"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederick John Press (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said George, Bishop of Bristol, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Easton Grey, now vested in him, the said Frederick John Press, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said George, Bishop of Bristol, and his Successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said George, Bishop of Bristol, and his Successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

(b) The estimated quantity of hay (other than first and second year rye grass and seed mixtures) and oat straw produced by them or in their possession.

(c) The number of animals and their classification for which forage is required.

(d) The estimated quantity of forage other than first and second year rye grass and seed mixtures required for feeding of stock actually in their possession for the period ending 30th September, 1919.

(e) The place at which such hay and straw is situate.

4. As soon as possible after the return mentioned in paragraph 3 has been received by the Administrative Area Officer the Forage will be inspected and a Producer Consumer's Licence issued for such quantity as it may be determined is required by the Producer or Holder for the feeding of Stock in his possession. The balance of the first and second year rye grass and seed mixtures as is found suitable will be taken for War Department requirements. Pending such inspection, Producers or Holders are authorised to use a reasonable amount of first and second year rye-grass and seed mixtures for stock in their possession, provided that they have not other suitable forage for feeding purposes.

5. Producer Consumer's Licences issued under paragraph 4 will be liable to revision on or after the 1st March, 1919, and if on any such revision it is determined that any first and second year rye grass and seed mixtures suitable for Army purposes in respect of which a Licence has been issued is in excess of the Holder's proper requirements, such excess must be taken over by the War Department and such Licence may be cancelled in respect thereof.

6. Should a Producer or Holder consider that the quantity licensed for his own requirements is insufficient for his needs, or in the case of hay and straw taken for Army requirements, that the price is inadequate, provided that such price is less than the maximum allowed by any Order that may at the time of taking be in force, he shall have the right to appeal to the Chairman of the Irish Forage Advisory Committee, whose address is c/o the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, Dublin, whose decision or the decision of any person appointed to act by the chairman as his deputy shall be final.

7. All hay or straw taken for Army use will be the subject of a purchase note at the time of purchase; interest at certain rates as set out therein will be added to the price stated thereon.

Where a vendor refuses or neglects to sign a purchase note such interest will not be payable, excepting that, where a vendor has appealed to the chairman of the Irish Advisory Forage Committee, as laid down in paragraph 6 of this Order, and the chairman or his deputy has allowed the appeal, then he shall receive interest as aforesaid as if the appeal had not been made or the signature had not been withheld.

8. First and second year ryegrass and seed mixtures shall not be sold, exchanged, dealt with or in any way disposed of except under licence issued by the D.P.O.S. of the District.

9. All licences issued under this Order will be issued subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in such licences.

Any departure from these conditions or other act of contravention of the provisions of this Order will be an offence against the Defence of the Realm Regulations and render the offender liable to the penalties attaching thereto.

Detailed instructions regarding the necessary procedure to be adopted by all desiring to use or sell such first and second year ryegrass and seed mixtures which are not suitable for War Department requirements can be obtained from the Area Administrative Officer, Royal Hospital, Dublin, or the D.P.O.S. of the District as set out hereunder.

10. To ensure the maintenance of the supply of milk, or to provide hay or straw for essential purposes in Ireland, the Area Administrative Officer on behalf of the Army Council, may, notwithstanding anything in this Order contained, (1) take possession of any hay (other than ryegrass or seed mixtures) or straw on such terms as he may decide, for and on behalf of properly constituted committees, who shall be responsible for payment, for the distribution of any hay or straw acquired on their behalf, (2) may at any time require certified returns of sales or purchases of hay or straw made by any person or persons.

11. On and after 1st November, 1918, forage used for the feeding of stock must contain at least 25 per cent of oaten straw.

12. The Army Council Order dated 17th July, 1917, prohibiting the lifting of hay and straw in Great Britain and Ireland and the Isle of Man, in so far as it relates to Ireland, is hereby cancelled.

9. For the purpose of the above rates the hours of work shall not include meal times, but shall include any time during which, by reason of weather conditions, an employer has prevented from working a workman who was present at the place of employment and ready to work.

