

Pieces, in order to repair all together to Givet, along the Meuse by the nearest way, and in 2 or 3 days, at the choice of the Besieged, and on any pretence whatsoever they shall not be obliged to go another way, and a Convey shall be given them by the Allies as well for the security of the Garrison as their Equipages.

Answer.

They shall march out the 5th of this month, at 7 in the morning, with two pieces of Cannon of 24 Pounders, two 12 Pounders, and two 6 Pounders, and two Mortars, and the rest of the Article is granted.

IV. That for Transporting the said 12 Pieces of Cannon, and Mortars, the Equipages of the Troops, and the Sick and Wounded of the said Garrison, there shall be furnished by the Allies, and at their charge 100 Carriage Horses with their Harnesses, 100 Wagons, drawn each by 4 Horses, and 50 Great Boats on the Meuse, with a sufficient number of Watermen and Horses to conduct them to Givet, all which shall be provided the 10th of this month, that so they may load them time enough to depart with the Garrison, and to take the same way, that they may arrive at the same time at Givet.

V. That the Sick and Wounded, remaining in the Town of Namur, who are in a condition to depart with the Garrison of the Castle, may do so at the same time, and that Boats and Watermen shall be likewise furnished them at the charge of the Allies to transport them to Givet.

Answer to the fourth and fifth Articles.

There shall be provided for them a sufficient number of Horses for the Cannon and Mortars, 80 Wagons, and as many Boats as can be found in two days before that which is fixed for the going out of the Garrison, and the rest as fast as they can be got, so as that the whole shall be furnished before the 12th of this month. The Besieged may leave Officers and Commissaries to take care of the Sick and Wounded, and the Equipages who cannot depart with the Garrison on the 5th for want of Boats: and Passports shall be given them, and the rest of these Articles are granted.

VI. That such of the Sick and Wounded that are at present in the Castle and Lower Town, and who shall not be in a condition to be transported to Givet at the same time the Garrison marches out of the Castle, shall be transported to the Town of Namur by such Carriages and other Conveniences as the Besiegers shall furnish before the Evacuation of the Castle; and that convenient Lodgings shall be provided by the Allies in the said Town for the Officers, Dragoons, and Soldiers, with Beds, Provisions and Medicaments at the charge of the Allies, until their perfect Recovery, in the same manner as they are used to be treated and provided for in the most Christian Kings Hospitals; as also Physicians, Chyrurgeons, and other Persons to be employed to take care of them; and as soon as any of the Sick and Wounded shall be recovered, they shall be furnished by the Allies with Passports, Boats and Watermen to conduct them by the Meuse in safety to Givet, together with the Physicians, Chyrurgeons, and others that shall be proposed to take care of them on the way.

Granted.

VII. That Monsieur de Megrisy, Marechal de Camp of the King's Armies, the Sieur Feller, Director of the Fortifications, the Engineers, Undertakers, and others employed on the Fortifications, shall enjoy the benefit of this Capitulation, and shall march out with the Troops, in order to repair by the same way to Givet, with their Equipages and Effects.

Granted.

VIII. That the Sieur de Fumeron, employed for the Finances, the Commissaries of War, the Receivers of Contributions, and of the Fortifications, the Treasurers Extraordinary of the War, the Commissaries of Provisions and Hospitals, and generally all those employed in the Castle, whether named, or not named in the present Capitulation, shall march out of the said Castle, together with the Garrison, in order to go by the same way to Givet; and on any pretence whatsoever neither they nor their Equipages, Papers and Effects shall be stopped, whether they be in the Castle, or in the Town of Namur.

IX. That likewise no Officer or other Person to whom the Besiegers of Namur have lent any Money, or furnished Goods or Merchandize shall be stopp'd.

Answer to the Eighth and Ninth Articles.

Granted, provided they give before Security or Hostages to the Satisfaction of his Electoral Highness for what they may owe.

X. That there shall be provided by the Allies for the Besieged 6 Covered Wagons, which shall go out of the Castle, and be conducted to Givet with the Garrison, and the Allies shall not take notice of what they are loaded with, nor visit them.

Granted.

XI. That the Prisoners taken during the present Siege shall be released on both sides; and that those who are in the Army of the Allies, or in the Town, shall be sent back to the Castle before the Garrison marches out; and the rest that are in places more remote shall be sent back to Dinant in 15 days, to reckon from this day, with the necessary Passports, that they may repair thither in safety by the nearest way.

Granted.

XII. That no Satisfaction shall be pretended of the Besieged, on account of any Cattel taken in the County of Namur before the Siege; nor the Houses that have been demolished in the Lower Town, or elsewhere, for the Defence of the place, no more than for the Beams burnt or broke during the Siege.

Granted only for what concerns the Houses demolished, and the rest shall be paid.

XIII. That the Hostages which shall be given on both sides, for the due performance of this Capitulation shall be reciprocally restored after the full Execution of the same, and the Arrival of the Garrison at Givet.

Granted.

The Besieged shall be obliged faithfully to deliver up their Magazines, Ammunition, Arms, Cannon, Mortars, Carriages, and Dependances, and all other Instruments of War, none reserved or excepted, which shall be as well in the Castle as in the Outworks, to morrow morning the 2d of this month, to such Commissaries as shall be appointed by his Electoral Highness for that purpose.

They shall be obliged faithfully to discover their Mines and Fosses to the Officers of the Miners who shall be sent to inspect the same.

They shall likewise deliver up all the Provisions that are in the Magazines, besides what they shall spend to the time of their quitting the Castle, and what shall be necessary for them in their march to Givet, without waiting or spoiling any; Of which they shall give Inspection to morrow to the Commissaries to be appointed by his Electoral Highness for that purpose.

That all the Spaniards, Italians, and others Subjects of His Catholic Majesty which shall be found among the Troops of the Garrison of the Castle shall have liberty to return back, without any molestation or trouble to be given them on one side or other.

Two Counterparts of this Capitulation were signed, one by the Elector of Bavaria, and the other by the Marechal de Boufflers and Monsieur de Guiscard.
