BECKENHAM.

Whereas the Urban District Council of the Beckenham Urban District (hereinafter called the Council) have made application to the Local Government Board for the issue of a Provisional Order under Sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, to partially repeal, alter, or amend the Beckenham Urban District Council Act, 1903, so as to enable the Council—

(1) To borrow by way of temporary loan or overdraft from any bank for the purpose of providing temporarily for any current expenses that may be incurred by the Council under the provisions of any public, general or local Act and to charge any amount so borrowed upon all or any of the rates and revenues of the Council and their undertakings or any of them;

(2) To borrow for the purpose of paying off moneys previously borrowed by the Council under any statutory borrowing power or for the purpose of replacing moneys which have been temporarily applied from other funds of the Council in repaying moneys borrowed by them; and

(3) For the purposes of the application or for purposes connected with, incidental to or consequent on those purposes to make any such alteration or amendment of the said Local Act, or of any other Local Act or of any Act confirming a Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the Sanitary Acts or of the Public Health Act, 1875, and in force in the said District as may be necessary or desirable.

And whereas it is proposed that a Provisional Order should be issued in compliance with the said Application;

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, LL.D., Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the said Board, will attend at the Council Offices, Bromley Road, Beckenham, on Thursday, the twentieth day of February, 1919, at three o'clock in the afternoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said Application and the other matters aforesaid.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said Application and the other matters aforesaid.

As witness my hand this Fourth day of February, 1919, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

N. T. Kershaw,
Assistant Secretary.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 4TH FEBRUARY 1919.)

IMPORTATION OF DOGS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1919.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1 of the Importation of Dogs Order of 1914 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order"), a dog may be landed in Great Britain if its landing is authorised by a licence granted by the Army Council or by some person specially authorised by the Army Council, subject to the following conditions, which shall be inserted in the licence, namely:—

(a) the dog shall be moved from the place of landing direct to the kennels of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at Hackbridge, in the county of Surrey, and not elsewhere;

(b) the dog shall, while being so moved, be confined in a suitable hamper, crate, box, or other suitable receptacle;

(c) the movement of the dog to the above-mentioned place of detention shall take place under the superintendence of a person specially authorised by the Army Council; and

(d) the dog shall be detained and isolated at the above-mentioned place of detention for a period of six calendar months after its landing.

(2) The Army Council or authorised person may insert in a licence under this Order such other conditions as are authorised by Article 3 of the principal Order.

2. The provisions of the principal Order which relate to licences granted by the Board
