop a fire in an explosives factory at considerable danger to her life.

Fagan, Francis, Special Constable.

For rescuing a drowning man from Holyhead Harbour in circumstances of difficulty and danger.

Fautley, Alfred William James.

For courage and resource in stopping a fire in highly inflammable material, at the risk of his life and at the cost of severe injuries.

Finbow, Rosa Frances.

For courage in returning to work after serious injury to her face through an explosion.

Fisher, Jane.

For courage in assisting to stop a fire in an explosives factory at considerable danger to her life.

Fisher, Maude.

For great courage shown at an outbreak of fire in an explosives factory.

Fitzpatrick, Michael.

For courage in attempting to save part of an explosives factory at great risk of his life.

Flintoff, Bertha, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during an air-raid.

Foster, James Harold.

For courage in helping to extinguish a fire at cost of serious injuries to himself.

Francis, Bernard John.

For courage and resource in saving the life of a fellow-worker.

Frazer, Frank Charles.

For courage in preventing an explosion in a filling factory at great personal risk, though partly blinded and suffering considerable pain from explosion.

Gilchrist, William.

For self-sacrifice and high example in persisting in work which is often dangerous, though suffering from an incurable disease and often suffering great pain.

Godfrey, Margaret Annie Louise, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during an air-raid.

Godfrey, Robert William, Diver, Admiralty Salvage Section.

For courage and devotion to duty in Gallipoli, diving on many occasions when the beaches were being shelled.

Gommersall, William.

For several acts of great courage and self-sacrifice.

Goodenough, Edna.

For continuing to work after suffering serious injuries through an explosion, resulting in loss of right eye.

Gosling, James.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Grainger, James.

For courage in having, on two occasions, continued at his work in an explosives factory under circumstances of great danger, thereby stopping further damage.

Green, Frank Wallis.

For courage and resource in subduing a fire at imminent personal risk.

Green, John.

For courage and self-sacrifice in dealing with acid and poisonous fumes.

Griffiths, Thomas Edwin Ernest.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Grigsby, Frederick Thomas.

For courage and high example in continuing at his duty during a series of severe explosions.

Hall, Frederick Edward.

For courage in carrying out very dangerous experiments in a highly-poisonous atmosphere.

Hamilton, James.

For courage and resource in preventing a fire in an explosives factory under exceptionally dangerous circumstances.

Hanson, Alice.

For great courage shown at an outbreak of fire in an explosives factory.

Harley, James, Assistant Foreman Ironworker.

For courage in entering a confined space in a vessel, which was full of noxious fumes, and plugging holes in the structure.

Harman, Elsie Lilian, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Harris, John David.

For courage in fighting a fire caused by an explosion, at very great personal risk.

Hartley, Mary.

For courage and high example in remaining at her engine and controlling it after having been badly wounded by breakage of the governor and returning to her work a week later.

Havery, Thomas, Chancery Servant at the British Embassy, Petrograd.

Courageous conduct in the discharge of his duties during the revolutionary disturbances in March, 1917.

Hawkins, E. James.

For courage in preventing an explosion and fire at great personal risk.

Hayden, William Henry.

For great courage at very great personal risk on the occasion of several fires in a filling factory.

Head, Ethel.

For courage and high example in rescuing fellow workers after an explosion.

Healey, Alice Ann, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Heather, William, Cable Foreman, G.P.O.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Hemmingsley, William.

For courage and resource in saving the life of a fellow worker.

Hepworth, Harry.

For great courage shown at an outbreak of fire in an explosion factory.

Herrington, Gladys Elizabeth.

For courage in volunteering to undertake dangerous work after a fatal accident.

Hesman, Amos Freke.

For courage in preventing an explosion and fire, at great personal risk.

Hewitt, William.

For courage in saving the life of a fellow worker, who was overcome by poisonous fumes, at great personal risk.

Hickey, Ethel Nora Elizabeth, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids and on the occasion of a fire.

Hickey, Thomas. Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Has displayed great courage while carrying out telegraph work under dangerous conditions.

