

Plemmons, Frank.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of fires at an Explosives Factory in Canada.

Plimston, Charles, Y.M.C.A. Worker.

For conspicuous courage and devotion in carrying out his work under shell fire and during air raids.

Plummer, Alice Elizabeth (Mrs), Night Supervisor, Telephones.

For special services of a high degree of merit.

Prendergast, William Thomas (Assistant Principal Foreman, A.O.D., Woolwich).

Has shown exceptional devotion to duty, and rendered very valuable service on the occasion of a fire at Woolwich Arsenal.

Prior, Albert Frederick.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Randall, Gertrude (now Mrs. Simpson), Supervising Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during bombardment from the sea.

Rate, Annie.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an air raid.

Rathbone, Willy Fox, Inspector, Engineering Department, G.P.O.

For highly meritorious performance of duty entailing work of a trying character.

Redmond, Martin.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Robertson, Victor Grant Suttie, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.

For highly meritorious performance of duty entailing work of a trying character.

Robillard, E.

For courage in helping to remove large quantities of loaded fuses during a fire at an Explosives Factory in Canada, while explosions were taking place.

Robinson, Florence Annie Gwendoline.

For courage and devotion in rendering first aid to one injured on the occasion of an air raid.

Robinson, Major.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Roche, William Chevers.

During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.

Rogers, Frederick H.

For courage and devotion to duty on the occasion of fires at an Explosives Factory in Canada.

Rosekilly, Albert Edward, Inspector of Founders.

For courage and devotion to duty in continuing urgent casting operations throughout an air raid.

Rutherford, James, Fitter.

For meritorious service overseas in carrying out torpedo work under trying conditions.

Sabin, Albert.

For courage and devotion to duty while working on poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger.

Samuel, William David Bowen, Telegraphist.

For special services of a high degree of merit.

Selley, Frank Leopold, Acting Inspector of Fitters.

For courage on the occasion of the trial of a new submarine.

Selman, William Henry, Foreman Carpenter.

For meritorious service under shell fire at Dunkirk.

Shell, Margaret Louisa, Telegraphist.

For special services of a high degree of merit.

Shirkey, Melville K.

For courage and high example at a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, when he prevented the fire from spreading and thus saved valuable stores.

Siminson, Thomas H.

For great courage in fighting a fire at an explosives factory in Canada. He returned to his post and continued to man the fire hose after being twice overcome by fumes.

Sims, Edith.

For courage in returning to work at a filling factory after being severely injured by the explosion of a detonator.

Sinclair, Mary (Mrs.), Forewoman.

For courageous conduct and high example.

Skinner, Joseph, Night Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.

Smith, Caroline.

For courage and high example on the occasion of an air raid.

Smith, George Henry, Storehouse Assistant.

For courage and presence of mind in the discharge of a dangerous duty.

Smith, Lilian.

For courage in attempting to stop a machine at great danger to herself, whereby she was seriously injured.

Smithers, Charles Henry.

For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.

Snawden, Edmund Michell.

For great courage on the occasion of a serious fire at a filling factory.

Sommers, Don.

For courage and high example shown on the occasion of fires at an explosives factory in Canada.

Spence, Lizzie, Bookkeeper and Typist.

For courageous conduct on the occasion of a fire.

Spence, Thomas, Forge Master.

For great devotion to duty in spite of his age (81), and high example.

Spink, Ethel, Matron.

For courage and devotion to duty during repeated air raids and bombardments.

Sprackley, William George, Carpenter.

For meritorious service under shell fire at Dunkirk.

Spreadbury, William James.

For courage and resource. Although suffering from shock, he continued his duties as telephone operator on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory.

Stead, Constance Hilda Alice (now Mrs. Smith), Telephonist.

Displayed great courage and devotion to duty during air raids.