Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of February, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council of His late Majesty dated the 10th January, 1910, it was ordered that Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, Esquire, and Herbert Woodfield Paul, Esquire, or such other persons as His Majesty might from time to time approve in the stead of them, or any of them, should be His Majesty's Commissioners for testing, in conformity with Her late Majesty's Order in Council dated the 4th June, 1870, or such further Order or Orders as His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, had issued or might issue in that behalf, the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and also for testing, in conformity with Regulations to be from time to time issued by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War, the literary qualifications of candidates for admission by means of competitive examinations to the Royal Military College at Sandhurst, and to the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, and should hold their offices during the pleasure of His Majesty, the said Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, Esquire, being First Commissioner; and should have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as might be required to assist them in the performance of their duties:

And whereas by a further Order in Council of His late Majesty, also dated the 10th January, 1910, (hereinafter called the Consolidating Order in Council), it was ordered that so much of the said Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870, and of certain other Orders in Council, making provision for testing according to fixed rules the qualifications of persons who might seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to situations or employments in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for regulating the conduct of His Majesty's said Civil Establishments, as was then in force, should be repealed, and that the provisions of the Consolidating Order in Council should have effect in substitution thereof:

And whereas the said Herbert Woodfield Paul, Esquire, retired from his office as such Commissioner as aforesaid on the 16th January, 1918:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, as from the date of this Order, the said Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, Esquire, C.B., and David Beveridge Mair, Esquire, and Lawrence Cary Hampton Weekes, Esquire, or such other persons as His Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them, or any of them, shall be His Majesty's Commissioners for testing, in conformity with the Consolidating Order in Council, or such further Order or Orders in Council as His Majesty may issue in that behalf, the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and also for testing in conformity with Regulations to be from time to time issued by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War, the literary qualifications of Candidates for admission by means of competitive examinations to the Royal Military College at Sandhurst, and to the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of His Majesty; the said Stanley Mordaunt Leathes, Esquire, being First Commissioner; and the said David Beveridge Mair, Esquire, and Lawrence Cary Hampton Weekes, Esquire, being Assistant Commissioners, holding also the offices, respectively, of Director of Examinations and Secretary to the Civil Service Commission, and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of their duties.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of February, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty,

Lord President,
 Lord Chamberlain,
 Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction in China:
