

the said Diocese of Lichfield, as such Bishop, with the consents of the Most Honourable James Edward Hubert Gascoyne, Marquess of Salisbury, and the Right Honourable George Nathaniel, Earl Curzon of Kedleston, as the Patrons of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Great Barr, and with the consents of William Robert Parker-Jervis, of Meaford Hall, Stone, in the said County of Stafford, Esquire, of the Reverend Percy Edward Mainwaring, of the Rectory, Whitmore, in the said County of Stafford, Clerk in Holy Orders, of William Swynfen Whitehall Parker-Jervis, of Meaford Hall aforesaid, a Major in Your Majesty's Army, and of Edward Mainwaring Parker-Jervis, of Whiston Grange, Albrighton, Wolverhampton, a Major in Your Majesty's Army, as the Patrons of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Little Aston, (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said Parish of Great Barr, and of the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Little Aston, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the Map or Plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of All Saints, Streetly, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Streetly.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, Streetly, comprising:—

"1. All that portion of the Parish of Great Barr, in the County of Stafford, and in the Diocese of Lichfield, which is bounded upon the north by the Parish of Aldridge, in the said County and Diocese, upon the east partly by the New Parish (sometime Consolidated Chapelry) of Saint Peter, Little Aston, in the said County and Diocese, and partly by the Parish of Sutton Coldfield, in the County of Warwick, and in the Diocese of Birmingham, upon the south-east by the New Parish of Saint John, Perry Barr, in the said County of Stafford, and in the said Diocese of Birmingham, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint John, Perry Barr, from the said Parish of Great Barr at the junction of the road leading from Sutton Park to Queslet with the road leading from Kingstanding Road to Aldridge, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of 1 mile and 64 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading across Barr Common to Harborough Lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of 49 chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the boundary which divides the said Parish of Great Barr from the said Parish of Aldridge.

"2. And also all that contiguous portion of the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Little Aston, which is bounded upon the south-east by the said Parish of Sutton Coldfield, upon the south-west by the above described portion of the Parish of Great Barr, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said Parish of Great Barr from the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Little Aston, crosses the middle of the road leading from Five Ways Inn to Four Oaks, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such road for a distance of 38 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Streetly Railway Station to Little Aston, and extending thence in a straight line due south-east for a distance of 20 yards or thereabouts to a point on the south-eastern side of the last mentioned road upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Little Aston, from the said Parish of Sutton Coldfield."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lichfield.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 9th day of August, 1918.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

No. 61.

WHEREAS His Majesty has been pleased, in exercise of the power in that behalf conferred on Him by Section one, sub-section one, of the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of Powers) Act, 1915, by divers Proclamations; and in particular by a Proclamation dated the 23rd day of May, 1916, and amended on the 16th day of January, 1918, entitled "The Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation," to prohibit all persons or bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, resident, carrying on business, or being in the United Kingdom from trading with any of the persons or bodies of persons mentioned in the List contained in the last-mentioned Proclamation, such List being therein referred to as the Statutory List:

And whereas by Section one, sub-section two, of the said Act, it is provided that any List of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom such trading is prohibited by a Proclamation under the said Act may be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of a Secretary of State:

And whereas the Statutory List contained in the last-mentioned Proclamation, has been
