NOTE (1).—All persons or firms resident, carrying on business or being in the United Kingdom are prohibited from having, with any person or firm mentioned in this List, or in any List issued under the Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, any dealings other than such as are expressly authorised by paragraph 5 of the Proclamation. A List (The Consolidated List, No. 61A) consolidating all previous Lists, up to and including that of the 9th August, 1918, together with List 62 of 23rd August, and List 63 of 6th September, and the List herewith annexed, contain all the names which up to this date are included in the Statutory List.

Additions to and variations in these Lists will be published at intervals approximately of two weeks.

The Lists are published in the London
Gazette and reproduced in the Board of Trade Journal, and separate copies of all Lists may be obtained at a small cost from the Superintendent of Publications, His Majesty's Stationery Office, Imperial House, Kingsway, W.C.

NOTE (2).—Where a person or firm mentioned in the List has more than one address in the country or group of countries under which the name of the person or firm appears, all dealings in that country, or in any country in the group, with such person or firm are prohibited, even in cases where one only of the addresses or one only of the countries is specially mentioned.

NOTE (3).—Trading is prohibited under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamations of 25th June and 10th November, 1915, with any person or firm of enemy nationality resident or carrying on business in China, Siam, Persia, Morocco, Liberia or Portuguese East Africa.
Persons or firms in the United Kingdom are therefore prohibited from trading with any person or firm of enemy nationality in any of those countries, even though such person or firm is not mentioned by name in the Statutory List.

NOTE (4).—In order to minimise as far as possible any inconvenience which may be caused to the British traders by the dislocation of export trade owing to the inclusion in the Statutory List of a former connection, the Foreign Trade Department is collecting and classifying the names of non-enemy firms who may be able to act as substitutes for firms mentioned in the Statutory List. A considerable amount of information is already available at the Foreign Trade Department, and it is in many cases possible to suggest the names of satisfactory substitutes for individual firms on the Lists, without the necessity of referring the matter abroad. The Department is, however, prepared on application to enquire of His Majesty's Representatives abroad for the names of suitable substitutes. When the applicant wishes this done by telegraph he is required to undertake to pay the cost of telegraphic correspondence. It would greatly facilitate the work of the Foreign Trade Department if applicants in making enquiries would specify the particular trade or trades for which substitutes are required. General enquiries for new connections abroad should be addressed to The Comptroller General, Department of Overseas Trade (Development and Intelligence), 73, Basinghall Street, London, E.C. 2.

NOTE (5).—The Statutory List for each country is telegraphed, on the day of issue, to His Majesty's Representative in that country, who is instructed to notify accordingly British Consular Officers, to whom persons abroad should apply for information as to names on the List. Persons and firms in the United Kingdom with agencies or branches abroad would, however, be well advised to furnish such agencies or branches with issues of the List as they appear. The names on the Lists for all countries in Central or South America are also notified to His Majesty's Ambassador at Washington, who transmits them to H.M. Consul-General at New York and to other centres in the United States likely to be interested.

NOTE (6).—It is not unusual for firms in Holland and the Netherland East Indies to be registered under names commencing with descriptive terms, such as "Handel Maatschappij" (Trading Company) or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (Limited Liability Company). In such cases it has been found more convenient to publish the firm under its proper name followed by the general descriptive term "Handel Maatschappij" or "Naamlooze Venootschap" (N.V.) as in the case of an English company. For instance, Handel Maatschappij van den Berg & Company, and Naamlooze Venootschap de Komeet v/h Dumonceau Frères will be found under "Berg" and "Komeet" respectively, and not under "Handel" or "Naamlooze."

Scottish Office,
Whitehall,
18th September, 1918.

The following Addresses have been received by the Secretary for Scotland from the Commission of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland and the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh for presentation to The King and Queen on the occasion of Their Majesties' Silver Wedding, and have been presented to Their Majesties accordingly:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King George and Queen Mary.

May it please Your Majesties,—

We, Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, now met in Commission, desire with humble respect and loyal devotion to tender the warm congratulations of the Church of Scotland on the twenty-fifth anniversary of your Majesties' wedding. With the whole Scottish people we give thanks to Almighty God for the manifold goodness He has vouchsafed to your Majesties throughout these years; and our earnest prayer is that the Divine blessing may continue to rest upon your Majesties through many years to come, gladdened by an unbroken family circle, and cheered by the loyal affection of all the peoples of the Empire.

On this notable anniversary we recall with feelings of profound appreciation and gratitude the unmeasured devotion of your Majesties to the highest interests of the Empire, and we rejoice in the fulfilment of the fond hopes which animated the British people, on that day of happy memory, when, as Duke of York, the Heir to the British Throne won a British Princess for his bride. It has been of inestimable value to our people that, for a quarter of a century, in the home life of the Sovereigns of the Empire there has been given an example that has gladdened, strengthened and inspired; and to the Church it has been an abiding cause for rejoicing before God, that your Majesties' living sympathies and active co-operation have ever been readily accorded to all endeavours for the spiritual advancement of the people of our land.