Hicks, William Charles, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Has rendered valuable service since the beginning of the war. Has remained at his post absolutely alone day and night, in spite of danger from submarine or other attacks.

Higgs, Alfred.

For courage and resource in saving the lives of two of his fellow workers, at great personal risk.

Higham, Frederick, Special Constable.

Swam to an airship which had fallen into a river and assisted two of the crew to reach the bank.

Hill, Edward, Steel Smelter.

For courage and endurance on many occasions.

Hirst, Doris, Telephonist.

Remained at her post until relieved, on the occasion of a very serious explosion at munition works, notwithstanding the fact that the explosions were almost continuous, and that the police advised the officers on duty to leave the building.

Hobbs, George William, Boatswain, G.P.O.

Employed on cable ships in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Hobbs, Thomas William, Chargeman of Engine Fitters, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage on the occasion of the trials of a new submarine.

Hodgkinson, Frank.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire in an explosives factory, at great personal risk.

Hogan, George.

For courage and resource in subduing a fire, at imminent personal risk.

Holdsworth, Victoria Irene.

For courage and resource in preventing serious injuries to a fellow worker.

Holly, Annie.

For courage in continuing at work, though suffering from severe injuries to eye, caused by an explosion.

Holmes, Janet.

For courage and resource on the occasion of an explosion in a filling factory.

Holtum, Mrs.

For courage in assisting to save the lives of fellow workers during a fire which resulted in a serious explosion, though sustaining severe injuries herself.

Hulley, G.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire, which resulted in a very serious explosion.

Hulme, William.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire in an explosives factory, at great personal risk.

Hunt, Mabel, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during an air raid.

Hunt, Walter William.

For courage in saving the life of a fellow worker.

Hunt, William.

For courage and resource on two occasions in preventing serious fires. Age 66.

Innes, Frederick.

For high courage and resource in closing the outlet valve of a collapsed gas-holder, in which the gas was alight.

Ivin, Horace, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Has done valuable service under dangerous conditions, repairing submarine cables carrying naval and military wires.

Jackson, Florence.

For courage displayed during a time of great danger in a filling factory.

Jackson, William.

For courage and resource in saving the life of a fellow worker at very great risk to himself.

Janes, Herbert.

For courage in returning to work immediately after his hand had been dressed on account of his losing three fingers in a shearing machine.

Jeffery, Jack Lane.

For courage connected with production and testing of exceptionally dangerous materials.

Johnson, Charles William.

For courage and resource shown on several occasions under circumstances of great personal danger.

Johnson, Charles William James.

For courage in carrying out repairs to plant in explosives factory in the presence of dangerous gases.

Johnson, Ellen, Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Jones, Alfred Frank.

For great courage and high example shown on the occasion of a severe explosion in an explosives factory.

Jones, John Richard.

For courage and resource in assisting to extinguish a fire at an explosives factory at great personal risk.

Jones, Maurice, Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Has carried out two very dangerous missions, successfully passing through hostile lines at great personal risk.

Jones, Robert.

For courage and resource in assisting to extinguish a fire at a filling factory, at imminent risk of serious explosion.

Jones, Thomas.

For courage and high example in doing hard work for long hours in spite of his age (79 years).

Jordan, George Henry.

For courage in fighting a fire caused by an explosion, at very great personal risk.

Kane, John.

For courage in saving the lives of several fellow-workers who were buried in the lining of a furnace which they were repairing.

Keeling, W. A.

For courage in remaining at his work during a fire which resulted in a very serious explosion.

Keenan, Mary.

For courage and high example on the work after sustaining severe injury to face and eyes, on account of an explosion.

Kiaer, Mary.

For courage and high example on the occasion of a fire at a filling factory.

King, Herbert John.

For courage in extinguishing a fire in an explosives factory at very great risk to his life.

Kipling, Rosa Kate.

For courage in returning to her work after seven and a half months' serious illness and several operations caused by an explosion.

Kirby, James, Ship Fitter, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For self-sacrifice in helping to extricate an injured fellow-workman from a place of danger, though he himself was dangerously injured.

