8. To authorize deviations from the lines and levels of the intended works shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned to such extent as may be provided by the intended Act and whether beyond the limits allowed by the Railway Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or otherwise.

9. To empower the Company notwithstanding the 92nd or any other section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or any Act amending the same or any other statutory enactment to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement any part of or any lands, vaults, cellars, arches or other offices or constructions attached or belonging to or any easements or rights of using any subsoil under any house, building, manufactory or other premises without being required or compelled to purchase the whole or any other part of or any other easements or rights in or under such lands, house, building, manufactory or premises, and to provide that such easements, rights, lands, vaults, cellars, arches or other offices or constructions shall not be or be deemed to be a part of a house, building or manufactory within the meaning of the said Section 92, and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges connected with any such lands, house, building, manufactory and premises and to empower the Company for the purposes of the intended Act to appropriate and use the subsoil under any street, road or public place without making any payment therefor.

10. To make provision as to the entry on and survey of properties, the payment of costs in certain cases of disputed compensation by persons claiming compensation from the Company, and as to determining the purchase money and compensation payable under the intended Act and for limiting the amount thereof and claims in respect thereof in cases of recent improvements, alterations and buildings and recently created interests in such lands, buildings and property.

11. To establish or enable the Company and the Metropolitan District Railway Company, the Central London Railway Company, the London Electric Railway Company, and each of them either alone or in conjunction with one another and the London General Omnibus Company Limited and the Associated Equipment Company Limited or any other statutory or limited company or any two or more of any of such companies to make and vary schemes or agreements for the superannuation of or for conferring other benefits on any present or future officers or servants of any such company or joint officers of any two or more of them or their dependants, and to form funds and make rules for such purposes and to define the rights and obligations of such companies, officers or servants or their representatives in relation to, and to provide for the management of such funds to enable or require any of the said Companies to pay moneys into or to guarantee any such fund, and to deduct and pay thereto portions of the salaries or wages or other emoluments of any such officers or servants and to declare that any such powers shall be deemed to have been in operation from any past date which the intended Act may prescribe, and to confirm any agreements or arrangements for any of the said purposes which may prior to the passing of the intended Act have been made by or on behalf of any of the said companies and to make any incidental provision with reference to the aforesaid matters.

12. To make provision for the appointment of and to confer powers and privileges upon railway or special constables to act within, upon and near to all or any of the railways, stations, property and works belonging to or worked by the Company either solely or jointly with any other company, companies or railway committee.

13. To empower the Company and any Council or authority company or body having the control or management of streets, roads, commons, sewers, water, gas or other pipes, wires or apparatus, to make and carry out agreements and arrangements with respect to the construction and maintenance of the intended works or any of them and the appropriation or acquisition or sale of lands therefor and any incidental matters.

14. To make applicable to the intended works all or any of the provisions of the Act of 1913 or any other Act relating to the undertaking of the Company.

15. To extend and apply to the Company the limitation of liability conferred by Section 60 of the Act of 1913 or to prescribe, define or limit the liability of the Company for injury or otherwise to passengers travelling on the railways or property of the Company at workmen's fares or with workmen's tickets.

16. To extend the times limited by the Act of 1913 during which the Company may pay interest out of capital on certain capital moneys referred to in Section 57 of that Act and if thought fit to increase or vary the rate of interest limited by that section, and to extend the time during which the Company may pay interest out of capital on debenture stock issued by the Company for providing funds for the construction of the works authorized by the Act of 1913 or for other purposes to or on which capital may under the provisions of that Act be applied; to extend the time during which the Company may make up out of capital dividends on certain preference capital of the Company to the rate mentioned in the said section 57 or to provide for payment out of capital of dividends on such preference capital at such rate or at any other rate which may be provided for or prescribed by the intended Act; to increase or vary the amount which may by the said section or by the Act of 1913 be applied in payment of interest or making up dividends; to extend, vary, alter or repeal all or any of the provisions of sections 56, 57 and 58 of the Act of 1913 relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them and if thought fit to make new provision with reference to any of such matters and to authorize the Company to pay interest out of capital on moneys raised by the Company under the powers of the intended Act.

17. To provide, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any of the special Acts of the Company or any other Act that the powers of or exercisable by the Company in respect of borrowing or by the creation and issue of debenture stock and any powers conferred by the intended Act on the Company of and in rela-