It is with special satisfaction that we avail ourselves of this opportunity of giving expression to the deep gratitude with which your Majesties' incalculable services to the Nation, throughout these four years of war, have filled the heart of the Scottish people. The tireless devotion to the welfare of the Empire, the unflinching sympathy extended to the suffering and the sorrowing, the self-denying labours and ever ready sacrifice in the national cause, and the Royal comradeship with the nation in all vicissitudes of fortune, have bound the people of our country to their much-loved King and Queen with ties that are indissoluble. For these priceless services we respectfully offer our warmest gratitude to your Majesties, and we give thanks to Almighty God who has so blessed our nation in these troubled days.

That your Majesties may be gladdened by a speedy victory over the enemies of our Nation, with the establishment of a righteous and enduring peace, and that Almighty God may grant your Majesties a long and happy reign over a loyal and prosperous people, is, may it please your Majesties, our most earnest prayer.

May it please your Majesties,

We are,

Your Majesties' most faithful and loyal subjects, The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland convened in Commission of the General Assembly.

Signed in our name
and in our presence and at our appointment by

J. N. Ogilvie, D.D.

Moderator.

(L. S.)

Edinburgh,
10th July, 1918.

To The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City and Royal Burgh of Edinburgh, in our own name and as representing the Citizens of the Ancient Capital of Scotland, respectfully offer our sincere and cordial congratulations to Your Majesty and to your illustrious Consort Queen Mary on the completion of twenty-five years of happy wedded life.

We recognise with much satisfaction and thankfulness that the high expectations which were cherished on the occasion of the auspicious union a quarter of a century ago have been amply fulfilled. We in common with all our fellow-subjects entertain the most lively feelings of respect, admiration and affection towards Your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and your Family. We have followed with pride the career of the Heir to the Throne—His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales—and his devoted service to the Country.

We further recognise, with unbounded feelings of gratitude and admiration, the noble example set by Your Majesty and Queen Mary amidst the trials and anxieties of the present time. We have complete faith and confidence that the great struggle now going on will, under Providence, be crowned by victory, for the cause of righteousness, justice and liberty for which Your Majesty and your Allies have taken up arms and are sustaining a conflict of unprecedented magnitude.

We fervently pray that Almighty God will comfort and sustain Your Majesty, and that long life, health and happiness and every blessing may be vouchsafed to Your Majesty and your Royal Consort.

We take this opportunity of renewing the expression of our loyalty to Your Majesty's Person, Throne, and Government.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council, and the Seal of the City affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the ninth day of July, 1918.

J. Lorne MacLeod,
Lord Provost.
A. Grierson,
Town Clerk.

Church of Scotland. He joins with your Ministers and Elders in earnestly praying that a righteous and enduring peace may in due course crown the sacrifices of his people and his Allies in the cause of justice and humanity.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the Albert Medal for gallantry in saving life at sea to John Allan, Donkeyman, M.M.R., No. 942760.

The account of the services, in respect of which this medal has been conferred, is as follows:—

As the R.F.A. "Mixol" was dropping alongside to fuel one of H.M. Battle Cruisers on the 19th June, 1918, an Able Seaman slipped and fell overboard between "Mixol" and the Cruiser; "Mixol" was only about ten feet clear of the Cruiser, and was closing at the time.

Donkeyman John Allan, who was standing on the fore well deck of "Mixol," saw the man fall and that he was struggling in the water. Although it was clear that the man in the water was in imminent danger of being crushed between the two ships, Allan at once jumped overboard in the clothes he was wearing to save him. He assisted the Able Seaman to keep afloat until a rope was thrown, which he gave to him, the Able Seaman being hauled on board before Allan took the rope himself.

The ship was in an open anchorage, and the temperature of the water was 50°.

(2) If a person with a view unlawfully to evade or defeat the operation of the principal Order or this Order or of the conditions of a licence under this Order, allows a dog to stray, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

spectively the 22nd day of July, 1916, and the 19th day of June, 1917, issued by Us, the Local Government Board, under Section 1 of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915 (herein-after referred to as "the Act of 1915"), the time limited for the exercise by the Metropolitan Water Board (herein-after referred to as "the Water Board") of their ferred to in that Act as Conduit No. 1 and Aqueduct No. 1 ceased on the 15th day of August, 1918:

And whereas in pursuance of Section 1 of the Act of 1915 the Water Board applied to Us before the expiration of the various times limited as aforesaid for an Order extending those times:

And whereas by Section 82 of the Act of 1913 provision is made for enabling the Water
