

and croquet lawns in any recreation ground belonging to them, and to make reasonable charges for the use of same and the apparatus provided in connection therewith.

16. To empower the Council to medically examine the inmates of common lodging-houses where infectious disease prevails or is suspected, and to close common lodging-houses where infectious disease exists.

17. To empower the Council to provide fire alarms in the streets and to prohibit street cries and noisy hawking.

18. To prohibit the ejection of steam or waste gas from fixed engines, boilers or condensers of a certain temperature or in such a manner as to cause annoyance, and to require that boilers, &c., shall not be tapped or blown off direct into the sewers.

19. To enable the Council to establish a Savings and Housing Bank, and to receive deposits and to make advances upon security to persons desiring to build or purchase their own dwelling-house; and to sell any houses built by them, whether under the Housing of the Working Classes Act or otherwise.

20. Finance: To authorize the Council to borrow and re-borrow further moneys for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act on the security of the revenue of their electricity, tramways, and omnibus undertakings and the district fund and general district rate or any other rates and revenues leviable by or belonging to them or under their control; and to apply all or any such rates or revenues to all or any of the purposes of the intended Act; and to execute and grant and issue mortgages and other securities; and to authorize the Council to apply any of their funds or other moneys authorized to be raised to any of the purposes of the intended Act; and to exempt the powers of borrowing moneys under the intended Act from the restrictions contained in section 234 of the Public Health Act, 1875.

21. To authorize the Council to use one form of mortgage for all purposes for which they are for the time being authorized to borrow money, charging the loans upon all or any of the revenues, rates, or property of the Council; to invest all their sinking funds in statutory securities, including the securities of local authorities; and to use any sinking fund instead of borrowing; and to confer further powers upon the Council in regard to the re-borrowing of money, sinking funds, and other financial matters.

22. To empower the Council to borrow money temporarily for defraying their current expenses by temporary loan or overdraft from any bank or on temporary loan or deposit, receipt or otherwise, and to enable the Council to consolidate their existing loans, and to amend rates in accordance with a new valuation list; and to grant gratuities to their officers and servants.

23. To enact all necessary provisions for giving effect to the purposes of the intended Act or of the general or local Acts in force in the district, including power for Council to enter premises and penalties for obstructing such entry or the execution of the provisions of the Bill; the imposition of penalties for breach of provisions of the intended Act or any bye-laws thereunder, or for failure to comply with the terms and conditions of any consent given by the Council under any Act or otherwise; consent of Council to be in writing; confirmation of bye-laws; evidence of appointments and resolutions and authentication and service of notices, orders and other documents; exemption of Council from liability when executing work for owners of property and others, and imposition of such liability upon such owners and others; the recovery, apportionment and application of penalties and expenses; the recovery of demands in the County Court; the laying of information and the payment of penalties recovered on the prosecution of the Council or other officer on their behalf to the Treasurer of the Council.

24. To vary or extinguish all or any rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

25. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge or repeal or re-enact with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the several Acts and Orders hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned or referred to, including the Stretford Electric Lighting Order 1897, the Stretford Tramways Act, 1899, the Stretford Urban District Council Act, 1904, the Stretford Light Railways Order, 1906, and all other Acts and Orders relating to the Council or to the District or any part thereof, and the Salford Electric Lighting Order, 1890, and any other Act or Order relating to the Electricity Undertaking of the Salford Corporation.

26. To apply and incorporate with or without alterations and amendments all or some of the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them (that is to say), the Lands Clauses Acts, the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909, the Tramways Act, 1870, the Public Health Acts, the Arbitration Act, 1889, and all Acts amending the said Acts respectively, or any of them.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 18th day of November, 1918.
