

22. To make further provision as to the rights and claims of persons who were creditors of the Company at the date of the passing of the Falmouth Docks Act, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1915"), to repeal any provisions of that Act entitling such creditors to the issue of debenture stock or other securities of the Company and to provide for the payment by the Company to such creditors of such sum or sums in cash as may be prescribed by or determined under the provisions of the Bill in satisfaction of such claims, and for the extinguishment and cancellation of such claims, and the barring of rights of action in respect thereof, and to relieve the Company from any liabilities in respect thereof.

23. To consolidate or convert or to provide for the consolidation or conversion of all or some of the existing stocks of the Company whether ordinary, preference or debenture stock into one or more class or classes of shares or stock of such nominal amount or amounts, and whether ordinary, preference or debenture and entitling the holders thereof to such fixed, guaranteed, preferential or varying dividend or dividends as the Bill may define, or to provide for the redemption of all or some of such existing stocks by payments in cash of such amount or amounts as the Bill may define, and for the cancellation and extinction of any such existing stocks and to make all necessary provisions for giving effect to such consolidation, conversion, payment off, redemption, cancellation and extinction, and for enabling the same to be carried out, and to increase, alter, define and regulate the share and loan capital of the Company and the rights of the holders thereof.

24. To enable the Company to apply their corporate funds and revenues and any of their authorized or unissued capital for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, whether capital, revenue or otherwise, and for those purposes or any purposes of their undertaking to raise additional capital by the increase of any existing class of ordinary, preference or debenture stock or by the creation and issue of new shares, stock or debenture stock (redeemable or otherwise) and by borrowing on mortgage or by any one or more of those methods, and to attach to any such shares, stock, debenture stock or mortgages, any guarantee, preference or priority of dividend or interest or principal or other advantages or rights as the Bill may define, and to provide for the formation of a fund out of revenue or otherwise for the redemption of any shares, stock or debenture stock.

25. To sanction and confirm the issue of any existing ordinary, preference or debenture stock of the Company, and to alter or repeal any priorities of principal or interest, or other rights or advantages attaching to any such stock.

26. To enable the Company to pay out of the capital or any of the funds of the Company interest or dividends on any shares, stock, debenture stock or mortgages of the Company.

27. To make further or other provision as to the application of the Company's revenues, and to alter or repeal section 9 of the Act of 1915.

28. To make further provision with respect to the Company's affairs, the number and dates of meetings of the Company, the rights of voting at such meetings, the payment of interim dividends, the making up of the Company's balance-sheets and accounts, whether annually or otherwise, the closing of the Company's registers, the appointment of proxies, the number, quorum, qualification, election, appointment, candidature for office, rotation, disqualification, cesser of office, vacancies in office, remuneration, powers and duties of the directors, auditors, secretary and officers of the Company, the recovery of demands and penalties and the giving of notices to or by the Company.

29. To vary or extinguish all or any rights or privileges which would be inconsistent or interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

30. To incorporate with the Bill and apply to the works to be authorized and the powers to be conferred thereby all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1874 and the Act of 1915 with or without modification, and to amend or repeal all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1874, the Act of 1915, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company or their undertaking, the Falmouth Harbour Order, 1870, and any other Order or Act relating to the Falmouth Harbour Commissioners, the Falmouth Electric Lighting Order, 1903, and any other Order or Act relating to the Falmouth Corporation or their electricity undertaking or the borough of Falmouth.

31. To incorporate with the Bill and to apply to the Company and their undertaking, with or without amendment, or to exempt the Company from all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, the Lands Clauses Acts, the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847.

And notice is hereby given, that plans and sections showing the lines, situations and levels of the new works, the plans showing also the lands and other property intended to be compulsorily taken or used under the powers of the Bill, with a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners and leasees or reputed owners and leasees, and of the occupiers of such lands and other property, together with a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Cornwall at his office at Bodmin, and with the Town Clerk of the borough of Falmouth at his office at Falmouth.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1918.
