

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday, November 12. to Monday, November 16. 1668.

Falmouth, November 9.

THe 5th instant arrived here the Good Hope of this place from Wales, from whence she came out in company of about 50 sail, bound for several parts to the Eastward; the same day came in here near 30 sail of Merchant Ships from Yarmouth, Weymouth, and other Ports; bound for the French Coasts, and the next day put to sea again with a fair wind in pursuance of their Voyage. The 8th instant arrived the 2 Maries from London, to lade Pilchards for the Streights.

Plymouth, Novemb. 10. The Fleet of ships which were lately put in here outwards bound, are gone out again to sea with a fair wind; one ship onely bound for the Canaries having sprung a leak, continues yet here to refit.

Lisbonne, Octob. 11. On Sunday last arrived here 9 of our expected Brazille Fleet, bringing in with them about 5000 Chests of Sugar and large quantities of Tobacco, and with them two ships from the East-Indies richly laden, to the value of about 2 Millions of Cruſado's; with whom is arrived Don Antonio de Melo de Castro the Viceroy of Goa.

Venice, Nov. 4. By a vessel lately arrived at Otranto from the Levant, we have a confirmation of the late success of the Garrison in Candia against the Turks, with these particulars; That the Marquis de St. Andre Montbrun, having advice brought to him of the arrival of the French succors at Zante about the end of September last, and that they might in few days be expected at Candia; he immediately communicated the good news to the Garrison, to raise their spirits, which had a little before been much dejected by the sudden departure of the Popes and Malta Squadron, by which means the Turks had taken an advantage to reinforce their Army with several thousand men, with which addition they promised themselves in little time to make themselves masters of the City, and consequently the whole Kingdom of Candia: at the appearance of the French succors before the Town, the Marquis de St. Andre, to give a diversion to the Turks, the better to favour the landing of those welcome succors, with a strong party of German soldiers (which a little before were there arrived) ordered a stout sally to be made upon the Enemy on several quarters of the Town; in every one of which, they had so good success, that they beat the Enemy from their Posts, and did considerable execution upon them, especially on the sides of the Sabionera and St. Andre. The next day, the Turks in revenge of the affront they had received, prepared themselves for a general Assault, in which they employ'd about 30 thousand men, pressing on in all places with great obstinacy, under the defence of Woodlacks which they carried before them to defend them from the small shot which was plentifully poured on them from the several Forts; which the Defendants perceiving, Order was immediately given for drawing the Great Guns to the breaches, which being pointed upon them, laden with Case-shot, did such extraordinary execution, that the Turks unable to endure it, were forced to retire, leaving about 30.0 of their men dead upon the place. Upon this success, and the fresh courage received by the happy arrival of the French assistance; the Defendants made another lusty sally upon the Enemy, pursuing their disordered companies with incredible slaughter; insomuch, that in these three days action, the Enemy was supposed to have lost near 30 thousand men.

Since this, they assure us, the Rains have fallen in great abundance for several days together; so that the Turks finding their Mines drowned, their Works mouldring, and the Soldiers unable to shelter themselves in their Trenches, have been forced to quit their Posts, and to withdraw themselves to a greater distance from the Town, so that 'tis believed they will have little encouragement to make any farther attempts upon it this year.

The same vessel informs us, that most of the Provinces under the jurisdiction of the Ottoman Empire, have declared their dissatisfactions with this War, which they find after so vast an expence of Blood and Treasure, to have been carried on with so little success; and that they are not able to contribute any longer to it.

Genova, Novemb. 7. The third instant arrived here the Little Edward an English Ship from New-found-land, and the Princefs and Old Expedition from Spain and Majorca; and even now is entering the Port of Bristol from New-found-land.

The Pope has lately solicited this Republick to employ several soldiers (which are to be dismissed from their service) into the Levant, for the assistance of the Venetians; but the extraordinary Caution here used for the maintenance and encouragement of our Trade within the Turkish Dominions, has at present prevailed with the Senate not to hearken to any persuasions of this nature; especially since by our late Letters from those parts, we are confidently told that the Town of Candia is in so good a condition, by reason of the great succors lately arrived, and the Autumn rains which have fallen there in great abundance; that the Turks must be necessarily obliged to desist from any farther prosecution of the Siege for this year.

