

McCoy, Nicholas.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

McDaniel, Edward.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Mace, George.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

McElhinney, Robert Alexander, Works Manager.

For courageous conduct and devotion to duty.

MacFarlane, William, Labourer, Army Ordnance Department.

For conspicuous courage and self-sacrifice in detaching a burning railway truck to save the fire from setting alight ammunition trucks which were next to it.

MacInnes, Mary.

For courage on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory. Although suffering from shock, she remained at her post, attending to the injured throughout the night.

McKenzie, Alison Evelyn.

For courage on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory. Although suffering from shock, she helped in the work of rescue throughout the night.

MacKenzie, Francis, 1st Class Examiner.

For very valuable work and conspicuous self-sacrifice. Though suffering from consumption, he continued to work until his health completely broke down.

McLaren, J.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Manning, William John, Boiler Cleaner.

For courage and presence of mind in extinguishing a dangerous fire.

Marshall, Ruth, Forewoman.

For courageous conduct and high example.

Moore, Herbert Edward, Labourer, Army Ordnance Department.

For courage in working on a blazing bomb stack on the occasion of a fire at an Army Ordnance Depot.

Moscrop, Thomas, Foreman.

For courage and promptitude in extinguishing a serious fire, and thereby preventing a disastrous explosion in a shell-filling factory.

Morrish, Charles.

For great courage and resource. His prompt action prevented a very serious explosion at an explosives factory in Canada.

Mulley, Ernest, Fitter and Turner.

For devotion to duty and resourceful conduct.

Newcomen, George A.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Newton, William Morley, Chargeman of Engine Fitters.

For devotion to duty and presence of mind in trying circumstances.

Nicholls, Dorothy.

For courage and devotion to duty on two occasions when explosions occurred at a filling factory.

Nolan-Ferrall, John Cecil.

During a period in which he acted as ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

O'Brien, Denis.

For courage and resource in helping to extinguish a fire at a munitions factory at great personal risk.

O'Brien, Edward.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

O'Connell Fitzsimon, Henry, Commandant, V.A.D.

For conspicuous courage and devotion to duty in circumstances of serious danger.

O'Donnell, Albert James Etherington, Telegraphist.

For special services of a high degree of merit.

Ougham, Eliza Jane (Mrs.), Caretaker-Operator, Telephones.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Park, Charles, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

For highly meritorious performance of duty entailing work of a trying character.

Parkes, William, Foreman Shipwright and Dock Master.

For self-sacrifice in continuing to perform his duties under trying circumstances, and despite his age (71).

Parnell, Edward, Fitter.

For meritorious service Overseas in carrying out torpedo work under trying conditions.

Parris, Norman Alfred Thomas.

For courage and presence of mind in voluntarily remaining in a burning laboratory in order to help three women to escape.

Partridge, George Henry.

For great courage and presence of mind on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory.

Pashley, George, Founder.

For distinguished service in the skilful performance of important work, despite his age (sixty-seven).

Passfield, Kathleen Hamilton (Mrs.).

For great courage in continuously exposing herself to serious personal risk in the course of manufacture of munitions of a peculiarly dangerous character.

Payne, Nellie, Female Worker (Army Ordnance Department).

Displayed great courage in helping to extinguish a burning bomb stack in an Army Ordnance Depot.

Peck, W.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Perritt, Blanche Flora, Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Pickering, John William.

For courage and devotion to duty while working on poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger.