In the mean time a party of 1200 of the Palatine Horse and some Companies of Dragoons have been ranging about the Country beyond Creutznach, but without any considerable adventure. Paris, Nov. 14. The Sieur Sobiesky, Grand Marshal of Poland, has (its said) written hither, that the Bishop of Besiers should not by any means proceed on his intended voyage to Poland, things being in that condition here, that his presence would but exasperate matters, and that other ways might be taken, which would more conduce to the advantage of the French interest; upon which, a Consultation is now held here, and 'tis believed the Bishop will have speedy Orders to put a stop to his voyage.

From Houlon we are told, that a Felouque lately arriving there from Candia, reported that he met our Volunteers within two days sail on this side the Island.
