

the police, and any dog so seized shall be dealt with by the Local Authority as follows:

(i) If the dog is diseased or suspected, or has been bitten by a diseased or suspected dog, it shall be forthwith slaughtered.

(ii) If the dog has been exposed to the infection of rabies it shall be detained, slaughtered, or otherwise dealt with as the Local Authority think expedient, but so that the dog shall not, while detained by the Local Authority, be allowed to come in contact with any other animal.

(iii) In any other case the dog shall be treated as a stray dog seized under the powers conferred by section three of the Dogs Act, 1906.

(2) No dog so seized shall be given or sold for the purposes of vivisection.

(3) Every dog shall, for the purposes of this Article, be deemed to have been exposed to the infection of rabies which has been in the same shed, stable, building, kennel, field, or other place, or otherwise in contact with any diseased or suspected dog, or which has in any other way been exposed to the infection of rabies.

Commencement of Part II.

6. This part of this Order shall come into operation on the twenty-fourth day of October, nineteen hundred and eighteen.

PART III.

GENERAL.

Offences.

7.—(1) If a dog is moved in contravention of Article 1 of this Order, the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the dog, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the dog is moved shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2) If any dog in the Scheduled District No. I. or No. II. is not muzzled, or kept under control, as prescribed by this Order, the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3) If a dog which is being moved or has been moved with a licence under this Order is not muzzled or confined or is not detained and isolated as required by the conditions of the licence, the owner of the dog, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4) If a person with a view unlawfully to evade or defeat the operation of this Order or of the conditions of a licence under this Order, allows a dog to stray, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(5) If the owner or person in charge of a dog fails to give, produce, or do any notice, licence, or thing which by this Order, or by the conditions of a licence thereunder, he is required to give, produce, or do, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(6.) A licence under any Order hereby revoked shall have effect as a licence under this Order.

Interpretation.

8. In this Order—

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

“Diseases” means rabies, “diseased” means affected with rabies, and “suspected” means suspected of rabies.

“Public place” includes any street, highway, thoroughfare, public bridge, royal park, public park garden or pleasure ground, common, uninclosed land, or other place to which the public have for the time being access.

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Rabies Order of 1897.

Revocation of existing Orders.

9. The restrictions imposed by this Order are substituted for those imposed by the Cornwall and Devon (Control of Dogs) Orders of 1918 (Nos. 1 to 5), and those Orders are accordingly hereby revoked.

Local Authority to Enforce Order.

10. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Short Title.

11. This Order may be cited as the Cornwall and Devon (Control of Dogs) Order of 1918 (No. 6).

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this sixteenth day of October, nineteen hundred and eighteen.

A. W. Anstruther,
Assistant Secretary.