10. The Board further propose three months after the general cessation of hostilities or on the withdrawal by the Food Controller of all restrictions upon food consumption (whichever event shall first occur) to proceed to give notice of a proposal under the above-mentioned Regulations that employment in excess of 6½ hours on one day in each week (other than a Sunday) shall be defined as employment to which differential rates for overtime shall apply.

The Agricultural Wages Board, as required by Section 5 (4) of the above Act and by paragraph 4 of the above-mentioned Regulations, will consider any objections to the above rates and definition of overtime employment which may be lodged with them within one month from the date of this notice. ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 963 of the year 1918.

SCOTLAND, EAST COAST.

Firth of Forth—Traffic Regulations.

Former Notice.—No. 904 of 1918; hereby cancelled.

Mariners are hereby warned that, under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, the following Regulations have been made by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty and are now in force:—

Section I.

(1) No vessels other than those of British Nationality, or those of the Allied Nations, may enter Granton harbour, or the Port and Harbour of Burnisland, within the statutory limits administered by the Harbour Commissioners, until further Notice.

No vessels (a) trading to neutral ports or (b) having aliens on board, whether as members of the crew or as passengers, shall after the 15th August, 1918, enter or use the following ports in the Firth of Forth:—

Burnisland, Kirkcaldy, Dysart and West Wemyss.

(2) Until further notice, the following Regulations are to be observed by all merchant vessels, except when under escort, approaching or moving in the Firth of Forth (i.e., westward of a line joining Burns Ness and North Carr Rock).

All orders and instructions given by the King's Harbour Master or by any Patrol vessel are to be implicitly obeyed, otherwise vessels will be liable to be fired upon.

Section II.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SHIP MASTERS, &C.

(3) Masters of ships and other persons concerned are advised that, in their own interests and the interests of those whom they represent, they should assist in every possible way to conform to these Regulations.

(4) Ships outward bound without escort must time their departure so as to be clear of the Firth of Forth before the commencement of Official Night.

(5) Fishing Boats' numbers are to be kept distinctly painted.

(6) No unescorted merchant vessel is permitted to be under way in the Firth of Forth during the hours of Official Night, or when the Firth of Forth has been closed, except with the official permission of the Commander-in-Chief, Coast of Scotland, which can be obtained through the King's Harbour Master.

(7) Merchant vessels may enter or leave the docks at Leith and Granton with the permission of the Commander-in-Charge, Leith, or the Senior Naval Officer, Granton, respectively. Special arrangements, which are notified from time to time, are made for merchant vessels entering and leaving Docks at Ports East of Inchkeith.

(8) (a) During Official Night no lights are to be visible from outboard, scuttles and skylights are to be effectively screened. When under way, navigation lights should be shown. (Electric navigation lights are prohibited.)

(b) The side ladder and a boat should be kept ready for use. All boats are to be kept hoisted close up to the davits during the hours of Official Night.

(c) The Wireless Room is to be locked, and no Wireless Messages are to be taken or despatched whilst the ship is in the Firth of Forth.

(d) When at anchor riding lights are not to be exhibited, but a night watch is to be kept, and riding lights kept trimmed, lit, and at hand where they are easily and quickly accessible, so that they may be exhibited, reduced in power and screened as prescribed in Admiralty Notice to Mariners No. 872 of 1918, when ordered or requested to do so.

(e) Merchant vessels berthed in Leith and Granton Docks and Harbours are prohibited from having any lights visible from outboard during the hours of Official Night, unless such vessel is actually engaged in working cargo. All such lights are to be screened from overhead and from seaward when possible.

(9) When inward bound, the National Colours and number (or distinguishing signal) are to be hoisted on passing May Island, and kept flying until the vessel docks.

(10) Care is to be taken that all flags displayed are showing clearly. If the weather is calm, any flag signal which the vessel is ordered by an Examination Steamer to hoist should be shaken out so as to render it readily distinguishable.

(11) As little smoke as possible is to be allowed to escape from the funnels, and care is to be taken that neither lights nor flags are obscured by it.

Section III.

DISTINGUISHING SIGNALS OF EXAMINATION STEAMERS.

(12) Armed Examination steamers will be found at the Examining Station (see Section VII.) and near the green buoy (see Section IV., par. 16)), and will be distinguished by the following means:—

By Day.—At the foremast head the special pilot flag (white and red horizontal, surrounded by a blue border). When the Firth of Forth is "Closed" three Red balls vertical will be hoisted in addition.

By Night.—Three Red lights vertically 6 feet apart, conspicuously displayed at the end of a yard so as to show an unbroken light round the horizon.

Masters of merchant vessels must approach these vessels with care, and see that when stopped they are in a favourable position for the Boarding Officer coming alongside, and that a boat-rope and side-ladder are in position.

Section IV.

NAVIGATION IN THE FIRTH OF FORTH.

(13) Unescorted merchant vessels may enter the Firth of Forth at any time, but should make every endeavour to do so during official daylight and, when possible, should have sufficient daylight to allow them to be examined before dark.

(14) Vessels desirous of entering the Forth during Official Night or in thick or foggy weather must report themselves to St. Abbs Head or Fifeness Signal Stations, whence they should proceed as directed in paragraph (16). They will be met by a Patrol Vessel and taken to an anchorage.

(15) Sailing ships and other small vessels which are forced to seek shelter owing to weather conditions, and arrive during the hours of Official Night, will be anchored in the most convenient position by orders of a Patrol Vessel until the weather moderates.

(16) Unescorted vessels must pass between Isle of May and Anstruther Wester, thence they must steer a course so as to pass 2 miles South of Elieness, and within half a mile to the Southward of a Green Buoy in Lat. 56° 09' N. ; Long. 2° 51' W.

Thence (if not met by a Pilot Boat or Examination Steamer) steer 297° (N. 45° W. Mag.) for a mile and a half to pass to the southward of a second buoy; thence to the Examining Station.

(17) All merchant vessels entering the Firth of Forth, with or without a pilot on board, are to proceed to the Examining Station to be passed by the Examining Officer and given the "Special Signal" before proceeding to any port in the Firth of Forth. On arrival at the Examining Station they are to "heave to" and await instructions from the Examination Steamer. If then ordered to the Examination Anchorage, they are to proceed there, anchor, and await further instructions. In the meantime they are to hold no communication with any other merchant vessel or with the shore without permission.

Section V.

VESSELS LEAVING THE FIRTH OF FORTH.

(18) Merchant vessels must on no account leave the Firth of Forth without first obtaining a "Port Clearance" from the Collector of Customs at the port of departure.

(19) No unescorted merchant vessels are permitted to leave the Firth of Forth—

(a) During the hours of Official Night;

(b) If sufficient daylight is not left to enable them to clear the Isle of May before dark; or

(c) When the Firth of Forth is "Closed," except with the permission of the Commander-in-Chief, Rosyth, which must be obtained through the King's Harbour Master, Rosyth.

(20) When the Firth of Forth is "Open" to the traffic of merchant shipping the following signal will be displayed at the various ports east of Oxcars:—

One Red ball, indicating that merchant vessels anchored in the roads off any port are at liberty to proceed.

No merchant vessel is to proceed until one Red ball is hoisted as follows:—

Leith.—From the Examination Steamer anchored in the Examination Anchorage, Granton.—From Flagstaff at Central Pier.

Inchkeith.—From the Flagstaff at the Signaling Station.

Burntisland.—From the Middle Light-house.

Kirkcaldy.—From the Flagstaff at the Harbour Master's Office.

Methil.—From a Flagstaff at the Dock Gate.

Wemyss.—At the entrance to Wemyss Harbour.

Dysart.—From the East Pier at the entrance to Dysart Harbour.

The Licensed Trinity Pilot in charge of a merchant vessel will be held personally responsible that such vessel does not leave her anchorage until the above-mentioned signal is hoisted.

The Red ball will be hoisted at the commencement of Official Day if the Firth of Forth is not "Closed" for any reason, and will be hauled down at the commencement of Official Night.

Note.—It will be hauled down on all occasions when the Firth of Forth is "Closed" to merchant shipping traffic by order of the King's Harbour Master, Rosyth, and will be rehoisted by order of the King's Harbour Master, Rosyth, when the Firth of Forth is "Opened" again to mercantile traffic.

Section VI.

SIGNALS INDICATING FIRTH OF FORTH

"CLOSED."

(21) Whenever the Firth of Forth is

"Closed" during the day the following signals will be displayed:—

Three Red balls vertical will be hoisted by each Examination Steamer and also at Inchkeith and at the principal ports in the Firth of Forth.

The single Red ball which is hoisted at the principal ports in the Firth of Forth east of Oxcars, to indicate that the Firth of Forth is "Open," will at the same time be hauled down.

Note.—By night the Firth of Forth is closed to all unescorted mercantile shipping, except as provided for in paragraph (14).

Section VII.

POSITIONS OF THE EXAMINATION ANCHORAGE AND EXAMINING STATION.

(22) The Examination Anchorage.—From a position 54° (N. 72° E. Mag.) distance 2,000 yards from the fixed green light on the Eastern entrance to Granton Harbour, thence:—

Western limit—2,000 yards in a direction

25° (N. 43° E. Mag.), thence,

Northern limit—1,000 yards in a direction 88° (S. 74° E. Mag.), thence,

Eastern limit—2,000 yards in a direction

205° (S. 43° W. Mag.), thence,

Southern limit—1,000 yards in a direction 268° (N. 74° W. Mag.).

NOTE.—The anchorage will thus be one mile in length and half a mile in width.

The Examination Vessel will be anchored at the South-West corner of the Examination Anchorage.

(23) The Examining Station is 240° (S. 78° W. Mag.) $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Ruddons point.

(24) Vessels are not under any circumstances to attempt to pass in from the Examining Station without obtaining permission from the Examination Steamer, or to leave the Examination Anchorage, or to communicate with the shore or any other vessel, without first obtaining permission from the Examination Vessel.

(See Appendix "A," "Warnings" to Masters.)

Section VIII.

PILOTS AND PILOTAGE.

(25) It will be compulsory for all vessels to have a licensed pilot on board when navigating the Firth of Forth, unless under escort. Vessels entering the Firth for the purposes of joining a Convoy are not exempt from compulsory pilotage.

Incoming vessels will pick up the pilot from the Pilot Vessel which will be found in the vicinity of the green buoy (see Section IV., par. (16)) during the hours of Official Day.

Outward-bound vessels from ports west of Inchkeith are to proceed to the Advanced Convoy Anchorage and discharge their pilot there, or at the Cutter if sailing without Convoy.

A uniform landing fee of eight shillings is to be paid by every pilot landed from the motor boat or other vessel which is provided by the Admiralty for the purpose of conveying pilots to and from the pilotage station. The pilot is hereby authorised to recover this fee from the master, owner, or agent of each vessel piloted.

Section IX.

CAUTION AS TO ANCHORING.

(26) No merchant vessel will be permitted to anchor within the limits of the Firth of Forth, except as hereinafter stated, unless—

(a) To avoid, or after, an accident;

(b) Her further progress is prevented by unforeseen circumstances;

(c) During thick or foggy weather.

When anchoring, care must be taken to be well clear of the fairway.

(27) If a vessel has to anchor for any of the reasons shown (a, b, or c, above) she is to hoist "Not under control" signals, and keep them displayed so long as she remains at anchor.

(28) Unescorted merchant vessels, after being given "Special Signal" by an Examining Officer and with pilot on board, may proceed during the hours of Official Day to anchor off the port of destination.

The pilot in charge of the vessel is responsible that no contravention of the Traffic Regulations of the Firth of Forth occur during this period.

If, whilst a merchant vessel is lying at anchor off any port east of Oxcar in the Firth of Forth, the weather conditions become so unfavourable as to jeopardise the safety of the vessel in the position in which she is then lying, the pilot may use his discretion and get under way to proceed under the lee of Inchkeith in the case of easterly gales, and to Kirkcaldy in the case of westerly gales.