Knight, Walter Reginald.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire in an explosives factory and removing explosives from the burning building.

Knox, John.

For courage in saving the lives of several fellow-workers who were buried in the lining of a furnace which they were repairing.

Lake, Robert, Fitter and Outside Erector.

For courage on board a submarine in dangerous circumstances.

Lambe, Patrick, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Rendered very valuable service in picking up and repairing wires which had been shot down.

Lambert, Charles Henry, Master Mariner, Examination Service and Rescue Tugs, Dover Dockyard.

For courage and skill displayed in towing cargo and other ships out of a minefield after they had been mined.

Lane, Albert Frederick.

For courage and high example on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Langridge, Philip C., Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Lavelle, Michael.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Laws, Ada Mary, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Leeds, Ethel Mary, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Lethbridge, Mabel.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of an accident in a filling factory, causing loss of one leg and severe injuries to the other.

Lewes, John James, Skilled Labourer, Works Department, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For great skill and daring in the performance of difficult and dangerous work in connection with certain works at Portsmouth.

Lewis, Frederick John, Leading Man (Diver), Chatham Dockyard.

For courage, skill and resource exhibited in a marked degree.

Leyland, Alfred.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Lickess, Albert.

For great courage and high example shown in dealing with a fire at an explosives factory under circumstances of very exceptional danger.

Lipscombe, Arthur.

For courage in stopping a fire in a powder factory under circumstances of exceptional danger to his life.

Lockwood, Robert Andrew, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Has done exceptional service during rough weather in effecting repairs to submarine cables carrying naval and military wires.

Lodder, Tom Oliver, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Showed great courage and devotion while in charge of a telegraph station, carrying out his duties under fire.

Lowe, Albert James.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Ludlow, Alice.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an explosion and prompt return to work.

McAlpine, William.

For courage and self-sacrifice in returning to work after losing three fingers of right hand owing to an accident, and before the wounds were properly healed.

McCann, Agnes.

For courage and resource in saving the life of a fellow-worker entangled in dangerously running machinery, at great risk to her life.

McDonald, James.

For courage in attempting to save the life of a fellow-worker who was gassed in a gas main by entering it at very great personal risk.

McDonald, James, Ironwork Erector.

For courage in the rescue of fellow-workmen who were overcome by gas.

McDougall, George.

For courage in saving the lives of several fellow-workers who were buried in the lining of a furnace which they were repairing.

McFarlane, Edward.

For courage in saving the lives of two of his fellow-workers by entering an ash receiver full of mono-oxide gas.

McGhie, James, Under Foreman Joiner.

For bravery at the cost of serious personal injury in saving a half-blind labourer from being run over by a locomotive.

McGrath, Michael.

For courage in ascending a furnace under conditions so dangerous that all others had refused to do so.

McIntyre, May Louise.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an accident at a filling factory.

McMaddocks, John.

For great courage on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory. He brought the drenchers into action, and used his own body to prevent draught fanning the flames in stoves.

Male, Albert Herbert.

For courage on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Marsh, Daisy.

For courage and resource in utilising emergency fire appliances on the occasion of an explosion at an explosives factory.

Martin, Thomas.

For courage displayed on two occasions in dealing with an explosion and a fire at works producing highly inflammable liquids under circumstances of exceptional danger.

Mason, Mollie Josephine, Munition Worker, Chatham Dockyard.

For courage and presence of mind in averting panic among women workers who were occupants of an overturned railway carriage.

Massey, Robert.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Master, John.

For courage in preventing an explosion and fire at great personal risk.

Maw, Edith Blanche, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Mayall, William Alfred.

For courage and high example on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Medine, Edward.

For courage in saving the lives of several fellow workers who were buried in the lining of a furnace which they were repairing.

Mee, Walter.

For courage and resource in dealing with a fire at the cost of bodily injury.

Menzies, James.

For courage and high example on the occasion of a serious explosion.

Meredith, William.

