

with units of the Army as far east as Amman, and as far north as Aleppo.

The rapid advance has rendered difficult the task of evacuating the sick and wounded. The difficulty was increased by the large number of prisoners who, after marching for days, with little food or water, surrendered in a state of extreme weakness, unable to march another day. The care and evacuation of these men has heavily taxed the Medical Services, who have worked untiringly.

I have the honour to be,
Your Lordship's most obedient Servant,

E. E. H. ALLENBY,
General, Commanding-in-Chief, Egyptian Expeditionary Force.
