

ject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body, shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(c) In the said portions of the Churchyard in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 11th day of July next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parishes affected by such Representations one month before the said 11th day of July.

Almeric FitzRoy.
