

land, the Respondent may, after giving the Appellant due notice of his intended application, apply to the Court for a Certificate that the Appeal has not been effectually prosecuted by the Appellant, and if the Court sees fit to grant such a Certificate, the Appeal shall be deemed, as from the date of such Certificate, to stand dismissed for non-prosecution without express Order of His Majesty in Council, and the costs of the Appeal and the security entered into by the Appellant shall be dealt with in such manner as the Court may think fit to direct.

22. Where at any time between the order granting final leave to appeal and the despatch of the Record to England the Record becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal, the Court may, notwithstanding the order granting final leave to appeal, on an application in that behalf made by any person interested, grant a certificate showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted or entered on the Record in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died, or undergone a change of status, and the name of such person shall thereupon be deemed to be so substituted or entered on the Record as aforesaid without express Order of His Majesty in Council.

23. Where the Record subsequently to its despatch to England becomes defective by reason of the death, or change of status, of a party to the Appeal the Court shall, upon an application in that behalf made by any person interested, cause a certificate to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Privy Council showing who, in the opinion of the Court, is the proper person to be substituted, or entered, on the Record, in place of, or in addition to, the party who has died or undergone a change of status.

24. The case of each party to the Appeal may be printed either in Canada or in England and shall, in either event, be printed in accordance with the Rules set forth in the Schedule hereto, every tenth line thereof being numbered in the margin, and shall be signed by at least one of the Counsel who attends at the hearing of the appeal, or by the party himself if he conducts his Appeal in person.

25. The Case shall consist of paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall state as concisely as possible the circumstances out of which the Appeal arises, the contentions to be urged by the party lodging the same, and the reasons of appeal. References by page and line to the relevant portions of the Record as printed shall, as far as practicable, be printed in the margin, and care shall be taken to avoid, as far as possible, the reprinting in the Case of long extracts from the Record. The taxing officer, in taxing the costs of the Appeal, shall, either of his own motion, or at the instance of the opposite party, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity in the Case, and shall disallow the costs occasioned thereby.

26. Where the Judicial Committee directs a party to bear the costs of an Appeal incurred in Saskatchewan, such costs shall be taxed by the proper officer of the Court in accordance with the rules for the time being regulating taxation in the Court.

27. The Court shall conform with, and execute, any Order which His Majesty in Council may think fit to make on an Appeal from a judgment of the Court in like manner as any original judgment of the Court should or might have been executed.

28. Nothing in these Rules contained shall be deemed to interfere with the right of His Majesty, upon the humble Petition of any person aggrieved by any judgment of the Court, to admit his Appeal therefrom upon such conditions as His Majesty in Council shall think fit to impose.

Privy Council Office, 7th June, 1918.

The following Amendments to the Statutes of Lincoln College, Oxford, made by the Governing Body of the College on the 22nd May, 1918, have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and Notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

At a Special Meeting of the Sub-Rector and Fellows of Lincoln College, Oxford, holden on the 22nd of May, 1918, and specially summoned for the purpose, the following Amendments to the Statutes were unanimously agreed to:—

In Cap. 2, sect. 1, in place of

"He shall then vacate his Fellowship, and shall not be capable of re-election (except he shall have been transferred from an Official Fellowship as hereinafter provided), nor be eligible to another Fellowship in the College":—

To substitute

"He shall then vacate his Fellowship, and shall not be capable of re-election (nor be eligible to another Fellowship in the College), except he shall have been transferred from an Official Fellowship as hereinafter provided, or hold a Professorship in the University of Oxford, or be declared at the time of re-election by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting to be a person of eminent attainments in Literature or Science. If he be a Professor of the University, or be declared a person of eminent attainments in Literature or Science, the Rector and Fellows may, if they think fit, re-elect him to his Fellowship for a further period not exceeding 7 years, and so on from time to time under the same conditions, provided that the tenure of a Professor of the University shall cease with that, of his Professorship."

In Cap. 6, sect. 5, after the words "renovatus fuerit Socius":—

to insert the words