Letters from Barbary are full of the great success of Taf-falesta in the Southern parts of the Countrey, and that he has wholly subdued to his Obedience the Kingdoms of Fez and Mordeto, and that the Spanish Garrison of Ceuta is in some apprehensions of his power; but for the better security thereof, the Queen Regent of Spain hath ordered considerable supplies of Men, Ammunition, and all other Necessaries to be sent thither, and has continued the Count d' Assensar in the Government thereof.

From Milan we are told that the Marquis de Mortara being returned thither from his journey which he made to take a View of several Forts within his Government, is fallen ill of the Gout; which for the present diverts him from his design of making a farther Voyage towards Cremona and the places on that side; and that he has made a Reformation of the Baron de Scheffards Regiment, which arrived there the last year from Vienna; the Baron himself, with several disbanded Officers intending in few days to return again into Germany.

According to a late Order from the Pope, Solemn Prayers have been made in all Churches within that Government for the preservation of Candia from the Common Enemy of Christendome, and for the happy Election of a Successor to the Crown of Poland.

Hamburg, Nov. 4. From Poland we are informed, that the Prince of *Lorrain*s party is daily augmented, so that they speak much of the probability of his succession to that Crown; that the time for the Election draws near; King Casimir is thinking to retire himself during the Assembly, into the Province of Po'achia. The Lythuanian Army is to be disposed of into their Winter quarters in the Palatinate of Grodna.

From Copenhagen we are advised, that the young Prince of Denmark is returned into Holstein, where he presided in the Assembly of the Nobility lately held there in the name of the King his Father; and that the Duke George William, and the Prince Ernest Augustus, Bishop of Osnabrug, are in little time expected at Copenhagen, where they intend to continue for some time; that the Negotiations with Holland are carried on with much diligence, the Heer le Mayr, Resident from the States of the United Provinces, having had several conferences with the persons appointed by His Majesty as Commissioners to treat with him.

Hague, Novemb. 16. The Baron d' Eldre is lately arrived here from Lige, under the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from His Electoral Highness of Cologne, and has had his Audience from the States; but the subject of his Negotiation is not yet known.

The Sieur Loferé is also arrived, being sent from the Count de Bentheim to solicit for the discovery and restitution of his Children, which are yet kept from him concealed.

The 21st Instant the States of Holland and West-Friesland are to be assembled, Orders having been dispatched to all the Cities concerned; to send thither their Deputies; where are also expected Deputies from the Province of Zeland, for the adjusting of some differences in debate between them about the Administration of Justice.

The Heers Pessers and Boxtel are sent Commissioners to the Brille and Helvoetsloot, to take a View of the New Fortifications, and give order for all necessaries, and to be present at the mustering of the several Companies there in Garrison.

The Heer de Wijkendam, 'tis believed, is the person designed to be sent Ambassador to the Court of France, in the room of the Heer Fagel, lately deceased there.

Brussels, Novemb. 17. The Commissioners who were employed into Flanders, to take a View of the forces of that Province, at the places appointed for their Rendezvous, are not yet returned; 'tis believed some Reformation will be suddenly made in the Infantry, though not in so great a proportion as has been made amongst the Cavalry, and that the whole force of these Provinces will be put into such a posture, that we may not for the future stand in fear of any sudden attempts.

The Commissioners nominated to be present at Lille for the management of the Conference with those of France about the regulation of the bounds, and the stating of the Dependencies on the late Conquests made by the French, returned thither on Saturday in the Evening from Malines, where they had been to attend the Constable of Castille, and receive their full instructions; and on Monday last set forwards on their way to Lille.

