

chest containing silver from falling into enemy hands. He has consistently done fine work.

240726 Pte. A. J. Harris, Welsh R. (Bath).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He silenced an enemy gun with his Lewis gun. During the attack he collected a few men, entered the enemy's position and disarmed and captured a number of the enemy. He showed the greatest courage and initiative.

76235 Sjt. J. R. Harvey, R.E. (Glasgow).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He was untiring in his work under most difficult conditions during a long period, and showed great coolness and gallantry under fire.

M2/153652 Pte. (A./L./C.) T. G. Harvey, A.S.C. (Brynmaur, Breconshire).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He rendered very valuable service on Light Armoured Car patrols, and set a splendid example to the men under him.

302023 L./Cpl. B. Hatherall, Tank Corps (Tetbury, Glouc.).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great courage in getting the wounded out of a disabled Tank under heavy shell fire during an action.

S/1563 Sjt. C. Haywood, Arg. & Suth d Hghrs. (Stourbridge).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although wounded in both legs, he refused to leave the firing line, and went on to the second and third enemy line. There he organised the men, setting them a splendid example of coolness and devotion to duty. Immediately afterwards he was hit by bomb splinters in sixteen places. His fearlessness on this occasion is typical of the courage invariably displayed by him.

75079 Sqn. S./M. (A./R./S./M) H. Heath, Yeo. (Bakewell).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has consistently performed good work throughout, and has at all times set a splendid example.

885109 Sjt. W. A. Herring, R.F.A. (Lowestoft).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He laid and maintained two lines of communication between the battery and the forward observation post during an action. He worked with great courage and determination under constant and heavy shell fire.

18233 Cpl. (A./Sjt.) J. Hilton, E. York. R. (Burslem).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. At a reconnaissance he displayed great coolness under fire, taking command of the first line, when his officer was killed. On patrol work he has invariably shown great courage and resource. This N.C.O. has done consistently good and gallant work.

34089 Sjt. J. W. Hooper, R.F.A. (Darlington).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On one occasion his battery was subjected to very heavy fire, and his gun was twice put out of action by direct hits. He behaved throughout with great courage, and set a most excellent example to his detachment.

5824 Cpl. P. Howard, A. Cyc. C. (Cambridge).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On many occasions he has displayed bold leadership and resource in patrol actions with the enemy, and has at all times set a fine example.

13513 Cpl. (A./Sjt.) J. Hudson, Oxf. & Bucks. L.I. (Ducklington).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He was sent with the assaulting battalion to report on the situation in the captured trenches during a period of heavy trench mortar and artillery fire. While moving along the firing line a Lewis gun team was put out of action. As the enemy was counter-attacking he rallied the men near him, and worked the gun single-handed till so badly wounded in the arm that he could not carry on. Although very faint he struggled back to battalion headquarters to make his report before going to the dressing station. He set a splendid example of pluck and devotion to duty.

6892 Cr. Sjt. W. Hunsworth, York. L.I. (Halifax).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has always been most conspicuous for his coolness whenever his company has been engaged with the enemy, and has at all times performed his duties in a most capable manner.

3200 T./R.S.M. J. Jackson, Hrs. (Aldershot).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed the greatest coolness and initiative during the sinking of a troopship. He organised the evacuation of the troops so that no lives were lost.

302079 Cnr. O. Janes, Tank Corps (Hemel Hempstead).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great courage in getting the wounded out of a disabled Tank under heavy shell fire during an action.

56427 Sqdn. Q.M.S. F. S. Jones, M.G. Co. (Walthamstow).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He rendered very valuable service on light armoured car patrols, and set a splendid example to the men under him.

A.11 L./Cpl. Juma Bin Heri, Intelligence Dept.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When under heavy fire he rescued a wounded man and succeeded in getting him away safely. Later, he worked hard encouraging and rallying his men under trying