

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Ely.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June, 1919.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 142, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Supplemental Scheme bearing date the 29th day of May, 1919, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 142, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Supplemental Scheme under the 25th section of that Act with reference to the Parsonage House of the United Benefice and Rectory of Saint James, Garlickhithe, with Saint Michael, Queenhithe, and Holy Trinity the Less, in the City and Diocese of London:

“Whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council dated the 5th day of August, 1875, and published in the London Gazette on the 10th day of the same month it was provided that the Incumbent of the said United Benefice should not demise or let the Parsonage House belonging to such United Benefice to any person or persons for any period during his incumbency or otherwise part with the possession thereof for any period, and that in order to conduce to the residence within the said United Benefice of the Incumbent thereof for the time being, such Incumbent, so long in any year as he should be absent (except on account of actual incapacity of mind or body, and under a licence from the Bishop granted on one or both of these grounds) from the said house of residence for any greater period (in the whole) than 3 calendar months in such year, should pay a rent after the rate of £150 per annum for each and every month or portion of a month during his absence beyond such 3 calendar months which rent should be payable to the Churchwardens for the time being of the parish of Saint James, Garlickhithe, and be deemed to accrue due de die in diem, and should be payable on such days as such Churchwardens should from time to time direct and the Churchwardens for the time being of the parish of Saint James, Garlickhithe, should have the like remedies for the recovery thereof, by distress or otherwise, as landlords have for rent due under an indenture of demise, and all sums received by such churchwardens in respect of such rent should be added to and incorporated with the fund for the time being under the control of the rector and churchwardens of the Parish of Saint James, Garlickhithe, applicable to the maintenance of the fabric of the church of the United Benefice and should be applied by them accordingly:

“And whereas it has been represented to us that the circumstances of the United Parishes have changed since the date of the said Order in Council, there being now very few residents therein; that, although the Parsonage House is fit for use as the residence of the Incumbent of the said United Benefice, the noise in the district, which is increasing both as regards volume and duration, inflicts hardship and annoyance to the Incumbent and is even prejudicial to health in certain cases, and that in these circumstances it is desirable that the provision which precludes the letting of the Parsonage House and requires the residence of the Incumbent therein should be rescinded and that the Parsonage House should be subject only to the same conditions in respect to letting and to residence therein of the Incumbent as any other house of residence of the Incumbent of a Benefice:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and affixed his Episcopal Seal thereto) with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London as the Patrons of the said United Benefice (in testimony of which consent they have affixed their Common or Capitular Seal to this Scheme) and with the consent of the Vestry of the said Parish of Saint James, Garlickhithe, of the Vestry of the Parish of Saint Michael, Queenhithe, and of the Vestry of the Parish of the Holy Trinity the Less (in testimony whereof this Scheme is signed in the case of each Vestry by the Chairman of a Meeting of the same Vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that the terms of the said Order in Council of the 5th day of August, 1875, shall be altered and varied in the following manner, that is to say, that the provision which precludes the letting of the Parsonage House and requires the residence of the Incumbent therein shall be rescinded and that the Parsonage House shall be subject only to the same conditions in respect to letting and to residence therein of the Incumbent as any other house of residence of the Incumbent of a Benefice.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Supplemental Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in Law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.
