

Johnson, Charles William.

For courage and resource shown on several occasions under circumstances of great personal danger.

Johnson, Charles William James.

For courage in carrying out repairs to plant in explosives factory in the presence of dangerous gases.

Johnson, Ellen, Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Jones, Alfred Frank.

For great courage and high example shown on the occasion of a severe explosion in an explosives factory.

Jones, John Richard.

For courage and resource in assisting to extinguish a fire at an explosives factory at great personal risk.

Jones, Maurice, Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Has carried out two very dangerous missions, successfully passing through hostile lines at great personal risk.

Jones, Robert.

For courage and resource in assisting to extinguish a fire at a filling factory, at imminent risk of serious explosion.

Jones, Thomas.

For courage and high example in doing hard work for long hours in spite of his age (79 years).

Jordan, George Henry.

For courage in fighting a fire caused by an explosion, at very great personal risk.

Kane, John.

For courage in saving the lives of several fellow-workers who were buried in the lining of a furnace which they were repairing.

Keeling, W. A.

For courage in remaining at his work during a fire which resulted in a very serious explosion.

Keenan, Mary.

For courage and high example on the work after sustaining severe injury to face and eyes, on account of an explosion.

Kiaer, Mary.

For courage and high example on the occasion of a fire at a filling factory.

King, Herbert John.

For courage in extinguishing a fire in an explosives factory at very great risk to his life.

Kipling, Rosa Kate.

For courage in returning to her work after seven and a half months' serious illness and several operations caused by an explosion.

Kirby, James, Ship Fitter, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For self-sacrifice in helping to extricate an injured fellow-workman from a place of danger, though he himself was dangerously injured.

Knight, Walter Reginald.

For courage in assisting to extinguish a fire in an explosives factory and removing explosives from the burning building.

Knox, John.

For courage in saving the lives of several fellow-workers who were buried in the lining of a furnace which they were repairing.

Lake, Robert, Fitter and Outside Erector.

For courage on board a submarine in dangerous circumstances.

Lambe, Patrick, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Rendered very valuable service in picking up and repairing wires which had been shot down.

Lambert, Charles Henry, Master Mariner, Examination Service and Rescue Tugs, Dover Dockyard.

For courage and skill displayed in towing cargo and other ships out of a minefield after they had been mined.

Lane, Albert Frederick.

For courage and high example on the occasion of a fire in an explosives factory.

Langridge, Philip C., Inspector, Engineering Dept., G.P.O.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Lavelle, Michael.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Laws, Ada Mary, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Leeds, Ethel Mary, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air-raids.

Lethbridge, Mabel.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of an accident in a filling factory, causing loss of one leg and severe injuries to the other.

Lewes, John James, Skilled Labourer, Works Department, Portsmouth Dockyard.

For great skill and daring in the performance of difficult and dangerous work in connection with certain works at Portsmouth.

Lewis, Frederick John, Leading Man (Diver), Chatham Dockyard.

For courage, skill and resource exhibited in a marked degree.

Leyland, Alfred.

For courage and self-sacrifice in carrying out dangerous experiments.

Lickess, Albert.

For great courage and high example shown in dealing with a fire at an explosives factory under circumstances of very exceptional danger.

Lipscombe, Arthur.

For courage in stopping a fire in a powder factory under circumstances of exceptional danger to his life.

Lockwood, Robert Andrew, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Has done exceptional service during rough weather in effecting repairs to submarine cables carrying naval and military wires.

Lodder, Tom Oliver, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

Showed great courage and devotion while in charge of a telegraph station, carrying out his duties under fire.

Lowe, Albert James.

For courage in removing a large quantity of high explosives during a fire.

Ludlow, Alice.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an explosion and prompt return to work.

McAlpine, William.

For courage and self-sacrifice in returning to work after losing three fingers of right hand owing to an accident, and before the wounds were properly healed.