

Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (Ireland):—

Colonel Robert Gordon Sharman-Crawford.

J.P. and D.L. for County Down. High Sheriff, 1895. Colonel (retired), 3rd Battalion, Royal Irish Rifles. Now commanding 18th Battalion, Royal Irish Rifles. M.P. for East Belfast, 1914-18. Public and Parliamentary services.

Baronets.

The KING has been graciously pleased to signify His Majesty's intention of conferring Baronetcies of the United Kingdom on the following:—

Sir Kenneth Skelton Anderson, K.C.M.G.

Manager of the Orient Steam Navigation Company. Member of the Shipping Control Committee. Has undertaken executive responsibility for the organisation and direction of the British Liner Services under the special scheme of requisition, which, on his advice, was applied to those services early in 1917.

James Herbert Cory, Esq.

M.P. for Cardiff, 1915-18. High Sheriff, 1913. Public and Parliamentary services.

Davison Dalziel, Esq.

M.P. for Brixton, 1910-18. Founder of Dalziel's News Agency. For some time Proprietor of "Evening Standard." Public and Parliamentary services.

Colonel George Dixon.

J.P. and D.L. for Cheshire. High Sheriff for Cheshire, 1881. County Commandant, Cheshire Volunteer Regiment, which was inaugurated by him in 1915. Chairman, Cheshire War Pensions Committee, War Agricultural Committee, and several other local War Committees. Public and local services.

Colonel George Augustus Duncombe.

Senior Partner in Beckett & Co., York and E. Riding Bank. Chairman of the Bench of Magistrates. Public and local services.

John Samuel Fletcher, Esq.

M.P. for Hampstead, 1905-18. Member of L.C.C., 1889-1904; Deputy Chairman, 1900. Chairman of Hampstead Board of Guardians, 1880-98. Public and Parliamentary services.

William Garthwaite, Esq.

Public services in developing relations between Canada and France, and inaugurating direct line of shipping between these countries. Special war services to the Admiralty.

Charles Greenway, Esq.

Chairman and Managing Director of Anglo-Persian Oil Company, Ltd. Important national service during the War.

Captain Sir Charles Edward Heley Chadwyck-Healey, K.C.B., K.C., R.N.V.R.

Intimately connected with the history of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve. Equipment and administration of the Hospital Ship "Queen Alexandra" for the Navy. Valuable service on the Admiralty Transport Arbitration Board.

Sir Henry Fleming Hibbert.

Chairman of Lancashire Education Committee from its inception. Chairman of the Education Committee of the County Councils' Association. Public and county services.

Edward Hulton, Esq.

Newspaper proprietor. Public services during the War.

Ernest Jardine, Esq.

M.P. for East Somerset, 1910-18. Parliamentary and local services.

Frederick John Jones, Esq.

Three times President of Mining Association of Great Britain. Twenty-one years Chairman of South Yorkshire Coal Trade Association. Seven years Chairman of Miners' Conciliation Board. Public services.

Thomas Paul Latham, Esq.

Deputy Chairman of Courtaulds, Ltd. Public and local services, particularly to the Ministry of Pensions.

William Thomas Madge, Esq.

Managing Director of "The People," Ltd. Formerly Manager of the "Globe" Newspaper, with which he was connected for forty-two years. Public services.

James Marr, Esq., C.B.E.

Member of Shipping Controller's Advisory Committee, and of the Shipbuilding Council. J.P. for County of Durham. Public services in connection with the Shipping Control.

John Throgmorton Middlemore, Esq.

M.P. for North Birmingham, 1899-1918. J.P. for Birmingham and Worcestershire. Generous supporter of the Birmingham Art Gallery. Founded and managed for forty years the Middlemore Children's Emigration Homes for the training of destitute children in Agriculture in Canada. Parliamentary and local services.

Norman Moore, Esq., M.D., F.R.C.P.

President of the Royal College of Physicians. Consulting Physician and Emeritus Lecturer on the Principles and Practice of Medicine at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, University of London. Representative of the Royal College of Physicians of London on the General Medical Council.

Sir John David Rees, K.C.I.E., C.V.O., M.P.

Under-Secretary to Madras Government; Civil and Sessions Judge; Deputy Registrar. Additional Member of Governor-General's Council, 1895-97 and 1898-1900. M.P. for Montgomery District, 1906-10, and East Nottingham, 1912-18. Parliamentary and public services.