

I FLORIS I'ANSON I'ANSON, late of Trentham, in the county of Stafford, and now residing at Bardencroft, Saltburn-by-the-Sea, in the county of Yorkshire, Widow, lately known by the names "Floris I'Anson Corn," hereby give notice, that I have assumed and henceforth on all occasions shall sign and use and be called and known by the surname "I'Anson," in the place of the surname "Corn," and that such change of name is formally declared and evidenced by a deed poll under my hand and seal bearing date the 16th day of April, 1918, and enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court of Judicature, on the 22nd day of April, 1918.—Dated this 23rd day of April, 1918.

FLORIS I'ANSON I'ANSON, formerly Floris
994 I'Anson Corn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by deed poll dated the first day of March, 1918, under the hand and seal of BERNARD ROSS, lately called Bernard Rosenberg, of 45, Marshmont-street, Russell-square, in the county of London, Commercial Traveller, such deed having been duly enrolled in the Enrollment Department of the Central Office of the Supreme Court of Judicature, on the 22nd day of March, 1918, the said Bernard Ross thereby wholly and absolutely renounced, relinquished and abandoned the use of his said name of Bernard Rosenberg, and assumed and adopted from the date of the deed the name of Bernard Ross, in lieu of the said name of Bernard Rosenberg, and he thereby expressly authorized and required all persons whomsoever at all times to designate and describe him by such adopted name of Bernard Ross accordingly.—Dated this 22nd day of April, 1918.

NORMAN H. AARON, 64, Moorgate-street,
London, E.C. 2, Solicitor for the said Bernard
995 Ross.

Notice of Change of Name by Deed Poll.

I, Captain HERBERT LIGHTSTONE, heretofore called and known by the name of Hyman Lightstone, of 12, Fairfax-road, Hampstead, London, N.W., and of the Royal Army Medical Corps, D.S.O., M.C., hereby give public notice that on the 21st day of November, 1917, I formally and absolutely renounced, relinquished and abandoned the use of my said first name of Hyman, and then assumed and adopted and determined thenceforth on all occasions whatsoever to use and subscribe the name of Herbert instead of the said name of Hyman; and I give further notice, that by a deed poll, dated the 21st day of November, 1917, duly executed and attested, and enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court, on the 16th day of April, 1918, I formally and absolutely renounced, relinquished and abandoned the said first name of Hyman, and declared that I had assumed and adopted and intended thenceforth upon all occasions whatsoever to use and subscribe the name of Herbert Lightstone instead of Hyman Lightstone, and so as to be at all times thereafter called, known and described by the name of Herbert Lightstone exclusively.—Dated the 19th day of April, 1918.

HERBERT LIGHTSTONE, formerly known as 121 Hyman Lightstone.

I, GEORGE DAVID ST. CLAIR THOM, of No. 2, Templeton-place, Earl's Court, London, S.W., a Colonel in the Army Medical Service of His Majesty's Army, heretofore called and known by the names George David Sinclair Thom, give public notice, that I have formally and absolutely renounced and abandoned the use of my third Christian name, Sinclair, and have assumed and adopted and determined henceforth on all occasions whatsoever to use and subscribe the name St. Clair as my third Christian name instead of the said name of Sinclair; and I give further notice, that by deed poll dated the sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, duly executed and attested, and enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court, on the 12th day of April, 1918, I formally and absolutely renounced and abandoned the use of my said third Christian name of Sinclair, and in lieu thereof assumed and adopted the third Christian name of St. Clair; and I declared that I should at all times thereafter, in all records, deeds, documents and writings, and in all actions, suits and proceedings, as well as in all dealings and transactions, matters and things whatsoever, and on all occasions use and subscribe the third Christian name of St. Clair as my third Christian name, in lieu of my third Christian name of Sinclair so abandoned as aforesaid.—Dated this eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen.

GEORGE DAVID ST. CLAIR THOM, Colonel,
122 A.M.S.

WE, LOUIS THURNER, of 23, Pembroke-crescent, Kensington, in the county of London, and "Noris," Gerrard's Cross, in the county of Buckingham, Company Director, and BEATRICE JOSEPHINE THURNER (born Frank), of the same address, his Wife, the said Louis Thurner being a naturalised British subject, by virtue of letters of naturalisation granted to him on the 13th day of April, 1898, registered at the Home Office on the 19th day of April, 1898; and the said Beatrice Josephine Thurner (born Frank) being a natural born British subject, and now or lately respectively called or known by the name of Louis Thurnauer and Beatrice Josephine Thurnauer, do hereby give notice, that on behalf of ourselves and our heirs and issue, we have absolutely abandoned our said surname of Thurnauer, and have assumed and intend henceforth upon all occasions and at all times to sign and use and be called and known by the surname of Thurner only, in lieu of and substitution for our surname of Thurnauer; and that such change of name is evidenced by a deed poll dated the 10th day of April, 1918, and enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court of Judicature, on the 18th day of April, 1918, in testimony whereof we subscribe ourselves by such our intended future name.—Dated this 23rd day of April, 1918.

LOUIS THURNER.
BEATRICE J. THURNER.
