

Or direct that the Law, or any part thereof, shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the said Act:

And whereas by an Ordinance, numbered 69 of 1917, enacted by the Legislature of the Colony of Nigeria, the short title of which is "The Extradition Ordinance, 1917," it is provided that "all powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, are hereby vested in, and may in the Colony be exercised and done by, any Commissioner of the Supreme Court, in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts":

And whereas it is further provided by the said Ordinance that the said Ordinance shall not come into operation until His Majesty shall, by Order in Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect within the Colony as if it were part of the "Extradition Act, 1870," but that the said Ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been published in the Nigeria Government Gazette:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth, by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in the Colony of Nigeria without modification or alteration, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870."

And the Right Honourable Walter Hume Long, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of April, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord Privy Seal.
Lord Chamberlain.
Lord Colebrooke.
Lord Pirrie.
Lord Carnock.

WHEREAS by the Isle of Man (War Legislation) Act, 1914, His Majesty has power to extend to the Isle of Man any Act which, in the opinion of His Majesty, was passed for the purpose of meeting any emergency created by the present War, subject to adaptations for the purpose of making the Act applicable to the Isle of Man:

And whereas it is desirable to extend the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (War Restrictions) Act, 1915, to the Isle of Man, as amended by the Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1917:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (War Restrictions) Act, 1915, as amended by Sections 4 (1), 5, and 7 of the Courts (Emergency Powers) Act, 1917, shall extend to the Isle of Man, subject to the following adaptations:—

In Section 1 (1) (i), (2), and (4), for the words "twenty-fifth day of November, nineteen hundred and fifteen" there shall be substituted the words "first day of February, nineteen hundred and eighteen."

In Section 2 (1) (e) for the words "a land charge under the Land Transfer Acts, 1875 and 1897," there shall be substituted the words "a deed of Bond and Security or Debenture."

In Section 2 (2) omit (a), (b), and (c) down to and including the words "situate elsewhere."

In Section 3 for the words "Lord Chancellor" there shall be substituted the words "Lieutenant Governor."

Omit Section 4.

In Section 5, for the words "Act, 1915," there shall be substituted the words "(Isle of Man) Act, 1918."

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of April, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, under and by virtue of the provisions in that behalf contained in the Medical Acts, 1858 and 1886, to nominate Charles Sissmore Tomes, Esquire, F.R.S., F.R.C.S. (England), L.D.S., LL.D., to be, for a further term of one year, from the 20th day of May, 1918, a member of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of April, 1918.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by the County Courts Act, 1888, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to alter the number and boundaries of the Districts and Places of the holding of any Court, and to order the discontinuance of the holding of any Court, and to order by what Name, and in what Towns and Places, a Court shall be held:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that:—

(1) The County Court of Kent, held at Hythe and New Romney, shall cease to be held at New Romney.

(2) The Parishes of Blackmanstone, Brenzett, Brookland, Fairfield Hope, Ivychurch, Lydd, Midley, Old Romney, Orgarswick, St. Martins, St. Mary's, Snargate, and Snave, shall be transferred from the District of the said County Court of Kent, now held at
