Miss ANNA GEORGIANA BUSH.

Next of Kin Wanted.

ALL persons claiming to be a next of kin of the late Miss Anna Georgiana Bush (who died at Teignmouth, Devonshire, England, on the 27th February, 1918) should communicate at once with the undersigned, Solicitors to the executors of her will, and should send, with their applications, evidence of their claims, i.e., the necessary certificates of marriages, deaths and births, to establish that the persons claiming are next of kin.

Claims have already been made by persons who allege that they are First Cousins of the late Miss Bush, and, as the claims received appear to be valid, it is improbable that any persons of more distant relationship than First Cousins will be entitled to share in Miss Bush's estate.

The following persons, subject to strict proof of their claims by the certificates mentioned above, may be entitled to be included amongst the next of kin, namely:—

1. The children of Peter Courtenay Clarke, who formerly lived at Devonport, Devonshire, England, and was married at Devonport in 1824.
2. The children or grandchildren of Peter Clarke, who was born in 1767, and died in 1853, at Newton Abbot, Devonshire.
3. Joshua Douglas Clarke, a Son of the said Peter Clarke, and his children (if any).
4. The Brothers and Sisters of Dr. John Tench Bush, M.D., who at one time practised as a Surgeon and resided at Bridgetown, Totnes, Devonshire, and died in Berbice, British Guiana, about the year 1846. and the children of such Brothers and Sisters.
5. Mrs. Anna Nixon, the Wife of Mr. Nixon, an Underwriter at Lloyds. It is believed that Mrs. Anna Nixon was a Daughter of a Brother or Sister of Dr. John Tench Bush.
6. Mrs. Anna Nichols, the Wife of Dr. Nichols, of Jersey, and Miss Martha Lucas. (Mrs. Anna Nichols and Miss Martha Lucas are believed to have been Daughters of Mrs. Lucas, a Sister of Dr. John Tench Bush.)
7. Mrs. Annie Morris, the Wife of a Clergyman who at one time kept a Boys' School at Clifton, Gloucestershire.
8. Mr. George Bush, who was believed to have been in the Navy. (Mrs. Annie Morris and Mr. George Bush are believed to have been children of a Brother of Dr. John Tench Bush.)
9. Mrs. Allwood, the Wife of Canon Allwood, believed to have one time officiated at the "Mother Church," Sydney, Australia, and her children. (It is believed that Mrs. Allwood was a Sister of Dr. John Tench Bush.)

Notice is hereby given, that under the will of Miss Bush the executors will distribute the residue of her estate between all persons who shall, on or before the 27th February, 1920, have proved that they are the persons entitled, under the Statutes of Distribution, to share in the estate of Miss Bush had she died intestate, and that all such persons who do not claim and prove their titles as aforesaid to the satisfaction of the executors on or before that date are excluded by the terms of the will from participation in the estate.—Dated this 5th April, 1918.

130 TOZER and DELL, 2 and 3, Orchard-gardens, Teignmouth, Devonshire, England, Solicitors to the Public Trustee and Alfred Percival Dell, the Executors and Trustees of the Will of the late Miss Anna Georgiana Bush.

I THOMAS BERNARD MORGAN, heretofore called by the name of Thomas Bernard Doherty, of Rainhill, in the county of Lancaster, Electrical Engineer, hereby give public notice, that on the 11th day of February, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, I formally and absolutely renounced; relinquished and abandoned the use of my said surname of Doherty, and then assumed and adopted and determined thenceforth on all occasions whatsoever to use and subscribe the name of Thomas Bernard Morgan instead of the said name of Thomas Bernard Doherty; and I give further notice, that by a deed poll dated the 11th day of February, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, duly executed and attested and enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court on the 15th day of February, one thousand nine hundred and