Some few days since arrived here the Sieu. Haagdon from Denmark, and 'tis said is suddenly to depart on his way for Spain, whither he is sent by His Majesty of Denmark under the Character of Envoy Extraordinary, the present Envoy in the Spanish Court being remanded to give an account of his Negotiation in that Court.

The Commons of this City have had several Assemblies in the Town-House, to confer together upon the Proposals made to them by Don Estevan de Gamarra, in the Name of the Constable of Castille, but are not yet come to any certain Resolution upon them; yet 'tis believed they will be content to give 4500 Florins per Mensem for the quartering of the two Spanish Regiments, and three Companies of the Guards which are to be kept in the Town; and that they will also consent to the raising of 1200 thousand Florins upon the Province of Brabant, according to the Demand made by the States of this Province.

The Plague is much decreased in this Town, above 100 houses being lately cleared of it, and the heart of the City already freed from all Infection. 'Tis said, the Infection is lately broken out in 1 or 6 houses in Malines, inasmuch as the Constable is taking the resolution of passing some time at Antwerp, till this place can be made fit for his reception.

Count Marsin continues still at Antwerp, and has dispatched one of his Captains into Spain, to found the Queen Regents intentions, as to his re-establishment in his ancient charge.

On Tuesday last in the evening, arrived here Don Antonio Pimentel in twelve days from Paris, and the 13th Instant went hence for Malines.

The Count d' Egmont lately reformed, is again restored to his Command, as are also several other Officers. The Viscount de Hornes is daily expected from Spain with 12 dismounted Troops of Walloon Cavalry, for whom Quarters are already designed about Diest in Brabant. Yesterday were mustered near this City, three Troops of the Horse-guards which are to be quartered here.

Don Estevan de Gamarra intends towards the end of this Month to return again to his employment of Ambassador in Holland. The Abbot Airoldi, the new Internuncio from the Pope, having finished his negotiation with the German Princes, is lately arrived at Antwerp, where he is making up his Train, intending to make this City his place of Residence.

Tarmouth, Novemb. 11. Yesterday past throve this Road several laden Colliers to the Southwards, and many light ships to the Northwards. Two ships of this Town are put to sea, intending for Rotterdam, from whence two others are this day returned. Here are now riding at Anchor in this Road three ships bound for the Streights laden with Herring, and one for Barbados. Two others are here arrived from Burdeaux bound for Lynne and Boston, with 10 sail of light ships bound for the Northwards.

Deal, Novemb. 13. There are now riding in the Downs the Success and Drake Frigates, and about 10 sail of Merchant ships outwards bound for several parts; the weather having continued of late very stormy, has forced several of them from their Anchors, but has done them no farther prejudice. This Afternoon were driven into the Downs about 60 sail of Dutch Merchant ships, with some Men of War; one of the number diving with the wind, has fallen foul upon some of the company to their damage; and another of them hath been forced out to sea.

Whitehall, Nov. 15. This day was solemnly consecrated in the Chappel at Ely-house, the Right Reverend Dr. John Wilkins, Bishop of Chelsea, the Chief overpriced with the usual solemnity by the Bishop of Durham, assisted by the Bishops of Ely and Salisbury, in presence of many other Bishops and several of the Nobility and persons of Honour before whom was preached an excellent Sermon upon the occasion, by the Learned and Reverend Dr. Tilson Preacher of Lincolns-Inn.

Advertisement

The Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer having paid the 1072 Order in course Registered on the 1st of 1250000 l, shall proceed next to the payment of the 1073 Order, and so to the subsequent Orders, as the money shall come in.

Also the said Officers have paid the 118th Order in number and course on the 1st of Eleven Months Tax; and so will go on to the payment of the next ensuing Orders in course as the money from time to time shall come in.

This Week is published a Piece De Jure Uniformitatis Ecclesiastica, Or, Three Books of the Rights belonging to an Uniformity in Churches: Dedicated to His Majesty, and directed and submitted to the High Court of Parliament, by Hugh Davis LL. B. late Fellow of New-Colledge in Oxford, and now Chaplain to His Grace the Duke of Buckingham.