(3) If any ship obtains, or attempts to obtain, clearance outwards for the purpose of proceeding, or attempts to proceed, or proceeds, to sea in contravention of this regulation, or if in the case of any ship there is a failure to comply with any terms or conditions contained in a licence granted under this regulation in respect of that ship, the master thereof and the owner, or, if the ship is subject to a time charter, the charterer, thereof shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations, and if the ship is at the time of the commission of the offence, or is subsequently at any time found, at any port of, or within the territorial waters adjacent to, the United Kingdom it may be detained in the same manner as if it were a ship liable to be detained under the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1894 to 1916.

NOTE (1).—All persons or firms resident, carrying on business or being in the United Kingdom are prohibited from having, with any person or firm mentioned in this List, or in any List issued under the Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, any dealings other than such as are expressly authorised by paragraph 5 of the Proclamation. A List (The Consolidating List, No. 41A) consolidating all previous Lists, was published on the 7th December, 1917, which together with Lists Nos. 42, 43 and 44 of the 21st December, 1917, 4th January and 11th January, 1918, respectively, and the List herewith annexed contains all the names which up to this date are included in the Statutory List.

Additions to and variations in these Lists will be published at intervals approximately of two weeks.

The Lists are published in the London Gazette and reproduced in the Board of Trade Journal, and separate copies of all Lists may be obtained at a small cost from the Superintendent of Publications, His Majesty's Stationery Office, Imperial House, Kingsway, W.C.

†NOTE (2).—Where a person or firm mentioned in the List has more than one address in the country, or group of countries under which the name of the person or firm appears, all dealings in that country, or in any country in the group, with such person or firm are prohibited, even in cases where one only of the addresses or one only of the countries is specifically mentioned.

§NOTE (3).—Trading is prohibited under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamations of 25th June and 10th November, 1915, with any person or firm of enemy nationality resident or carrying on business in China, Siam, Persia, Morocco, Liberia or Portuguese East Africa. Persons or firms in the United Kingdom are therefore prohibited from trading with any person or firm of enemy nationality in any of those countries, even though such person or firm is not mentioned by name in the Statutory List.

NOTE (4).—In order to minimise as far as possible any inconvenience which may be caused to British traders by the dislocation of export trade owing to the inclusion in the Statutory List of a former connection, the Foreign Trade Department is collecting and classifying the names of non-enemy firms who may be able to act as substitutes for firms mentioned in the Statutory List. A considerable amount of information is already available at the Foreign Trade Department, and it is in many cases possible to suggest the names of satisfactory substitutes without the necessity of referring the matter abroad. The Department is, however, prepared on application to enquire of His Majesty's Representatives abroad for the names of suitable substitutes. When the applicant wishes this done by telegraph he is required to undertake to pay the cost of telegraphic correspondence. It would greatly facilitate the work of the Foreign Trade Department if applicants in making enquiries would specify the particular trade or trades for which substitutes are required.

NOTE (5).—The Statutory List for each country is telegraphed, on the day of issue, to His Majesty's Representative in that country, who is instructed to notify accordingly British Consular Officers, to whom persons abroad should apply for information as to names on the List. Persons and firms in the United Kingdom with agencies or branches abroad would, however, be well advised to furnish such agencies or branches with issues of the List as they appear. The Lists for all countries in Central or South America are also telegraphed to His Majesty's Ambassador at Washington, who transmits them to H.M. Consul-General at New York and to other centres in the United States likely to be interested.

*NOTE (6).—It is not unusual for firms in Holland and the Netherland East Indies to be registered under names commencing with descriptive terms such as "Handel Maatschappij" (Trading Company) or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (Limited Liability Company). In such cases it has been found more convenient to publish the firm under its proper name followed by the general descriptive term "Handel Maatschappij" or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (N.V.) as in the case of an English company. For instance Handel Maatschappij van den Berg & Company, and Naamlooze Venootschap de Komeet v/h Dumonceau Frères will be found under "Berg" and "Komeet" respectively, and not under "Handel" or "Naamlooze."

The Board of Trade, deeming it expedient to make further exercise of the powers vested in them by Regulations 2F, 2G, and 2JJ of the Defence of the Realm Regulations as respects paper, hereby Order as follows:—

Posters.

1. (a) In this Order the expression "Poster" means a sheet or sheets made wholly or partly of paper, cardboard, or other similar material, containing any advertisement, announcement, or intimation, whether in words, pictorial form, or otherwise, printed, written, or depicted, which is exhibited or intended to be exhibited.

(b) Any combination of posters relating to the same subject matter or business shall be deemed to be one poster.

(c) In the case of posters relating to the advertisement of or contents in any newspaper or periodical, the expression "poster" includes posters made of any material whatever.

2. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 hereof, no person shall make or exhibit, or cause or permit to be made or exhibited, any poster the superficial measurements of which exceed 2,400 square inches.

3. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 hereof, no person shall exhibit, or cause or permit to be exhibited, any poster containing any advertisement, announcement, or intimation with respect to goods offered for sale by a retailer except at the premises where such goods are offered for sale.

4. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 hereof, no person shall exhibit or affix, or cause or permit to be exhibited or affixed, on any one wall, hoarding, or place a number of posters relating to the same subject matter or business which in the aggregate exceed a superficial area of two thousand four hundred square inches, except at the place of business of the person advertising, in which case no one poster so exhibited or affixed shall exceed the superficial area aforesaid.

5. No person shall exhibit, or cause or permit to be exhibited, any poster relating to the advertisement of or contents in any newspaper or periodical except at the premises where the newspaper or periodical is published.

