Payable on Application.

The Governor and Company of the Bank of England are authorized by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to receive on the 1st February, 1919, and thereafter until further notice, applications for the above Bonds. Applications may be lodged at any Office of the Banks hereafter mentioned.

The Principal and Interest of the Bonds are chargeable on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

Bonds of this issue, and the interest payable from time to time in respect thereof, will be exempt from all British taxation, present or future, so long as it is shown in the manner directed by the Treasury that they are in the beneficial ownership of a person who is neither domiciled nor ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Further, the interest payable from time to time in respect of £5 per cent. Bonds of this issue will be exempt from British Income Tax, present or future, so long as it is shown in the manner directed by the Treasury that the Bonds are in the beneficial ownership of a person who is not ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, without regard to the question of domicile. Where such a Bond is in the beneficial ownership of a person entitled to exemption under these provisions the relative Coupons will be paid without deduction for Income Tax or other taxes, if accompanied by a declaration of ownership in such form as may be required by the Treasury.

Interest on the £4 per cent. Bonds will be exempt from liability to assessment to British Income Tax other than Super-Tax. For the purposes of Super-Tax and in computing total income for the purposes of Exemption, Abatement, reduced rate of Income Tax on earned or unearned income, &c., the income derived from such interest will be treated as if the amount received represented the net income after deduction of Income Tax at the full normal rate. There will, however, be no title to repayment of Income Tax in respect of such untaxed interest.

Bonds of this issue will be accepted at their nominal value, with due adjustment in respect of interest, by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in satisfaction of amounts due on account of Death Duties, Excess Profits Duty or Munitions Exchequer Payments; provided, in the case of Death Duties, that such Bonds have formed part of the Estate of the deceased continuously up to the date of death from the date of the original subscription or for a period of not less than six months immediately preceding the date of death, and, in the case of Excess Profits Duty or Munitions Exchequer Payments, that they have been held continuously by the firm, company or other person, liable for such Duty or Payment, since the date of the original subscription or for a period of not less than six months before such Duty or Payment becomes due and payable.

Holdings of this Issue may be in the form of—

- (1) Bearer Bonds.
- (2) Registered Bonds,
 - (a) "Transferable in the Bank Transfer Books," or
 - (b) "Transferable by Deed."
- (3) Registered Coupon-Bonds.

NOTE.—Registered Coupon-Bonds are Bonds registered at the Bank of England "transferable by deed," but the interest thereon is payable by Coupons attached to the certificate of registration which is issued to the holder in respect of each Bond so registered. Holders are thereby enabled to obtain their holdings in registered form and at the same time to have their dividends taxed before receipt.

A holding in any one form may be exchanged without charge for a holding in any other form. Allotments may be obtained in any of the above forms at the option of the applicant.

Bearer Bonds and Registered Coupon-Bonds will be issued in denominations of £50, £100, £200, £500, £1,000 and £5,000. Registered Bonds, which may be held on the Books of the Bank of England or of the Bank of Ireland, will be issued in sums which are multiples of £50 and thereafter will be transferable in sums which are multiples of a penny.

The first dividend on holdings of this Issue will be paid on the 1st August, 1919, and will represent interest from the date on which application is lodged and payment made for the holding at any Office of one of the Banks hereafter mentioned. In the case of allotments of Registered Bonds, the first dividend will be paid to the holder(s) in whose name(s) the allotment is originally registered.

Dividends on Registered £5 per cent. Bonds of this issue will be paid without deduction of Income Tax, but the income derived from such dividends will be assessable to Income Tax in the hands of the recipients at the rates of tax appropriate to their respective incomes. Dividend Warrants will be transmitted by post.

Applications for Bonds, which must in every case be accompanied by payment of the full amount payable in respect of the Bonds applied for, may be lodged at any office of the following Banks at any time at which such offices are open for business, viz. :—

Whitehall, January 29, 1919.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Sister Gertrude Walters Carlin and Staff Nurse Harriet Elizabeth Fraser, both of the Territorial Force Nursing Service; and to Sister Gladys White, of the British Red Cross Society, in recognition of their gallantry in saving life at a Casualty Clearing Station in Belgium in October last.

Early in the morning of the 1st October, 1918, a serious fire occurred in No. 36 Casualty Clearing Station at Rousbrugge, in Belgium. At the time some of the patients were undergoing serious operations in the abdominal and general operating theatres, the walls of which were composed of wood. The first intimation of danger in the theatres was the extinction of the electric light accompanied by volumes of smoke, and almost immediately the wooden walls burst into flames. The two sisters and the staff nurse assisted in carrying the unconscious patients to safety, and returned to the burning wards to assist in carrying out other patients. During this time ether bottles and nitrous oxide cylinders were continually exploding, filling the air with fumes and flying fragments of steel.

Admiralty, 31st January, 1919.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Albert Medal for gallantry in saving life at sea to:—

Lieutenant George Devereux Belben, D.S.C., R.N.,

Sub-Lieutenant David Hywel Evans, R.N.V.R.

P. O. Albert Ernest Stoker, O.N. 227692, and Able Seaman Edward Nunn, O.N. J.15703.

The account of the services, in respect of which these decorations have been conferred, is as follows:—

On the 16th September, 1918, a serious explosion occurred amidships on board H.M.S. "Glatton" whilst lying in Dover Harbour. This was followed immediately by an outbreak of fire, the oil fuel burning furiously and spreading fore and aft. Efforts were made to extinguish the fire by means of salvage tugs. The foremost magazines were flooded, but it was found impossible to get to the after magazine flooding positions. The explosion and fire cut off the after part of the ship, killing or seriously injuring all the officers who were on board with one exception. The ship might have blown up at any moment.

Lieutenant Belben, Sub-Lieutenant Evans, Petty Officer Stoker, and Able Seaman Nunn were in boats which were rescuing men who had been blown, or who had jumped, overboard. They proceeded on board H.M.S. "Glatton" on their own initiative, and entered the super-structure, which was full of dense smoke, and proceeded down to the deck below.

Behaving with the greatest gallantry and contempt of danger, they succeeded in rescuing seven or eight badly injured men from the mess deck, in addition to fifteen whom they found and brought out from inside the superstructure.

This work was carried out before the arrival of any gas masks, and, though at one time they were driven out by the fire, they proceeded down again after the hoses had been played on the flames. They continued until all chance of rescuing others had passed, and the ship was ordered to be abandoned, when she was sunk by torpedo, as the fire was spreading, and it was impossible to flood the after magazines.

ADMIRALTY NOTICE TO MARINERS.

No. 186 of the year 1919.

SCOTLAND, EAST COAST.

Firth of Forth—Traffic Regulations.

Former Notice.—No. 1166 of 1918; hereby cancelled.

Mariners are hereby warned that, under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, the following Regulations have been made by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty and are now in Force:—

Section I.

(1) Until further notice, the following Regulations are to be observed by all merchant vessels, except when under escort, approaching or moving in the Firth of Forth (i.e., westward of a line joining Barns Ness and North Carr Rock).

(2) All orders and instructions given by the King's Harbour Master or Chief Examination Officer, Methil, or by any Patrol vessel are to be implicitly obeyed, otherwise vessels will be liable to be fired upon.

Section II.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SHIP MASTERS, &c.

(3) Masters of ships and other persons concerned are advised that in their own interests and the interests of those whom they represent, they should assist in every possible way to conform to these Regulations.

(4) Ships outward bound without escort must time their departure so as to be clear of the Firth of Forth before the commencement of Official Night.

(5) Fishing is now permitted in the Firth of Forth, subject to the passing of the boats up and down the Firth in daylight hours and also that the boats keep clear of traffic. Fishing Boats' numbers are to be kept distinctly painted.

(6) No unescorted merchant vessel is permitted to be under way in the Firth of Forth during the hours of Official Night, or when the Firth of Forth has been closed, except with the official permission of the Commander-in-Chief, Coast of Scotland, which can be obtained through the King's Harbour Master or Chief Examination Officer, Methil.

(7) Merchant vessels may enter or leave the docks at Leith and Granton with the permission of the Senior Naval Officer, Leith, or the Senior Naval Officer, Granton, respectively. Special arrangements, which are notified from time to time, are made for merchant vessels entering and leaving Docks at Ports East of Inchkeith.

(8) (a) During Official Night no lights are to be visible from outboard, scuttles and skylights are to be effectively screened. When under way, navigation lights should be shown. (Electric navigation lights are prohibited.)

(b) The side ladder and a boat should be kept ready for use. All boats are to be kept hoisted close up to the davits during the hours of Official Night.

(c) The Wireless Room is to be locked, and no Wireless Messages are to be taken or despatched whilst the ship is in the Firth of Forth.

(d) When at anchor riding lights are to be exhibited so long as the Examination Steamer or other Naval vessel shows the three vertical red lights. When the three red lights are hauled down, all vessels are to extinguish their riding lights.

(e) Merchant vessels berthed in Leith and Granton Docks and Harbours are prohibited from having any lights visible from outboard during the hours of Official Night, unless such vessel is actually engaged in working cargo. All such lights are to be screened from overhead and from seaward if possible. Leith pilots will instruct vessels when riding lights are required to be shown.

(9) When inward bound, the National Colours and number (or distinguishing signal) are to be hoisted on passing May Island, and kept flying until the vessel docks.

(10) Care is to be taken that all flags displayed are showing clearly. If the weather is calm, any flag signal which the vessel is ordered by an Examination Steamer to hoist should be shaken out so as to render it readily distinguishable.

(11) As little smoke as possible is to be allowed to escape from the funnels, and care is to be taken that neither lights nor flags are obscured by it.

Section III.

DISTINGUISHING SIGNALS OF EXAMINATION STEAMERS.

(12) Armed Examination Steamers will be found at the Examining Station (see Section VII.) and near the green buoy (see Section IV., par. (16)), and will be distinguished by the following means:—

By Day.—At the foremast head the special pilot flag (white and red horizontal, surrounded by a blue border). When the Firth of Forth is "Closed" three Red balls vertical will be hoisted in addition.

By Night.—Three Red lights vertically 6 feet apart, conspicuously displayed at the end of a yard so as to show an unbroken light round the horizon.

Masters of merchant vessels must approach these vessels with care, and see that when stopped they are in a favourable position for the Boarding Officer coming alongside, and that a boat-rope and side-ladder are in position.

Section IV.

NAVIGATION IN THE FIRTH OF FORTH.

(13) Unescorted merchant vessels may enter the Firth of Forth at any time, but should make every endeavour to do so during official daylight and, when possible, should have sufficient daylight to allow them to be examined before dark.

(14) Vessels desirous of entering the Forth during Official Night or in thick or foggy weather must report themselves to St. Abbs Head or Fifeness Signal Stations, whence they should proceed as directed in paragraph (16). They will be met by a Patrol Vessel and taken to an anchorage.

(15) Sailing ships and other small vessels which are forced to seek shelter owing to weather conditions, and arrive during the hours of Official Night, will be anchored in the most convenient position by orders of a Patrol Vessel until the weather moderates.

(16) Unescorted vessels must pass between Isle of May and Anstruther Wester, thence they must steer a course so as to pass 2 miles south of Elieness, and within half a mile to the southward of a green buoy in lat. 56° 09' N., long. 2° 51' W.

Thence (if not met by a Pilot Boat or Examination Steamer) steer 297° (N. 45° W. Mag.) for a mile and a half to pass to the southward of a second buoy; thence to the Examining Station.

(17) Merchant vessels in convoy bound for ports in the Firth of Forth other than Methil, and arriving during Official Night, are to hoist two Red lights horizontally on approaching the Examination Anchorage. These lights are to be displayed until ordered to be lowered by the Boarding Officer.

All merchant vessels entering the Firth of Forth, with or without a pilot on board, are to proceed to the Examining Station to be passed by the Examining Officer and given the "Special Signal" before proceeding to any port in the Firth of Forth.

Section V.

VESSELS LEAVING THE FIRTH OF FORTH.

(18) Merchant vessels must on no account leave the Firth of Forth without first obtaining a "Port Clearance" from the Collector of Customs at the port of departure.

(19) No unescorted merchant vessels are permitted to leave the Firth of Forth—

(a) During the hours of Official Night;

(b) If sufficient daylight is not left to enable them to clear the Isle of May before dark; or

(c) When the Firth of Forth is "Closed," except with the permission of the Commander-in-Chief, Rosyth, which must be obtained through the Chief Examination Officer, Methil.

(20) When the Firth of Forth is "Open" to the traffic of merchant shipping the following signal will be displayed at the various ports east of Oxcars:—

One Red ball, indicating that merchant vessels anchored in the roads off any port are at liberty to proceed.

No merchant vessel is to proceed until one Red ball is hoisted as follows:—

Leith.—From H.M.S. "Tyne."

Granton.—From Flagstaff at Central Pier.

Inchkeith.—From the Flagstaff at the Signal Station.

Burntisland.—From the Middle Lighthouse.

Kirkcaldy.—From the Flagstaff at the Harbour Master's Office.

Methil.—From a Flagstaff at the Dock Gate.

Wemyss.—At the entrance to Wemyss Harbour.

Dysart.—From the East Pier at the entrance to Dysart Harbour.

The Licensed Trinity Pilot in charge of a merchant vessel will be held personally responsible that such vessel does not leave her anchorage until the above-mentioned signal is hoisted.

The Red ball will be hoisted at the commencement of Official Day if the Firth of Forth is not "Closed" for any reason, and will be hauled down at the commencement of Official Night.

Note.—It will be hauled down on all occasions when the Firth of Forth is "Closed" to merchant shipping traffic by order of the King's Harbour Master, Rosyth, and will be rehoisted by order of the King's Harbour Master, Rosyth, when the Firth of Forth is "Opened" again to mercantile traffic.

Section VI.

SIGNAL INDICATING FIRTH OF FORTH "CLOSED."

(21) Whenever the Firth of Forth is "Closed" during the day the following signals will be displayed:—

Three Red balls vertical will be hoisted by each Examination Steamer and also at Inchkeith and at the principal ports in the Firth of Forth.

The single Red ball which is hoisted at the principal ports in the Firth of Forth east of Oxcars, to indicate that the Firth of Forth is "Open," will at the same time be hauled down.

Note.—By night the Firth of Forth is closed to all unescorted mercantile shipping, except as provided for in paragraph (14).

Section VII.

POSITION OF THE EXAMINING STATION.

(22) The Examining Station is 240° (S. 78° W. Mag.) 1½ miles from Ruddons point.

(23) Vessels are not under any circumstances to attempt to pass in from the Examining Station without obtaining permission from the Examination Steamer, or to leave the Examination Anchorage, or to communicate with the shore or any other vessel, without first obtaining permission from the Examination Vessel.

(See Appendix "A," "Warnings to Masters.")

(24) During stormy weather, when boarding operations cannot be safely carried on off Ruddons point, vessels will receive special instructions as to where they are to proceed to an anchorage for examination.

Section VIII.

PILOTS AND PILOTAGE.

(25) It will be compulsory for all vessels to have a licensed pilot on board when navigating the Firth of Forth, unless under escort. Vessels entering the Firth for the purposes of joining a Convoy are not exempt from compulsory pilotage.

Incoming vessels will pick up the pilot from the Pilot Vessel which will be found in the vicinity of the green buoy (see Section IV., par. (16)) during the hours of Official Day.

Outward-bound vessels from ports west of Inchkeith are to proceed to the Advanced Convoy Anchorage and discharge their pilot there, or at the Cutter if sailing without Convoy.

A uniform landing fee of eight shillings is to be paid by every pilot landed from the motor boat or other vessel which is provided by the Admiralty for the purpose of conveying pilots to and from the pilotage station. The pilot is hereby authorised to recover this fee from the master, owner, or agent of each vessel piloted.

Section IX.

CAUTION AS TO ANCHORING.

(26) No merchant vessel will be permitted to anchor within the limits of the Firth of Forth, except as hereinafter stated, unless—

(a) To avoid, or after, an accident;

(b) Her further progress is prevented by unforeseen circumstances;

(c) During thick or foggy weather.

When anchoring, care must be taken to be well clear of the fairway.

(27) If a vessel has to anchor for any of the reasons shown (a, b, or c, above) she is to hoist "Not under control" signals, and keep them displayed so long as she remains at anchor.

(28) Unescorted merchant vessels, after being given "Special Signal" by an Examining Officer and with pilot on board, may proceed during the hours of Official Day to anchor off the port of destination.

The pilot in charge of the vessel is responsible that no contravention of the Traffic Regulations of the Firth of Forth occur during this period.

If, whilst a merchant vessel is lying at anchor off any port east of Oxcars in the Firth of Forth, the weather conditions become so unfavourable as to jeopardise the safety of the vessel in the position in which she is then lying, the pilot may use his discretion and get under way to proceed under the lee of Inchkeith in the case of easterly gales, and to Kirkcaldy in the case of westerly gales.

In doing this, he is responsible that the vessel carries navigation lights, proceeds at slow speed, and keeps out of the fairway.

Section X.

PATROL OF INTERNAL WATERWAYS AND APPROACHES TO THE FIRTH OF FORTH.

(29) The Firth of Forth, as well as the approaches thereto, will be patrolled by Naval Patrol boats or other Government vessels.

Masters of merchant vessels and persons in charge of small craft are hereby warned to observe any orders which may be given by the Naval Patrols.

Merchant vessels and small craft will be subject to inspection and search, and will be liable to be fired upon in the event of disobedience to the orders given them by the patrols.

They also render themselves liable to be prosecuted under the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914.

Section XI.

MERCHANT VESSELS TO FLY THEIR COLOURS, &c.

(30) All merchant vessels which are within the limits of the Firth of Forth must—

(a) Keep their colours flying day and night.

(b) Keep their commercial code number flying from sunrise to sunset.

(c) Show the regulation navigation lights by night unless ordered to the contrary. (See Section II., paragraph (8).)

Section XII.

ORDINARY NAVIGATION RULES TO BE ADHERED TO.

(31) The ordinary rules for the navigation and safe conduct of ships are to be adhered to in the Firth of Forth, except as far as they are affected by these Regulations.

Nothing in these Regulations will exonerate the owner, master, or agent of any ship from any neglect of the ordinary rules for the navigation and safe conduct of ships.

APPENDIX A.

WARNINGS TO MASTERS OF VESSELS IN THE FIRTH OF FORTH.

1. You are to strictly obey all orders given you by the officer who boards you, or by the King's Harbour Master or his representative, or the Chief Examination Officer, Methil.

2. You are also to keep your National Colours and the Signal of Letters of your ship's name flying day and night.

3. Before leaving any port or anchorage in the Firth of Forth you must obtain permission from the proper authorities (see Section V., paragraph (18)).

4. The use of wireless telegraphy is prohibited. You are to forthwith lower all aerial wires, and disconnect them from their halliards and from the operating room. "2. By inserting in sub-clause (a) of Clause 3 of the Company's memorandum the words 'or companies' after the word 'persons' wherever the same occurs, and by adding at the end of the sub-clause the following words, namely:— 'And the payment and discharge of any debts or liabilities incurred or undertaken by any such persons or companies, and to undertake or guarantee the payment, by any other company formed for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, of any Debentures or Debenture Stock issued by such other company, or any interest or premium thereon payable by such Company, or the payment of any capital issued by such company, and dividends, whether fixed or fluctuating, on any such capital.'
