HONOURS FOR MISCELLANEOUS SERVICES.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the following honours, decorations and medals to the undermentioned Officers and Men:

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Capt. Herbert Willis Webley Hope, C.B., R.N.

For his services in command of H.M.S. "Dartmouth" at the bombardment of Durazzo on the 2nd October, 1918.

Capt. the Hon. Bertram Thomas Carlyle Ogilvy Freeman Mitford, R.N.

For his services in command of H.M.S. "Lowestoft" at the bombardment of Durazzo on the 2nd October, 1918.

Lieut. Francis Worthington Craven, R.N.

In recognition of his services when H.M.S. "Otranto" was wrecked on the 6th October, 1918. H.M.S. "Otranto" was damaged in collision with the s.s. "Kashmir" whilst carrying a large number of American troops. Lieutenant Craven displayed magnificent courage and seamanship in placing H.M.S. "Mounsey" alongside H.M.S. "Otranto" in spite of the fact that the conditions of wind, weather and sea were exceptionally severe. After going alongside and embarking a certain number of men, it was reported that the "Mounsey" had sustained considerable damage, and that there was a large quantity of water in the engine room. Lieutenant Craven, therefore, left the "Otranto," but on finding the damage was not so serious as had been reported, he again went alongside, though he had previously experienced great difficulty in getting away. His action resulted in the saving of over 600 lives which would otherwise have certainly been lost. His performance was a remarkable one, and in personal courage, coolness and seamanship ranks in the very highest order.

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieut. Raymond Benson Stewart, R.N.

H.M.S. "Mounsey." For gallantry when H.M.S. "Otranto" was wrecked on the 6th October, 1918.

Capt. Richard Burton, R.M.L.I.

In recognition of his services as Adjt. of the Allied Naval Brigade in North Russia between the 14th August and 28th November, 1918, when he carried out very difficult work in a most successful manner.

Lieut. Daniel Fedotoff White, R.N.V.R.

On the 18th August, 1918, at Seltzo, with a few marines landed and captured an enemy battery. When acting in command of one of H.M. river gunboats at Borocovsko, on the 20th August, 1918, in an action with enemy gunboats kept his gunboat under fire while repairing his guns in order to cover the retreat of our troopships, showing a fine example of coolness and devotion to duty. He has throughout the operations in Northern Russia done exceptionally good work as Intelligence Officer.

Sub-Lieut. Wilfrid Edmund Warner, R.N.

H.M.S. "Mounsey." For gallantry when H.M.S. "Otranto" was wrecked on the 6th October, 1918.
