

55851 Sjt. W. M. Graham, R.G.A. (Peckham).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. By his coolness and courage he has been most successful in keeping his gun in action under most trying circumstances. On one occasion a shell killed three and wounded two of his detachment, but by his fearless example he kept the men together, and continued to serve his gun until reinforced. Time after time he has rendered invaluable service in putting out fires in ammunition dumps.

516 C.S.M. G. R. Graves, Gds. M.G. Coy. (Ashted, Birmingham).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. As section serjeant he did excellent work for three years, and took charge of the section on his officer becoming a casualty. In an engagement he displayed great courage in leading his men through an enemy barrage, and maintained his guns in action, finally bringing them all out intact. He always preserves a high state of efficiency and discipline in his section.

610259 B.S.M. P. E. Gray, R.F.A. (Leicester).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On one occasion, although wounded in the head, he bravely remained at his post until ordered away. His coolness and courage under most trying conditions have always inspired confidence in all ranks.

C/Z5011 L./Seaman (A./P.O.) D. H. Green, R.N.V.R. (Falkirk).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. His absolute disregard of danger and cheerful spirit have inspired confidence in all ranks.

35450 Cpl. G. H. Green, R.F.A. (Tideswell).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has performed most excellent work and rendered valuable service during the past year. On several occasions he has set an exceptionally gallant example to the gun detachments, and has kept his gun in action time after time under the heaviest shell fire. His gallantry and determination have been of outstanding merit.

17473 L./Sjt. E. Grey, Welsh R. (Swansea).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. In action, he constantly patrolled his telephone wires to keep up communication, often under heavy fire.

700013 Sjt. (A./B.S.M.) R. A. B. Griffiths, R.F.A. (Blackburn).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has done consistent good work for a year and has rendered valuable service to his battery.

54981 Sjt. S. Grover, Welsh R. (Portslade).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. As platoon serjeant he has done consistent good work, particularly on the occasion of a raid, and also during an attack. His reliable conduct, coolness, and power of leadership have been most marked.

203552 C.S.M. H. R. Groves, E. Lan. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. A heavy trench-mortar shell blew in a dug-out. He took the weight of the beam supporting the roof on his back, at great danger to himself, until another man had been extricated.

200135 C.Q.M.S. (A./C.S.M.) H. Haigh, W. Rid. R. (Greetland, Yorks.).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He always set a fine example of courage, coolness, and energy at critical times. His work as platoon commander was particularly noticeable.

305646 Pte. H. Haigh, W. Riding R. (Lindley, Huddersfield).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on many occasions in raids. He always displayed the greatest courage and judgment, and could be relied on to act coolly in the most critical situations.

21082 Sadd. S./S. A. Hall, R.F.A. (Brighton).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty throughout the campaign. By his courage and energy he greatly assisted to overcome the difficulties of the supply of ammunition to the gun positions, and invariably displayed initiative and skill.

44454 Sjt. A. E. Hall, R.G.A. (Old Walsoken).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He did consistent good work and showed energy and ability in charge of a sub-section. He repeatedly showed great courage under heavy shell fire, and set an excellent example to his men.

16660 C.S.M. E. Hall, Mid'x R. (Preston, Lancs.).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great coolness under fire on many occasions, and frequently went out in front of the line, and obtained valuable information. He set a splendid example of courage and energy.

50741 C.S.M. E. W. Hall, M.G. Cps. (Norwich).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On several occasions, when officers were not available, he carried out the duties of sub-section commander with extreme ability, and his courage and coolness in action have frequently been brought to notice.

268646 Cpl. L. Hall, W. Rid. R. (Stalybridge).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. His courage, coolness and energy have greatly contributed to the efficiency of his company, and he has set a splendid example to all ranks.

13486 Sjt. S. E. Hall, K.O.S.B. (Cockham).

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty since the early part of the campaign. On one occasion, when his platoon commander had been killed, he assumed command, and by his splendid leadership, courage and example carried out a successful operation