

113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 23rd day of January, 1919, in the words and figures following, that is to say.—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for apportioning the Income of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Breadsall, in the County of Derby and in the Diocese of Southwell, between that Benefice and a certain other Benefice, namely, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Tickenhall, otherwise Ticknall (hereinafter called Tickenhall), which said last named Benefice is also situate in the said County of Derby and in the said Diocese of Southwell:

“ Whereas the patronage of the said Benefice of Breadsall and also of the said Benefice of Tickenhall is vested in Sir Vauncey Harpur Crewe, Baronet:

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said Benefice of Tickenhall is at present insufficiently endowed; and that the said Benefice of Breadsall has endowments of such an amount as that after the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments, the said Benefice of Breadsall will still be sufficiently endowed:

“ And whereas it has been represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the Parish of Tickenhall, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said Benefice of Breadsall, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

“ And whereas the said Benefice of Breadsall is now full, the Reverend John Ayton Whitaker being the Rector or Incumbent thereof:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edwyn, Bishop of the said Diocese of Southwell, acting as such Bishop of the Diocese within which each of the said two Benefices is situate, (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal) and with the consent of the said Vauncey Harpur Crewe, acting as such Patron as aforesaid, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said Benefice of Breadsall shall from whatsoever cause be next voided, all the tithe rent charges glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments which shall at the date of the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Breadsall or which may thereafter belong to the same Benefice shall be charged and for ever thereafter chargeable in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Tickenhall with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned that is to say a clear annual sum or yearly charge of One hundred pounds, the same annual sum or yearly charge of One hundred pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Tickenhall and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing Incumbent of the Benefice of Tickenhall or his representatives on the one hand and his successors in the same incumbency on the other hand; and to be receivable by the Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal quarterly payments on the usual quarter days in every year.

“ And we further recommend and propose that the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Tickenhall shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent charge of One hundred pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the Benefice of which he is Incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say) power, if and whenever any part of the said rent charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof), to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the non-payment thereof and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same as may be statutorily exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

“ Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Breadsall shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any Statute in that behalf enabling him, grant convey and annex to the said Benefice of Tickenhall any part or parts of the Rectorial endowments belonging to the said Benefice of Breadsall which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Southwell for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly charge of One hundred pounds hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then the same annual sum or yearly charge of One hundred pounds shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

“ And provided always that the whole of the First Fruits and Tenths now payable to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty in respect of the said Benefice of Breadsall shall continue to be payable by the Rector or Incumbent of the said Benefice.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:
