In the Matter of the Estate of JOSIAH HURST, late of 33, Moorton-avenue, Burnage-lane, Levens-hulme, in the city of Manchester, Foreman Mechanic, Deceased.

THE above named died on the 29th June, 1900, at 33, Moorton-avenue aforesaid. His will, dated the 2nd August, 1894, was proved on the 14th of August, 1900, in the District Probate Registry at Manchester of the High Court of Justice by the executors and trustees therein named. Testator's Wife, Caroline Hurst, died on the 19th April, 1918, at 33, Moorton-avenue aforesaid. By the said will the testator, upon the death of his said Wife, directed his trustees to realise his estate not otherwise by him specifically disposed of, and to stand possessed of the moneys to arise from such sale upon trust to divide the same equally between and amongst all his Nephews and Nieces who should be living at the time of the death of his said Wife, and who should be then domiciled and permanently resident in England, and such direction for sale has been duly carried into effect. All persons claiming to be entitled to be such Nephews and Nieces of the deceased as aforesaid are, on or before the 31st day of October, 1918, to send in notice of and prove such claims to the satisfaction of the undersigned, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the provisions of the said will.—Dated this 31st day of August, 1918.

EDWARD HEATH and SONS, 48, Swan-street, Manchester aforesaid, Solicitors to the Trustees of the said Will.

PURSUANT to an order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, made in the Matter of the estate of FREDERICK WILLIAM BISHOP, deceased, and in an action of Lionel Finklestone and Samuel Finklestone (a partnership firm) v. Bishop, 1918, B. No. 380, the creditors of the said Frederick William Bishop, deceased, late of 14, Croftdown-road, Highgate-road, in the county of London (who died on the 2nd day of November, 1917), are, on or before the 30th day of September, 1918, to send, by post prepaid, to E. L. Shelton, a member of the firm of Howard and Shelton, of Lincoln House, Fore-street, Moorgate, in the city of London, the Solicitors for the defendant, Maude Alice Bishop, the administratrix of the deceased, their Christian and surname, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Every creditor holding any security is to produce the same before Master Joseph Chitty, at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Astbury, Room No. 700, the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Thursday, the 17th day of October, 1918, at 11.30 o'clock in the forenoon, being the time approved for adjudication on the claims.—Dated this 29th day of August, 1918.

WOOLFE and WOOLFE, 16, Hanover-street; London, W. 1, Plaintiff's Solicitors.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Astbury.
