 Dkhnd. James Bonas, R.N.R., O.N. 5242S.D.
 2nd Hnd. John Smith, R.N.R., O.N. 8670 D.A.

HONOURS FOR MISCELLANEOUS SERVICES.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the following honours, decorations and medals to the undermentioned Officers and Men:—

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Staff Payr. Henry Prosser Williams, R.N.

For services with the Royal Naval Siege Guns on shore in Flanders from July 1917 to February, 1918. He has shown personal bravery, sound judgment, and great devotion to duty, and in addition to his regular duties has performed executive officers' work, which required technical skill and judgment.

Cdr. John Albert Leighton, R.N.R.

In recognition of his services in connection with the transfer of British ships from the Baltic. He displayed the greatest tact and determination in carrying out this task in the face of great difficulties and opposition.

Lieut.-Cdr. (Act. Cdr.) Jamieson Boyd Adams, R.N.R.

For services with the Royal Naval Siege Guns on shore in Flanders from August, 1916, to March, 1918. He has on many occasions displayed the greatest gallantry and devotion to duty, and set a high example of cheerfulness, thoroughness, and keenness.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Order.

Lieut.-Cdr. (Act. Cdr.) Gervase William Heaton Heaton, D.S.O., R.N.

For skill and bravery shown by him in recovering enemy mines.

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieut. Viscount Maidstone, R.N.V.R.

For services with the Royal Naval Siege Guns on shore in Flanders from December, 1915, to August, 1917. During this period he showed an utter contempt of danger and the greatest devotion to duty. As Plotting Officer he quickly acquired the necessary technique, combining with it sound judgment and a sense of responsibility which rendered his work absolutely reliable. On one occasion, his gun-pit being destroyed by enemy fire, he showed marked ability in handling ratings with courage and decision.

Lieut. George Davis, R.N.R.

For skill and bravery shown by him in recovering enemy mines.

Lieut. Edward Hilton Young, M.P., R.N.V.R.

For services with one of the most advanced Royal Naval Siege Guns on shore in Flanders from July, 1917, to February, 1918.

For many months the gun-pit and adjoining camp were subjected to continual heavy fire from machine guns and guns of the largest calibre. The conduct and example of this officer during these arduous times was beyond all praise, and he displayed qualities of leadership of the highest order. His gun was brought into action with skill and promptitude, and it was due to his example that the splendid moral of the ratings under him was maintained.

Eng.-Lieut. Ernest Miller Fittock, R.N.

For the coolness and promptitude shown by him in keeping the engines of one of H.M. ships working at high speed when the ship had been holed in the engine room below the water-line in action off the Belgian coast.

Act. Lieut. Basil Baseby, R.M.A.

In recognition of his services with the R.M.A. Siege Guns in Flanders. On 18th March, 1918, an enemy shell entered the right gun-pit, dismounting the gun, and causing a fire. Lieut. Baseby had been gassed the previous evening, and was still on the sick list, but at once proceeded to the gun-pit, and by his example and personal efforts extinguished the fire, which might otherwise have reached the ammunition in the ready magazine. The battery was under heavy shell fire at the time. He has at all times displayed zeal, cheerfulness, and ability.

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.

Sergt. Benjamin Peter Beale, R.M.A., No. R.M.A./9515.

Gnr. Albert Henry Bristow, R.M.A., No. R.M.A./7737 (R.M.A./B1265).

HONOURS FOR THE ROYAL NAVAL AIR SERVICE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the following decorations and medal to Officers and Men of the Royal Naval Air Service:—

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Flt. Lieut. John Gamon, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On the 30th March, 1918, whilst returning from a bombing raid, he was attacked by three enemy triplanes, one of which he brought down and drove off the other two. He has carried out very many bombing raids on enemy lines of communication, aerodromes, and dumps. His work has always been of the greatest merit, and he has set a splendid example to those around him.

Flt. Sub.-Lieut. George Brown Sievwright McBain, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty in carrying out bombing raids on enemy troops, aerodromes, and lines of communication. On the 18th March, 1918, while returning from bombing an enemy aerodrome, he was attacked by five enemy scouts. After a short combat one of the scouts was seen to nose-dive, and its tail plane fell off. The four other enemy aircraft retired. He has carried out many bombing raids, at all times showing great determination, and setting a splendid example.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Cross.

Flt. Lieut. (act. Flt. Cdr.) Leonard Henry Rochford, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For consistent determination, bravery, and skill. As a Flt. Cdr. he has shown considerable ability, and has always set a fine example when dealing with enemy aircraft. On the 21st March, 1918, when on offensive patrol, he attacked one of nine Albatross scouts. Enemy aircraft was seen to go down in the mist out of control. He has destroyed or driven down out of control many other enemy machines.

Flt. Lieut. (act. Flt. Cdr.) Charles Roger Lupton, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous bravery and skill in leading bombing formations, especially on 26th March, 1918, when he carried out at low altitudes four bombing raids on enemy communications. In the course of these raids he caused great damage to enemy transport, and inflicted serious casualties on large numbers of their reinforcements. He has carried out very many bombing raids, and by his courage and resource has instilled a spirit of confidence and daring in all those who have flown with him.

Flt. Lieut. James Alpheus Glen, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For exceptional gallantry and skill as a Flight Leader when engaging enemy aircraft. He has destroyed or driven down out of control many enemy machines.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Medal.

Air Mech., 1st Gr., Walter Naylor, D.S.M., O.N. F1406.

The following Officer has been mentioned in despatches:—

Flt. Lieut. Hubert Charles Lemon, R.N.A.S. (killed).