6. 7. Subject to the prohibitions contained in paragraphs 5 and 6 hereof, this Order shall not apply to posters the printing of which had been actually commenced on or before 2nd March 1917, and which were actually in stock with a printer, billposter, or advertiser on or before 22nd October, 1917.

Advertising Circulars.

8. In this Order the expression "advertising circulars" includes advertisements of any description (other than posters), issued gratuitously and printed or written on paper, cardboard, or other similar material; tradesmen's catalogues and price lists; advertising sheets or periodicals in the form of a newspaper or magazine, whether registered as a newspaper or not, which are distributed gratuitously, and of which advertising is the main and not merely an ancillary purpose, diaries, almanacks, and calendars issued gratuitously and containing advertising matter, but does not include annual reports of companies or societies if issued only to members of such companies or societies, nor circulars requesting verification of information for books of reference and containing no advertising matter other than that relating to books of reference published by the same person, nor to auctioneers' catalogues relating to a bona-fide auction, nor to particulars relating to land or houses which are offered for letting or sale.

9. No person shall issue or despatch, whether in response to a request in writing or otherwise, any advertising circulars, either by post, by hand, in the form of inset, or otherwise, save as is hereinafter expressly authorised.

10. Advertising circulars may, until 31st January, 1919, be issued and despatched within the United Kingdom for, by and on behalf of all persons, other than those mentioned in paragraph 17 hereof, provided that the total weight of paper used for such advertising circulars (including the envelopes, packing, or wrappers) shall not exceed one-third of that used by the person by or on whose behalf the same were issued or despatched within the United Kingdom between 1st February, 1916, and 31st January, 1917.

11. In the case of advertising circulars relating to seeds and plants for the growing of food-stuffs one half of the total weight of paper used by the person by or on whose behalf the same were issued and despatched between 1st February, 1914, and 31st January, 1915, shall be substituted for the total weight of paper permitted to be used by paragraph 10; provided that in the case of advertising circulars relating both to seeds or plants for foodstuffs and other seeds, plants or goods the part relating to such other seeds, plants or goods must not exceed one-third of the total weight calculated as in paragraph 10.

13. Nothing in this Order applies to any prospectus or application form issued by a company or association bona fide carrying on the business of insurance and despatched by them in response to a request in writing, nor to any annual report or statement of accounts or balance sheet issued by such company or association to persons insured by them.

14. Nothing in this Order applies to circulars relating to the purchase, sale, or dealing in, or to price lists of any stocks, shares, debentures, bonds, or securities of a like nature issued or despatched by a member of a stock exchange in the United Kingdom.

15. Advertising circulars and price lists of the class mentioned in the last paragraph may be issued or distributed by any other person, provided that the total weight of paper used for such circulars issued or distributed up to 31st January, 1919, does not exceed that allowed in paragraph 10 of this Order.

16. Nothing in this Order affects the use by a retailer of an advertising circular printed before 22nd October, 1917, as a wrapper for an article or articles purchased at his place of business provided no other form of wrapping paper is used on the article or articles so purchased.

17. No advertising circular shall be made, printed, issued, despatched, or exhibited for, by or on behalf of any registered moneylender, bookmaker, commission agent for the making or placing of any bets or wagers, or tipster, or by the promoters of or persons interested in any guessing competition or test of skill, whether in connection with a game, sport, or otherwise.

18. Where it appears to the Board of Trade or the Royal Commission on Paper that the total weight of paper used by or on behalf of any person for advertising circulars issued or despatched by him between 1st February, 1916, and 31st January, 1917, or in the case of those circulars mentioned in paragraph 11 between 1st February, 1914, and 31st January, 1915, was unreasonable or excessive, having regard to the nature and importance of the business or matter referred to in such circulars and all the circumstances of the case, the Board or Royal Commission on Paper may by notice in writing directed to such person prescribe the total weight of paper that may be used by such persons for advertising circulars issued or despatched between the dates mentioned in paragraphs 10 and 11 of this Order, and such weight may be less than that permitted by those paragraphs, and shall be the total weight which such person is hereby permitted to use for the purpose aforesaid.

19. All persons who make, print, issue, despatch, distribute, or publish advertising circulars shall, if and when required by the Royal Commission on Paper on behalf of the Board of Trade, make returns to the said Commission in such form and giving such particulars as they may direct as to the making, printing, issuing, despatch, distribution, or publication of advertising circulars.

General.

20. Nothing in this Order applies to posters or advertising circulars despatched or to be despatched by persons (other than those mentioned in paragraph 17) to persons abroad.

21. The Paper Restriction (Posters and Circulars) Consolidation Order, 1917, and the general licences granted thereunder are hereby revoked without prejudice to any act or thing done or suffered or to any penalty incurred or prosecution or proceeding which has been or may be instituted thereunder.

22. The Royal Commission on Paper on behalf of the Board of Trade may in such cases as they think fit and either particularly as respects any person or thing or generally as respects any class of persons or things issue licences dispensing with the application of this Order to any person or thing or any class of persons or things.

23. Where the fulfilment by any person of any contract is interfered with by the necessity on the part of himself or any other person of complying with any provision of this Order, that necessity shall be a good defence to any action or proceeding taken against that person in respect of the non-fulfilment of the contract so far as it is due to that interference.

24. Infringements of this Order are summary offences under the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

25. This Order may be cited as the Paper Restriction (Posters and Circulars) Order, 1918, and shall take effect on 1st February, 1918.
