

the testator's death, and, if so, whether any of them are still living, and if any of them are dead, when they respectively died, and who are their respective legal personal representatives.

Now all persons claiming to be interested under the said inquiry are, by themselves or their Solicitors, on or before the 11th December, 1918, to come in and prove their claims at the Chambers of Eve and Peterson, J.J., Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Wednesday, the 18th December, 1918, at 12 noon, at the said Chambers (Room 696), is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

NOTE.—John Chapman died 27th November, 1888. He resided at Upton, near Gainsborough. It is believed that Thomas Chapman had two sons at least. Both were connected with horseracing. One of them (Edward) is said to have been at Mansfield, Notts., about 10 years ago. The other is said to have been killed on a racecourse many years ago.