In doing this, he is responsible that the vessel carries navigation lights, proceeds at slow speed, and keeps out of the fairway.

Section X.

PATROL OF INTERNAL WATERWAYS AND APPROACHES TO THE FIRTH OF FORTH.

(29) The Firth of Forth, as well as the approaches thereto, will be patrolled by Naval Patrol boats or other Government vessels.

Masters of merchant vessels and persons in charge of small craft are hereby warned to observe any orders which may be given by the Naval Patrols.

Merchant vessels and small craft will be subject to inspection and search, and will be liable to be fired upon in the event of disobedience to the orders given them by the patrols.

They also render themselves liable to be prosecuted under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914.

Section XI.

MERCHANT VESSELS TO FLY THEIR COLOURS &c.

(30) All merchant vessels which are within the limits of the Firth of Forth must—

(a) Keep their colours flying day and night.

(b) Keep their commercial code number flying from sunrise to sunset.

(c) Show the regulation navigation lights by night unless ordered to the contrary. (See Section II., paragraph (8)).

Section XII.

ORDINARY NAVIGATION RULES TO BE ADHERED TO.

(31) The ordinary rules for the navigation and safe conduct of ships are to be adhered to in the Firth of Forth, except as far as they are affected by these Regulations.

Nothing in these Regulations will exonerate the owner, master, or agent of any ship from any neglect of the ordinary rules for the navigation and safe conduct of ships.

The above signals will be hoisted on board H.M.S. Satellite and at the following Distant Signal stations:—

(a) For Incoming Traffic.—At the light-house on the end of the North arm of the breakwater.

(b) For Outgoing Traffic.—At Ballast hill. Shipping at Dunstan and Tyne docks should ascertain by telephone from H.M.S. Satellite whether they can proceed down river. A telephone for this purpose is kept at the Staith Master's office, Dunstan, and at the Dock Master's office, Tyne docks.

The absence of these signals will denote that the Boom is Closed to Traffic.

Vessels entering or leaving the Tyne, after passing the pier heads when bound inwards, and after passing Hay Hole point when bound outwards, are to so regulate their speed that until the line of the Boom is passed they shall not come within a distance of 200 yards from their stem to the stern of the next vessel ahead proceeding in the same direction. Whilst navigating between Hay Hole point and the pier heads, no vessel should attempt to overhaul and pass ahead of another vessel proceeding in the same direction.

When crossing the line of the Boom, all vessels are to preserve a mid-channel course as far as is consistent with safe navigation. Vessels of 25 feet draught and above are to stop their engines when crossing the line of the Boom at or about the time of low water.

Incoming and outgoing vessels must not cross the line of the Boom at the same time. Vessels proceeding against the tidal stream must so regulate their speed that any vessels proceeding with the tide shall first pass the obstruction.

No vessel is to anchor in the area bounded as follows:—

(a) On the West.—By a line drawn from the south-west corner of Dockwray square to the east end of Salmons quay;

(b) On the East.—By a line drawn from Prior's Stone to the Volunteer Life Brigade house; provided only that a vessel proceeding to the oil jetty at South Shields may let go her anchor, if necessary, within the line of moorings off the said jetty; such vessels, however, are not to anchor to the eastward of a line drawn from Lloyd's Hailing and Signal station to the Lifeboat house and slip on Commissioner's wharves.

With the above exceptions, the Rules and Regulations for the Navigation of the Tyne are to be adhered to.

Variation.— 14° W.

Note.—This Notice is a revision of the former Notice quoted above.

The above-mentioned gate Trawlers will display signals, as shown on the accompanying diagram, to indicate whether the gate is open to inward or outward bound traffic, or whether the gate is closed.

A Trawler with hull painted black is moored a short distance to the northward of the gate Trawlers, and on the western side of the passage.

No vessels are to approach to within a distance of half a mile of the gateway until the special signals are hoisted, indicating that the passage is open for them; neither are inward-bound vessels to approach within the distance when the signals are displayed for outward-bound vessels, and vice versa.

Speed must not exceed 10 knots, and vessels are cautioned to keep a mid-channel course when passing through the gateway.

