ELIZABETH DAWES, Deceased.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice made in the Matter of the estate of ELIZABETH DAWES, deceased, (McCormack v. Bell, 1917, D. No. 627), whereby it was ordered that the following enquiries be made:—(1) An enquiry who, upon the death of the said

Elizabeth Dawes, became beneficially entitled to any real estate of hers as to which she died intestate, and if more than one, of what estates or interests, and whether any such persons are since dead, and, if so, who, by devise, descent or otherwise, have become entitled to the real estate to which such persons so became entitled. (2) An enquiry who, upon the death of the said Elizabeth Dawes, became beneficially entitled to any personal estate of hers as to which she died intestate, and if more than one, in what shares and proportions, and whether any such persons are since dead, and, if so, who are their legal personal representatives. All persons claiming as above are, personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 28th day of February, 1918, to come in and prove their claims at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Sargant and Mr. Justice Younger, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, and to enter their claims in a book kept for that purpose in Room 254 at the said Chambers, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Wednesday, the 6th day of March, 1918, at 12 o'clock noon, at the said Chambers (Room No. 252), is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 28th day of January, 1918.

R. T. WATKIN WILLIAMS, Master.

NOTE.—The persons interested may be found through the intestate's father, Robert Dawes, who was married at Carlisle, and who died on the 9th day of June, 1864, at Derby.

In the Matter of the Trading with the Enemy Amendment Act, 1916, and in the Matter of GERMAN ATHENÆUM Limited.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Board of Trade dated the 23rd day of March, 1916, and made under section 1, sub-sections (1) and (2), of the Trading with the Enemy Amendment Act, 1916, it was ordered and required that the business carried on in the United Kingdom by the above named German Athenæum Limited, of 29, Mincing-lane, London, E.C., should be wound up, and Mr. Claude Cross Campling, of 4b, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry, London, E.C., was appointed Controller to control and supervise the carrying out of the order and to conduct the winding-up of the said business. And whereas the said Mr. Claude Cross Campling died on the 6th day of August, 1917, and Mr. James Robert Tulloch was appointed on the 9th day of August, 1917, to continue the winding-up of the said business; and whereas the said Mr. James Robert Tulloch has made application to the Board of Trade under section 1, sub-section (5), of the said Act to grant him a release:

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade hereby give notice that, on or after the 9th day of February, 1918, they will proceed to consider such application and any objection which may be made by any person appearing to them to be interested; and accordingly give notice that any person who claims to be interested, and may desire to object to the aforesaid release being granted,
