

circumstances. His coolness and disregard of danger set a magnificent example, and his work has been excellent throughout.

260182 Pte. (A./Cpl.) G. Kirkby, Yeo. (Stamford Hill, N.).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He rendered splendid service during two actions, and on many other occasions under most difficult conditions. His initiative and example have been an incentive to all other ranks.

610295 Sjt. S. F. Langley, Lond. R. (Camden Town).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid by hostile aircraft. The battalion was bombed for twenty minutes, and during the whole of the time he attended to the wounded in the open, saving at least one life by his courageous act.

49861 Pte. C. Leonard, M.G. Co. (W. Kilburn).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He remained alone for two days with an officer who was severely wounded in front of our lines. He dragged him to a shelter, obtained water for him, and kept parties of the enemy at bay, and finally succeeded in getting him into our lines. He showed the greatest courage and self-sacrifice.

49330 A./Cpl. A. R. Linsell, M.G. Co. (Ilford).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When the enemy were attacking he mounted his machine-gun and brought it into action in the open. When a withdrawal was ordered, having loaded his own mule, he returned under fire to make sure that everything had been got away, and discovered another machine-gun, which he brought back. He set a splendid example of courage and initiative.

681577 C.S.M. J. Love, Lond. R. (Wallington).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has always displayed the greatest courage and coolness under fire, setting a splendid example to his men.

G/13104 Cpl. (A./Sjt.) J. Lovell, R. Fus. (Southampton).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has rendered excellent service during a long period, shown great courage in action, and set a splendid example to all ranks.

7826 Sjt. (A./C.S.M.) N. Macaskill, Cam. Highrs. (Harris).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has consistently performed good work when in action, and has at all times set a splendid example to his men.

281687 Fitter S./Sjt. A. MacDougall, R.G.A. (Ayrshire).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion. He has done excellent work during a long period.

200249 Cpl. J. Macfarlane, R. Scots (Perth).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He laid a telephone to the firing line then close to the enemy's trenches, and maintained communication under heavy fire. He showed great coolness and courage.

300739 Pte. A. MacLachlin, R. Scots (Bathgate).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty as stretcher bearer. When the other stretcher bearers were wounded he obtained assistance and carried on his work with untiring energy for two days and nights after an attack. He set a splendid example of courage and self-sacrifice.

70648 Motor Cyclist Cpl. H. A. Major, R.E. (Swindon).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has done valuable service during a very long period, and has always shown the greatest courage and devotion to duty.

75041 Sjt. C. H. Mansfield, Yeo. (Bakewell).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has had complete control of a troop in the absence of his officer, and handled it in reconnaissance with marked success. On several occasions he encountered enemy patrols, and has invariably shown great ability and presence of mind. He has consistently performed good work throughout, and has displayed fearless and resolute leadership.

330380 Sjt. M. Matthews, Hamp. R. (Cowers, I. of W.).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He did excellent work in laying and repairing wires under fire, and set a splendid example to the men under him.

Z151 Cpl. A. H. Mathieson, R.F.C. (Kimberley, S. Africa).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in keeping the machines of his flight constantly in action during the rainy season. Though frequently suffering from fever he continued at duty, and set a splendid example to his men.

620163 Sjt. S. May, R.H.A. (Taunton).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He did continuous good work in leading ammunition transport by night and day for a long period and in arranging the ammunition supply. He showed great initiative and devotion to duty.

240469 A./Sjt. W. Milner, K.O.S.B. (Thornhill).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in charge of Lewis guns, in an action. He got his guns into action, and kept them firing until dark, inflicting heavy casualties on the enemy. He worked a gun single-handed for a long period and showed great courage and coolness.

290221 A./Cpl. A. Muir, Sco. Rif. (Glasgow).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in an action. He held his section