For courage in saving the life of a fellow workman who had been rendered unconscious by foul gas.

Merralls, Annie Dyer, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Miller, Robert.

For courage in saving the life of a fellow worker who was overcome by poisonous fumes, at great personal risk.

Mills, Rose.

For courage displayed on the occasion of an explosion, at great personal risk.

Mitchell, G.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire which resulted in a very serious explosion.

Mitchell, George Edgar.

For courage and high example on several occasions of explosion and fire in a shell filling factory.

Monks, John Joseph Christopher, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

On many occasions continued his work under fire, displaying great zeal and courage.

Moody, Margaret, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Morgan, David George.

For courage and high example in picking up and drowning a shell which had become accidentally ignited.

Morgan, William.

For courage and resource in assisting to extinguish a fire at a filling factory, at imminent risk of serious explosion.

Morphet, Nora.

For courage and high example in continuously working long hours in a poisonous atmosphere which habitually affected her health.

Morris, Frederick Thomas.

For courage on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Mulholland, Maggie.

For courage and very high example in her behaviour when in charge of a canteen adjoining a store of explosives which was on fire.

Myers, George.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Naar, Abraham, Sorter.

Devotion to duty under specially difficult and dangerous circumstances.

Nadin, Thomas, Engineer of Yard Craft, Sheerness Dockyard.

For courage, self-sacrifice and exceptional skill in the salvage of a merchant ship in a minefield.

Neal, Arthur John.

For courage in a serious accident due to bursting of crucible of melted metal. Though severely injured, he kept the others calm and had them attended to first, though they were in less danger.

Nelson, Joan.

For courage in continuing to work in an explosives factory, under circumstances of grave danger.

Newson, George William.

For courage in fighting a fire caused by an explosion, at very great personal risk.

Newton, Violet.

For courage in returning to work after a serious accident in which two workers were killed, and she was severely injured.

Norris, G. R.

For courage in remaining at his work during a fire which resulted in a very serious explosion, from which he suffered bodily injuries.

O'Callaghan, James Joseph.

For courage in extinguishing a fire on the wooden roof of part of a filling factory, under exceptionally dangerous circumstances.

O'Keefe, Percy.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire in an explosives factory, and removing explosives from the burning building.

Owen, Edward Henry Lewis, Cable Hand, G.P.O.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Paine, Roland Basset.

For courage displayed on the occasion of a severe accident resulting in serious mutilation of his hand. He insisted on returning to his dangerous occupation as soon as bandages were removed.

Palmer, Nellie Ena Ann, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Parker, Charles, Skilled Labourer, Devonport Dockyard.

For self-sacrifice and distinguished conduct whilst engaged on salvage operations.

Parker, William.

For courage (1) in helping to extinguish a fire in tar works contiguous to filling factory at great personal risk; (2) in attempting to rescue a surveyor and workman gassed in a sewer, at great risk to his life.

Parkinson, George.

For courage and resource in preventing a serious explosion at an explosives factory.

Payne, Frederick.

For courage in dealing with a fire caused by an explosion, under exceptionally dangerous circumstances.

Pearson, Agnes, Telephonist.

On the occasion of a very serious explosion at munition works she remained at her post until relieved, notwithstanding the fact that the explosions were almost continuous and that the police advised the officers on duty to leave the building.

Peeters, Georgina.

For courage and resource in saving the life of a fellow-worker by stopping a machine at great risk to herself.

Pendray, Wilfred Edward.

For courage in recovering the plug of a cock under circumstances of grave danger.

Pendreigh, Mary.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an accident at a filling factory.

Pepper, Frederick William.

For great courage in rescuing workers from burning explosives shops at great personal risk.

Percy, Robert Charles, Acting Inspector of Shipwrights (formerly Chargeman), Northern Base.

For devotion to duty in effecting repairs under dangerous conditions.

Peters, Agnes Mary.

For great courage and high example in continuing to do work of an exceptionally dangerous nature, which finally resulted in an accident, by which she was totally blinded and otherwise injured.

Plume, Daniel.

