

of the grant of the certificate was the subject of a country which was then at war with His Majesty:

And whereas the question whether it is desirable that the certificate should be revoked has been referred to the Certificates of Naturalization (Revocation) Committee constituted under Section 7 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, and whereas such question has been answered by the Committee in the affirmative:

Now, therefore, by this Order made in pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 3 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1918, I revoke the said certificate, and I direct such revocation to have effect from the date hereof, and I further order the said certificate to be given up and to be cancelled.

And I further direct that Minna Elise Wichmann, the wife of the said Karl Wichmann, shall cease to be a British subject.

Edward Shortt,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

BRITISH NATIONALITY AND STATUS OF ALIENS ACTS, 1914 AND 1918.

In the Matter of August Gustav Hermann Wanner.

Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

Whereas I am satisfied that August Gustav Hermann Wanner, to whom a Certificate of Naturalization, numbered 16977, was granted on the 20th August, 1907, has shown himself by act to be disloyal to His Majesty:

Now, therefore, by this Order, made in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Section 7 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, I revoke the said certificate, and I direct such revocation to have effect from the date hereof:

And I order the said certificate to be given up and to be cancelled.

In the Matter of Benjamin John Haddad.

Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

Whereas I am satisfied that the Certificate of Naturalization, numbered 352, granted to Benjamin John Haddad on the 15th March, 1915, is revocable under the provisions of Section 7 (2) (c) of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, and that the continuance of the certificate is not conducive to the public good:

Now, therefore, by this Order made in pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by Section 7 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, I revoke the said certificate and I direct such revocation to have effect from the date hereof, and I further order the said certificate to be given up and to be cancelled:

And I further direct that Katherine Haddad, the wife of the said Benjamin John Haddad, shall cease to be a British subject
