

- Stephens, John Edward, Chargeman of Fitters.
For meritorious service overseas in carrying out torpedo work under trying conditions.
- Stephenson, James, Founder.
For courage and devotion to duty in continuing urgent casting operations throughout an air raid.
- Stewart, James Albert, Fitter.
For self-sacrifice in remaining at duty during an accident in which he was injured until he had made his engine safe.
- Stewart, Robert Turner, Inspector, Engineering Department, G.P.O.
For special services of a high degree of merit.
- Stokes, Frederick Valentine.
For great courage in helping to remove a large quantity of explosive material during a fire at grave personal risk.
- Stokes, Michael.
During a period in which he acted as an ambulance driver he incurred much personal danger, and was unflinching in carrying out his arduous duties.
- Sutherland, John Alexander, Inspector, Engineering Department, G.P.O.
For highly meritorious performance of duty, entailing work of a most trying character.
- Swaffield, Philip John.
For courage and presence of mind on the occasion of a fire at a munitions works. His prompt action in entering a burning building in spite of acid fumes undoubtedly saved large quantities of valuable stores.
- Swithenbank, John, Y.M.C.A. Worker.
For conspicuous courage and devotion in carrying out his work at great personal risk.
- Tallis, Benjamin, Skilled Workman, G.P.O.
For highly meritorious performance of duty, entailing work of a dangerous and trying character.
- Taylor, Ethel.
For courage and presence of mind in retaining her hold on a tray of detonators when one had exploded and blown off her thumb.
- Taylor, William, Assistant Inspector of Postmen.
For special services of a high degree of merit.
- Terrar, Jacob Elias, Shell Filler.
For courage and promptitude in extinguishing a serious fire and thereby preventing a disastrous explosion in a shell-filling factory.
- Thomas, Richard.
For courage and devotion to duty in connection with the manufacture of poison gas under circumstances of grave personal danger.
- Thompson, George Frank, Charge Engineer.
For self-sacrifice and devotion to duty after an accident at an important electrical station, when he was badly burnt and almost blinded.
- Thompson, Harriet Katherine Louise, Lady Superintendent, St. Clement's House.
For courage and devotion to duty on the occasion of an air raid.
- Thompson, Harry, Inspector, Engineering Department, G.P.O.
For highly meritorious performance of duty, entailing work of a trying and dangerous character.
- Thorpe, Samuel Veary, Charge Engineer.
For courage on the occasion of a steam-pipe explosion in an electric power-station, when, at great personal risk, he prevented the damage from spreading.
- Tolson, William Ernest
For courage and resource in helping to extinguish a fire at a munitions factory at great personal risk.
- Torvik, Alford.
For courage and high example on the occasion of a fire at an explosives factory in Canada, when he succeeded in fighting his way into a burning building in spite of dangerous fumes, in order to get at the fire.
- Threlkeld, Reginald.
For courage and self-sacrifice on the occasion of an accident at a filling factory.
- Trinder, Alfred Henry, Sub-Postmaster.
For courage and resource on the occasion of a fire which broke out in a military camp shed in which were stored live bombs.
- Tritton, John.
For great courage and resource. He remained in a building filled with poisonous fumes to carry out a necessary operation at grave personal risk.
- Verney, Grace Dorothy (Mrs.), Night Supervisor, Telephones.
For special services of a high degree of merit.
- Vincent, Elise Primrose.
For courage and resource in putting out a fire at a filling factory, although alone and in circumstances of grave personal danger.
- Vining, Daisy Olive, Supervisor, Telephones.
For special services of a high degree of merit.
- Waddell, Catherine, Nurse.
For courage and presence of mind on the occasion of a fire at Oaklands Hospital, Clevedon.
- Wakeford, James, Foreman, A.O.D., Woolwich.
Rendered very valuable service on the occasion of a fire at Woolwich Arsenal, in the course of which his right hand was severely burned.
- Waller, Margaret.
For courage in helping the injured on the occasion of a serious explosion in a filling factory. She was severely cut by falling glass, but remained at work until she had to be taken to hospital.
- Waterman, William George.
For great courage and presence of mind on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory.
- Watson, Juliet Beatrice.
For courage and devotion to duty on the occasion of a serious explosion at a filling factory.
- Weaver, Edward A.
For self-sacrifice and devotion to duty in continuing at his work in an explosives factory in Canada, although his health was seriously affected by poisonous fumes.