From Thursday, November 3. to Monday, November 9. 1668.

at Pilsennis, Nov. 3.

On Friday and Saturday last the English, Dutch and French Ships which had made several attempts to put to sea but were as often forced back again by contrary Winds, set sail again for the coasts of France; and this morning the other ships intended for the Streights put out to sea.

Tarmouth, Nov. 4. Several Ships belonging to this Place are lately returned hither from Roussdam, and this afternoon a vessel of this place from Offend, where on Friday last arrived a vessel from Scotland with Soldiers, appointed to be designed for the completing the Regiment of that Nation in the Spanish Service in the Netherlands.

Genoa, Octob. 24. The 22 inst. arrived here the Leopard, one of His Majesty of Great Britain Frigats, having on board her His Excellency Sir Daniel Harvey, His Majesty's Ambassadour to the Ottoman Court, who saluting the Town with 11 Guns; they answered him again with 30. to which he reply'd with 19 more; which ending, the Master of the Ceremonies, with some other Officers of the Republick came aboard him, to complement him in the name of the State, inviting him to shore, offering a Gilly and several of their Nobility to conduct him; but the shortness of his stay would not permit him to accept of publick Ceremonies; a little after came also aboard him, Seignior Giovanna Luca Durazzo, the last Ambassador into England from this Republick, with his Brother Giovanne Augustino Durazzo, lately employed under the same Charter in Constantinople from whom he received many civilities, and to whom he was incognito conducted to see the Town; at his return to his ship, he was again attended by the Master of the Ceremonies, with a Present from the State of Wine, Fruits, and other Regalio's, after a days stay more in this Port, in which he received fresh invitations to come ashore, from the old Duke Durazzo, he set sail with a fair wind for Legorn.

Tangier, Octob. 14. We have not as yet any certain news of the proceeding of Sir Thomas Allen with his Squadron before Algier. We are confirmed from these parts, of the truth of the report, that some of their ships returning from the Grand Seigniors service in the Levant, met with 3 or 4 French ships, which after some dispute they took and carried into Algier, where they sold both ships and men.

Captain Ruth with the Garland and Francis Frigate, two days since arrived here from Sally, where he had the fortune to meet with four of their men of war returning homewards with three prizes, all of which he forced to run ashore, where by the violence of the sea, they were soon broke to pieces and destroyed, so that now they have no other ships abroad; and openly one in the Harbor sitting up.

Taffalette still continues successful in his wars, having now taken the Santas Countrey; the south part of Barbary, made himself sole Emperour of Fesse and Moroco, killed the King of Morocco, taken prisoner Ben Buker, chased Gayland out of the Countrey, and reduced the whole Countrey to his obedience.

Frankfort, Octob. 25. Madam the Dutchess Benedicta with the Princess Palatine her Mother, arrived here lately from France; having been visited on the way at Openheim by the Prince Elector Palatine, and by a party of his Cavalry conducted to the Frontiers. At their arrival here, the Magistrates received them with the honour due to persons of their quality; where also attended them several of the Duke of Branswick's Officers, and the Countess Solms-Greifenstein; who intends to stay on her till her rival at Hanover, with the Duke of that Name her Husband.

The Princess Palatine having accompanied our of Town and taken leave of the Dutchess her Daughter at Friberg, is returned again hither on her way for France.

Legorn, Octob. 19. This week arrived here the Anna and Prudence from England and Cadix with Lead, intended for Zante; the Tobias from Penzance, the Susan and Mary from Falmouth, and the Katherine from Guinny and Tangier considerably laden; by this last we are informed that an English Frigate, had lately brought into Tangier a Saltee Man of War of 12 Guns. This Morning arrived at some distance before this Port, the Leopard with the English Ambassadour for Constantinople. The Governour having Orders from the Great Duke to provide for his Entertainment and Lodging, if he comes on shore.

The Dutch Convoys are now upon departure for Smirna, being said to carry with them to the value of 300 thousand pieces of Eight in Luigni. A Barque arriving here from Tripoly gives us intelligence, that some of the Ships belonging to that place had lately taken the Golden Sower de Lys, a French Ship of 24 Guns coming from Constantinople and bound for Marsailles, laden with Wool, Hides and other Goods to a very considerable value; and that six Ships were lately put to sea from Tripoly with their Ballast intended for Constantinople; and that four others of them were abroad sailing.

Brussels, Nov. 4. Don Estevan de Gamarrilla Ambassadour from the Court of Spain to the States of the Netherlands, having during his abode in these parts made several Proposals to the Magistrates of this place in the Name of the Constable of Castile; and amongst others, one for the admission of a Garrison of two Regiments of Spaniards, consisting of 2000 men; without which additional strength the Constable did not believe the Courts Sovereignty could securely sit here, but must be obliged to withdraw to Ghent or some other place of greater safety: thinking also to chuse some other place for his Residence with his Court. The Magistrates upon a long debate at last consented to the admission of the said two Regiments, but on condition they might be entertained and quartered by the appointment of the Magistrates, so that the Citizens might not be prejudiced or inconvenienced by them; and are besides contented to lodge 3 Companies of the Guards.