Outward-bound vessels are to approach the gateway on a 196° (S. 34° W. Mag.) course, leaving the black and white chequered light-buoy with occulting green light, situated three-quarters of a mile, 27° (N. 45° E. Mag.), from the gateway, on their port hand.

(2) Loch Linnhe, Loch Aber—Traffic Regulations.

1. That portion of Loch Linnhe which lies north-eastward of a line joining Salachan point and Kentallen pier is closed to British and Allied ships during the hours of official night and to Neutral shipping at all times.

2. Except under exceptional circumstances British and Allied merchant vessels will be free to enter or leave during the hours of official day.

3. Before entering, vessels must receive permission and the necessary instructions from the control vessel.

4. Vessels are advised so to time their arrival as to reach the entrance to Loch Aber during official daylight in order to obviate having to lie off.

5. The control vessel will be met with in the vicinity of the Culchenna spit light-buoy, and will be distinguished by the following means:—

By Day: A white ensign, and, at the fore-mast-head, the special flag for an examination steamer, mentioned in Part II of Admiralty Notice to Mariners No. 814 of 1918, and any subsequent republication thereof. When the port is closed, three red balls will be hoisted in addition to the special flag.

6. In the event of the port being closed by day, three red balls will also be hoisted on the flagstaff on Corran point.

7. During fog, or when the visibility is less than one mile, no traffic entering will be permitted to pass to the north-eastward of the line defined in paragraph 1, and vessels are to keep seaward of the line.

8. All instructions given by officers in command of H.M. ships, or patrol vessels, are to be promptly obeyed.

9. All vessels under way within 5 miles of Corran point lighthouse are to exhibit side lights from one hour after sunset to one hour

10. Warning.—Warning is hereby given that vessels disobeying any order will be liable to be fired on.

(3) Caledonian Canal—Traffic Regulations.

1. Until further orders, no vessels other than H.M. ships, those in Government employ, or those granted special permits (Vide pars 2 and 3), will be permitted to navigate the Caledonian Canal; and entrance thereto, either at Inverness or Corpach, is prohibited.

2. Owners of Merchant, Fishing, or other private vessels, who can show urgent and sufficient reason why their vessels should be allowed to pass through the Canal, may make application to the Divisional Naval Transport Officer at Inverness for a special permit to enable their vessels to do so. Such applications must contain full information as to the length and breadth of the vessel, registered number, destination, why she cannot proceed North-about and proposed date of entering the Canal; but they will only be entertained in exceptional cases and with full regard to National interests.

3. When the requirements of the Naval Authorities allow of such special permits being issued, they will be granted subject to the following conditions:—

(a) That priority of passage through the Canal is reserved for Admiralty vessels.

(b) That no liability is accepted in respect of demurrage or detention on passage.

(c) That the passage is commenced when ordered by the Divisional Naval Transport Officer, Inverness, or his representative, and completed in accordance with any instructions issued by these authorities.

(d) That the regulations governing the navigation of the Canal are strictly complied with.

(e) That the owner of a vessel permitted to navigate the Canal will be held responsible for any damage caused by the vessel, or by the master, skipper, or members of the crew of such vessels, to the Canal, the machinery or appliances connected therewith, or to other vessels. The value of any such damage to be assessed by representatives of the Admiralty and Canal Commissioners, whose certificate thereof will be final and binding and not subject to review.

4. Neutral vessels are also prohibited from entering the port of Inverness, the seaward limit of which is defined by a line drawn from Fort George, in the county of Inverness, to Chanonry point, in the County of Ross and Cromarty.

Caution.

This Admiralty Notice to Mariners is issued under the provisions of the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, and failure to comply strictly with the directions contained in it will constitute an offence against those Regulations.

Any person found guilty of such an offence is liable to severe penalties both of imprisonment and fine.

Any person aiding or abetting the commission of such an offence is himself guilty of an offence against the Regulations.

Attention is also drawn to the fact that any infringement of the directions contained in this Admiralty Notice to Mariners is liable to result in the detention of the ship or vessel.