For courage shown on the occasion of an explosion and at several minor fires, at great personal risk.

Plummer, Walter, Skilled Labourer, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For courage and perseverance in the performance of his duties during an explosion.

Poll, Walter.

For courage and high example in dealing with a serious fire at a gas works.

Poole, John Thomas, Master of Yard Craft, Chatham Dockyard.

For perseverance and conspicuous skill under conditions of extreme difficulty and danger.

Porter, Henry William John, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Showed courage and devotion to duty during repeated air-raids. On one occasion he set to work on the restoration of naval circuits while explosions were taking place fifty yards away.

Potter, Ellen Lenora.

For courage and resource in extinguishing a fire, at great personal risk.

Pound, James.

For self-sacrifice in working long hours in a highly poisonous atmosphere, where he was several times burnt by acid, and at times almost overcome by fumes.

Price, Harry.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Price, William Henry.

For courage in attempting to stop a fire in an explosives factory under exceptionally dangerous circumstances. He lost four fingers and practically the use of both hands, while his face was permanently disfigured.

Pugh, William Thomas.

For courage on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Pullen, Florence.

For courage in continuing to work in spite of serious suffering from an accident caused by an explosion.

Pullinger, Ethel Mary, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Purser, Richard Hayward.

For courage and self-sacrifice in working long hours in spite of severe physical disabilities brought about by hardships incurred in the retreat from Mons.

Rae, Robert, Coastwatcher, Machrihanish, Kintyre.

For rendering valuable assistance to one of H.M. Ships under conditions of great difficulty.

Rawlin, William H.

For courage and high example in saving workers and maintaining order on the occasion of an explosion in a filling factory.

Reardon, William Dennis, Sorter.

Devotion to duty under specially difficult and dangerous circumstances.

Reeves, Albert Edward.

For courage in recovering the plug of a cock under circumstances of grave danger.

Renfrew, Donald, Chief Draughtsman, Kelvin, Bottomley & Baird, Ltd.

For courage on the occasion of the trials of a submarine.

Roberts, Robert.

For courage in saving the life of a fellow worker at a fire in an explosives factory, under exceptionally dangerous circumstances.

Robinson, George.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Rock, Maggie.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an accident at a filling factory.

Roll, Charles William Beaver.

For courage in attempting to rescue his foreman, by entering an ash receiver full of carbon mono-oxide gas.

Ross, James Gordon, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Displayed courage and resource in maintaining telephonic communication during an air-raid.

Rudge, Alfred.

For courage in extinguishing a fire in an explosives factory at very great risk to his life.

Rudge, Thomas William, Millwright.

For courage and coolness whilst engaged on dangerous work.

Ryan, John, Mate of Yard Craft, Haul-bowline Dockyard.

For his splendid example of pluck and discipline during salvage operations.

Ryan, Thomas.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Salenger, Alfred.

For courage and self-sacrifice in volunteering for work on dangerous experiments, in the course of which he lost four fingers.

Sams, John Frederick.

For courage and high example in remaining at his post on a tram, and thus preventing severe casualties to fellow-workers. In doing so he was severely injured.

Sanders, Richard, Engine Fitter, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage on the occasion of the trials of a new submarine.

Saunders, William.

For courage in attempting to save the lives of workers who were gassed in a gas main, at very great personal risk.

Scott, Edward.

For courage in averting a serious accident in a mill, at grave risk to his own life. His arm was badly crushed, and has since had to be amputated.

Sears, Percy.

For courage and high example in preventing a fire in an explosives factory, at grave risk to his life.

Shaw, Charlie.

For courage and resource in dealing with a fire at an explosives factory, at great personal risk.

Short, Leonard, Engine Fitter, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For courage and self-sacrifice during salvage operations.

Simpson, Lawrence.

For courage in extinguishing a fire on two occasions, at very great personal risk.

Simpson, Sydney, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Showed great courage as well as resource on the occasion of a very severe explosion at adjoining munition works. He sent away to a safe place the women operators, and himself maintained uninterrupted telephonic communication.

