

Johnson, Ernest Walter, Youth, Engineering Dept.

For great courage and devotion to duty in carrying out telegraph work in a dangerous area.

Johnson, Jilbert, Works Constable.

Behaved with coolness and resource on the occasion of a severe fire and explosion at a national filling factory.

Johnstone, Mary Dott, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Jones, Anita Myfanwy, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Jones, James.

For courage in removing a large quantity of picric acid, at very great personal risk, during a fire.

Kendall, Sydney Frank.

For courage and presence of mind in helping to subdue a fire under circumstances of great danger.

Kenny, Patrick Michael.

On several occasions, at risk of his life, conveyed food and messages to a party of troops who were cut off and isolated by hostile forces.

Kerridge, Harold.

For courage and resource in subduing a fire at great personal risk. Age 16.

Kimbell, Harold Richard.

For courage in removing a large quantity of picric acid at very great personal risk during a fire.

Kirk, Evelyn.

For courage on the occasion of an imminent explosion at an explosives factory.

Kirkham, Herbert.

For courage and high example in continuing at very dangerous work, although seriously injured on two separate occasions.

Knott, Nelly.

For great courage in stopping a machine and thus saving the life of a fellow-worker at grave risk to her own life.

Lancaster, Amelia.

For courage and high example in time of grave danger. Her example of returning to work at the earliest opportunity after a severe shock caused by an explosion at a filling factory had an excellent influence on other workers.

Landregan, Sapper Harry Humphrey, No. 2, Emergency Section, R.E.

For courage and devotion to duty in connection with the rescue of persons injured by air raids.

Last, Stanley George, Skilled Workman.

For courage and high example in continuing work in a gas-laden atmosphere at great personal risk.

Law, Frank.

For self-sacrifice and devotion to duty. Twice, after suffering from very severe burns, he resumed dangerous work in an acid factory.

Lawrence, George.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of an explosion at a filling factory.

Lightbody, Jessie, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Lindsay, Janet.

For courage and resource on the occasion of an explosion in a detonator magazine at a filling factory.

London, Staff-Sergeant Edward, Expeditionary Force Canteens.

For courage and devotion to duty while carrying on canteen work under shell fire.

McDonnell, James, Skilled Workman.

Displayed great zeal and courage in carrying out telegraph work under dangerous conditions.

McDowell, John Benjamin.

For courage and devotion to duty. Has carried on his work as official photographer in circumstances of great difficulty and danger.

Mackern, Joan.

For courage in carrying out her duties under circumstances of grave personal danger.

Malins, Geoffrey Herbert.

For courage and devotion to duty. Has carried on his work as official photographer in circumstances of great difficulty and danger.

Manclark, James, Factory Engineer.

At great risk to his life displayed conspicuous courage on the occasion of an explosion, another explosion being imminent.

Mann, Ernest William, Store Porter.

For great courage and self-sacrifice in unremitting attention to duty under circumstances of danger.

Mansley, William, Skilled Workman.

Displayed great courage in maintaining telephone service during a series of explosions.

Marchant, Kitty.

For courage in helping to subdue a serious fire at a filling factory.

Marlow, Ethel Violet, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Messiter, Florence Ethel.

For self-sacrifice and high example in continuing at her work in a filling factory after her health was seriously impaired by her work there.

Middleton, Gertrude (Mrs.), Assistant Mistress (Infants' Department).

Displayed very conspicuous courage and presence of mind on the occasion of an air raid, when a bomb burst in the classroom in which she was teaching.

Milne, John Donaldson, Inspector, Engineering Dept.

For courage, devotion to duty, and high example under circumstances of danger.

Mitchell, Ivy.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of an accident at an iron works.

Mitchell, Lilian, Supervisor, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Moore, Dr. Athol Raymond.

Displayed great courage and devotion in rescue work on the occasion of a Zeppelin raid.

Morrison, Robert, Farmer and Coastwatcher.

For courage in rescuing a man who had been cast ashore from a torpedoed vessel and who had crawled into a dangerous position on the rocks.

Morrisroe, Catherine, Telephonist.

Remained at her post until relieved on the occasion of a very serious explosion at munition works, although the explosions were almost continuous and the police advised the officers on duty to leave the building.