The Constable is now resolved to make this City his place of Residence, but desires that greater care than formerly may be taken for the clearing of the Streets, and prevention of the farther spreading of the Infection; which is of late very sensibly decreas'd.

On Monday last a great Reformation was made amongst the Cavalry, and about 6 weeks hence another is intended amongst the Infantry.

The Conference at Lille about the pretensions upon the Dependencies on the late Conquests of His Most Christian Majesty in these Countreys, is put off till the 15th instant.

The Constable has lately sent to the Governour of Charleroy, to expatulate with him for his late seizure of Marimont, it being a house of pleasure formerly built by Mary Queen of Hungary, Sister to Charles the V. and believed to have no dependency upon any of the late Conquests.

From Burgundy we are advised, that they had for some time great apprehensions, that some French forces were again marching towards their Countrey, but they are since satisfied, that they were only some assistance marching to the Lorrainers.

Cologne, Nov. 9. The Lorrainers having withdrawn their lives from Alsace, and joyned with the succors which they expected, intend suddenly to enter upon some considerable action for the enlargement of their Winter Quarters. 'Tis also said that the Duke of Lorraine is summoning in all his subjects that are able to bear arms, for the carrying on of the War against the Elector Palatine; and that the Duke of Elbeuf and the Chevalier d'Harcourt being ally'd to the House of Lorraine, have obtained leave of His Most Christian Majesty to assist the said Duke with their Persons and Regiments.

In the mean time a party of 1200 of the Palatine Horse and some Companies of Dragoons have been ranging about the Country beyond Creutznach, but without any considerable adventure. 'Tis hoped both parties may be inclinable to concur with the Mediation set on foot by the Emperor; who for that purpose has given out his Commission to the Electors of Saxe and Brandenburgh, with the Bishops of Salzburgh and Munster, and the Margraves of Durlach and Baden.

Hambourg, Nov. 6. Letters of the 18th past from Cadix inform us of the safe arrival there of our Convoy of Merchant ships, to the great satisfaction of our Traders, who before were in much fear lest some disaster might have befallen them in their passage.

The Queen Christina is upon her way for Rome: she arrived at Ausbourg the 1 instant about noon, and from thence the same day departed, pursuing her voyage towards Inspruck; the Master of her Horse falling sick upon his journey, after some few days distemper died, and was buried at Esford.

From Vienna we are told, that a Courier is lately arrived there from Silesia with advice, that the Assembly of the States of that Province is concluded, to the Emperours satisfaction, they having resolved to raise 100 thousand Ducats of Gold to be disposed of as he pleases; giving him also assurance of the continuation of the other Subsidies in the same method as was formerly used. The Count de Montecuculi, President of the Council of War is lately returned from Hungary, having at Raab conferred with the Count de Souches, General of the Artillery, and Governour of Comorria, about the present concerns of that Kingdom in order to the future preservation of the peace. The Turks had lately a design of surprizing and demolishing a Fort upon the Waag, but finding the Garrison in good Order and upon their Guard, they were forced to retreat without making any attempt upon it.

Letters of the 30th past from Copenhagen, inform us, that the Dukes of Lunenburg were suddenly expected in that City, and that the Prince of Denmark was returned from Holstein, where he had presided in the room of the King his Father in the Assembly of the States of that Province; and that Commissioners were appointed to treat with the Resident from the States of the United Provinces, for the settling of all affairs in dispute between them.

Paris, Nov. 14. The Sieur Sobiesky, Grand Marshal of Poland, has (its said) written hither, that the Bishop of Besiers should not by any means proceed on his intended voyage to Poland, things being in that condition here, that his presence would but exasperate matters, and that other ways might be taken, which would more conduce to the advantage of the French interest; upon which, a Consultation is now held here, and 'tis believed the Bishop will have speedy Orders to put a stop to his voyage.

From Houlon we are told, that a Felouque lately arriving there from Candia, reported that he met our Volunteers within two days sail on this side the Island.

The 12th instant, the Abbot Zeller was solemnly consecrated Bishop of Naziance by the Cardinal Anthony, as a qualification to render him capable of being Coadjutor to the Arch-Bishoprick of Rheims. The Ceremony was performed in the Church of the Sorbonne, and graced with the presence of the Queen, attended by the Prince of Conde, the Duke of Enguyen, and the Duke of Arbres, who was placed at the head of all the Doctors of that faculty.

Whitehall, Novemb. 6. This day His Majesty in Council having the Roll for Sheriffs presented to him according to the usual Custom, picked these persons for lowering to be Sheriffs for the succeeding year in their respective Counties of England and Wales.