Sinclair, William.

For courage in rescuing a driver who was underneath a railway engine which had begun to move.

Skinner, Harry.

For courage and resource (1) in extinguishing a fire in a filling factory at imminent risk of serious explosion, (2) in rescuing two fellow-workers gassed in a sewer, at very great personal risk.

Skinner, Laurence.

For courage in attempting to stop a fire in an explosives factory under exceptionally dangerous circumstances.

Slater, Frank.

For great courage shown during a fire in an explosives factory.

Sleeford, Minnie, Assistant Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Smith, Beatrice Evelyn.

For courage in returning to her post at the risk of her life in order to avert danger to the works.

Smith, Francis Emily Esther, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Smith, John.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire in an explosives factory at great personal risk.

Smith, Thomas William Fletcher, Tug Master, Dover Dockyard.

For courage, initiative and perseverance on salvage operations.

Snape, James.

For courage and high example in quelling fires during an explosion at great personal risk.

Snead, William.

For courage in entering a gas main and saving the lives of two workers who were gassed, at very great personal risk.

Soley, Sidney Charles.

For courage and resource in dealing with a hand grenade about to explode, whereby he saved several lives.

Spash, Hannah.

For courage and high example in continuing her work in a filling factory, after having been on three separate occasions injured by explosions.

Spencer, Edward.

For courage and high example in continuing at work in an explosives factory under circumstances of grave danger.

Stammers, Sidney Arthur, Cable Hand, G.P.O.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Stanyon, Lily.

For courage and resource in saving the life of a crane driver at considerable risk to herself.

Steed, Edith.

For courage and high example in volunteering immediately after a fatal accident to undertake the more dangerous work in the department concerned.

Steggel, Florence Eliza, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Steward, Fanny Eleanor, Assistant Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Stewart, John.

For courage in remaining at work and seeing his job through after being severely shaken by an explosion at an explosives factory.

Stocks, George William, Leading Cable Hand.

Employed on cable ships and small craft in connection with war work in dangerous waters.

Stokes, Walter.

For courage in attempting to save the lives of two workers who were gassed in a gas main by entering it at very great personal risk.

Stokes, William Leverington.

For courage in volunteering to extinguish a fire at cost of serious injuries.

Stone, George Robert, Master of Yard Craft, Sheerness Dockyard.

For courage, self-sacrifice and exceptional skill in the salvage of a merchant ship in a minefield.

Storey, Maggie.

For courage and high example in extinguishing a dangerous fire at an explosives factory under exceptionally risky circumstances.

Stubley, Ernest.

For courage in remaining at his post in circumstances of considerable danger in order to safeguard the works.

Studholme, Robert.

For courage and resource in preventing a serious explosion at an explosives factory.

Sutcliffe, Gilbert George, Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Rendered valuable service in the construction and maintenance of telephones under fire.

Sykes, Herbert.

For courage in testing aircraft in spite of severe accidents.

Symons, Walter William James, Shipwright Apprentice.

For courage and presence of mind in the rescue of a fellow-workman from drowning.

'Tabb, Samuel William, Acting Mate of Yard Craft, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage and skill in handling his tug in assisting to rescue a torpedoed merchant ship from a dangerous position in heavy weather.

Talbot, Joseph Edward.

For courage in continuing to work in a poisonous atmosphere, even though suffering seriously from effects.

Tansom, Alfred, Chargeman of Riggers, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For courage and coolness in urgent salvage operations.

Taylor, Frederick Francis.

For courage in fighting a fire at great personal risk while many bags of explosives were being removed.

Terry, George.

For courage in working continuously under circumstances of very great danger.

Thorne, Charles William, Engineer.

For perseverance and devotion to duty in trying circumstances, often attended by considerable danger.

Thorneycroft, Samuel George.

For courage on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Tickner, Thomas.

For courage and resource in dealing with an outbreak of fire at a filling factory.

Tidey, William John.

For courage in fighting a fire, caused by an explosion, at very great personal risk.

Trask, Joseph Henry, Special Constable.

