HONOURS FOR SERVICES IN THE ACTION WITH ENEMY DESTROYERS OFF THE BELGIAN COAST ON THE 21ST MARCH, 1918.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the following honours, decorations and medals to the undermentioned Officers and Men:—

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order.

Cdr. Roger L'Estrange Murray Rede, R.N., Commanding H.M.S. "Botha."

He took his ship through a heavy barrage of gun-fire, and, without waiting to ascertain that the rest of his division were following, proceeded to engage the enemy with ram, torpedo and gun fire. He rammed and cut in two an enemy torpedo-boat. The success of the action was undoubtedly due to his gallant leadership and initiative.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Order.

Lieut.-Odr. Percy Ralph Passawer Percival D.S.O., R.N., Commanding H.M.S. "Morris."

For the great initiative and promptitude shown by him. Kept good station during the first stage of the action, opening fire with "Botha." On the latter being disabled, showed great initiative in continuing and pressing home the action, torpedoing and sinking an enemy torpedo-boat. Showed great promptitude in taking "Botha" in tow and brought her safely into harbour.

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieut. David Graham Horndon Bush, R.N., H.M.S. "Botha."

For the extremely cool and able manner in which he controlled gunfire. His orders were given with precision, and he was quick to seize the opportunity to shift to a better target. There was no hitch whatsoever in the control, and this was entirely due to his very careful organisation and training of control parties. Made preparations to be taken in tow with admirable promptitude.

Lieut. Basil Rupert Willett, R.N.

Showed the greatest courage and judgment in an attack made on five enemy destroyers after they had broken off the engagement with the "Botha" and "Morris," scoring a direct hit with a torpedo on one of these vessels.

Art.-Eng. Evan Edward Wellman, R.N.

For the exceptional coolness and initiative shown by him when, early in the action, a shell damaged the auxiliary steam pipes of H.M.S. "Botha." When escaping steam prevented the watch-keepers from making their escape from the boiler-room affected, Art.-Eng. Wellman isolated the compartment by closing stop-valves from the upper deck, the ship being under heavy fire at the time. By this action he saved the lives of the men and assisted them to escape.

To receive the Conspicuous Gallantry Medal.
Sto., 1st Cl., John Darrock, O.N. K5718 (Ch.).

For most conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He entered the damaged boiler-room of H.M.S. "Botha," from which steam was still escaping, and assisted watch-keepers to get on deck under heavy fire.

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.

HONOURS FOR OFFICERS LATE OF THE ROYAL NAVAL AIR SERVICE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of Bars to the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers late of the Royal Naval Air Service:—

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieut. (temp. Capt.) Stearne Tighe Edwards, D.S.C., R.A.F.

For conspicuous bravery and most brilliant leadership of fighting patrols against enemy aircraft. On the 2nd May, 1918, whilst leading a patrol of four scouts, he encountered a hostile formation of eight enemy scouts, and drove down one enemy machine completely out of control. Soon afterwards he engaged another formation of six enemy scouts, driving down one to its destruction whilst his patrol accounted for another. He only broke off the fight owing to lack of ammunition. He has destroyed or driven down out of control many enemy machines since he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross, and has at all times shown the greatest gallantry and a fine offensive spirit.

Lieut. (Hon. Capt.) Arthur Roy Brown, D.S.C., R.A.F.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On the 21st April, 1918, while leading a patrol of 6 scouts he attacked a formation of 20 hostile scouts. He personally engaged two Fokker triplanes, which he drove off; then, seeing that one of our machines was being attacked and apparently hard pressed, he dived on the hostile scout, firing the while. This scout, a Fokker triplane, nose dived and crashed to the ground. Since the award of the Distinguished Service Cross he has destroyed several other enemy aircraft and has shown great dash and enterprise in attacking enemy troops from low altitudes despite heavy anti-aircraft fire.

Lieut. (Hon. Capt.) Arthur Treloar Whealy, D.S.C., R.A.F.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has proved himself to be a brilliant fighting pilot. Under his able and determined leadership his flight has engaged and accounted for many enemy machines, he himself being personally responsible for many of these.

To Receive a Second Bar to the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieut. (temp. Capt.) Thomas Frederick Le Mesurier, D.S.C., R.A.F.

For gallantry and consistent good work. He has at all times displayed the utmost gallantry in action, and by his determination and skill has set a very fine example to the pilots of his squadron. On the 23rd April, 1918, in spite of bad weather conditions, he successfully dropped bombs on the Ostend Docks from a height of 800 feet amidst very intense anti-aircraft and machine-gun fire. He also made valuable observations. He has taken part in many bomb raids, and has destroyed or driven down out of control several enemy machines.
