

CARGOES EX ENEMY VESSELS IN PORTUGUESE HARBOURS.

*Foreign Office,
January 8th, 1918.*

With reference to the notification which was published in the London Gazette of November 2, 1917, respecting the release of allied and neutral merchandise found on enemy vessels in Portuguese harbours, His Majesty's Minister at Lisbon reports that he is now informed by the Portuguese Government that the period within which claims of any kind for delivery of goods from such vessels must be presented has been prolonged to February 28, 1918, and that the period within which the certificate to be given by His Majesty's Legation in respect of the release of British-owned goods may be lodged, has been similarly extended.*

*See Art. 2 of Decree of July 13, 1917, published in London Gazette of August 3, 1917.

Whitehall, January 10, 1918.

The KING was pleased, at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 9th instant, to present to Captain Oliver Campbell Bryson, Flight Commander, Royal Flying Corps, the Albert Medal, which was awarded by His Majesty in recognition of his gallantry in endeavouring to save life in March last. The circumstances are as follows:—

On the 15th March, 1917, Captain (then Lieutenant, Bryson, with Second Lieutenant Hillebrandt as passenger, was piloting an aeroplane at Wye Aerodrome when, owing to a sideslip, the machine crashed to the ground and burst into flames. On disentangling himself from the burning wreckage Captain Bryson at once went back into the flames, dragged Lieutenant Hillebrandt from the machine, and, notwithstanding his own injuries, which were undoubtedly aggravated by his gallant efforts to rescue his brother officer from the fire, endeavoured to extinguish the fire on Lieutenant Hillebrandt's clothing.

Lieutenant Hillebrandt succumbed to his injuries a few days later.

Whitehall, 10th January, 1918.