For courage in rescuing injured men from a burning and collapsed building at great personal risk.

Trebble, Walter, Skilled Labourer, Works Dept., Portsmouth Dockyard.

For great skill and daring in the performance of difficult and dangerous work in connection with certain works at Portsmouth.

Trotman, William, Engine Fitter, Devonport Dockyard.

For courage on the occasion of the trials of a new submarine.

Trout, Ella.

While fishing, accompanied only by a boy of ten, she saw that a steamer had been torpedoed and was sinking. Though fully realising the danger she ran from enemy submarines, she pulled rapidly to the wreck, and succeeded in rescuing a drowning sailor.

Valentine, Alfred Clifford George.

For courage and resource in dealing with a shell in which the top ring of the fuse had fired.

Vass, E.

For courage in stopping a fire in an explosives factory at grave risk to his life.

Venus, Edith Emily, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Vicary, Robert George.

For courage displayed on the occasion of an explosion. He continued to work, though permanently injured by the accident.

Walker, Mary.

For courage in continuing to work in an explosives factory under circumstances of grave danger.

Wall, Ernest.

For two acts of courage and self-sacrifice in clearing a choked acid main, and on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Wallace, John M., Electrical Fitter.

For courage, initiative and devotion to duty in trying circumstances.

Wallace, Lilian Blanche.

For courage displayed during a time of great danger in a filling factory.

Ward, Amelia Jane, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids and bombardments from the sea.

Ward, Daniel Vincent, Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Displayed courage and resource while Controlling Officer in a neighbourhood exposed to many bombardments by sea-craft and aeroplanes.

Ward, George Frederick.

For courage in shutting off outlet master valve of a gasholder, during a fire caused by explosion, at serious personal risk.

Ward, Nellie, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Watson, Frances Mary.

For courage on the occasion of a serious explosion and assisting a fellow-worker to escape at great personal danger.

Watson, Frank.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Watson, John.

For courage in attempting to rescue his foreman by entering an ash receiver full of carbon mon-oxide gas.

Watt, Ada.

For courage in continuing to work in an explosives factory under circumstances of grave danger.

Webber, Arthur.

For courage and resource in giving valuable assistance on the occasion of an explosion at an explosives factory.

West, Dorothy Kate, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Whatton, George.

For courage and resource in subduing a fire at imminent personal risk.

Whibley, Dorothy Florence, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during an air raid.

White, Robert Leonard.

For courage in remaining at his work after being very seriously injured.

Wilkinson, Mary Agnes, Telephonist.

Rendered invaluable service at a telephone exchange on the occasion of a fire and serious explosion at a munition works close by, proceeding to her post through the danger zone at grave personal risk.

Williams, William.

For courage and resource in extinguishing a fire under circumstances of exceptional danger.

Winter, James, Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Rendered special services in repairing wires under very dangerous conditions and was frequently under fire.

Wood, Gertrude, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Wyatt, William, Skilled Labourer (Stoker), Sheerness Dockyard.

For his self-sacrifice and devotion to duty in a time of danger.

Youll, James.

For courage in saving the life of a fellow workman who had been rendered unconscious by foul gas.

Young, Alfred Charles Wright.

For great courage in rescuing workers from burning explosives shops at great personal risk.

LONDON:
PUBLISHED BY HIS MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE.

To be purchased through any Bookseller or directly from
H.M. STATIONERY OFFICE at the following addresses:
IMPERIAL HOUSE, KINGSWAY, LONDON, W.C. 2, and 28, ABINGDON STREET, LONDON, S.W. 1;
37, PETER STREET, MANCHESTER; 1, ST. ANDREW'S CRESCENT, CARDIFF;
23, FORTH STREET, EDINBURGH;

or from E. PONSONBY, LTD., 116, GRAFTON STREET, DUBLIN.

Printed for His Majesty's Stationery Office by WYMAN & SONS, Ltd., Fetter Lane, Fleet St., London, E.C. 4
Tuesday, 8 January, 1918.

Price Four Pence, Net.

