

Orders to all the Inhabitants of the Conquered Countries to bring in all the Plate they have left, to the Mint to be Coined, and 'tis said, they intend to take away all the Plate that is in the Churches to be likewise turned into Money. The French have set Guards at several places on the Schelde, to hinder our Parties from passing that River in case of a hard Frost: On the 7th instant, the Duke of Holstein Ploen drew out the Garrison of Maastricht to Review it; He intends in few days to visit all the other Garrisons on that side, as the Duke of Wirtemberg has very lately done in Flanders. We have Advice, That the Marechal de Boufflers went from Lisse on Friday last towards the French Court.

Hague, January 13. N. S. The Earl of Athlone went hence on Wednesday last for Brussels. The Sophia Yacht, who came this day Sevensight from Newcastle, with 40 French Prisoners, going for Calais, where they were to be Exchanged, was by the late Storm forced upon these Coasts, and driven ashore yesterday morning not far from Scevelingue, where the said Yacht is lost, but all the Men saved.

Pembroke, Jan. 3. We have had very violent Storms here of late, but hear of no losses on our Coast. The Joseph of and from New England, of above 300 Tuns, was forced from her Anchors, but by the help of some Boats from the Town of Tenby, she got into Caldy Road, where she is very safe; She is laden with Malts and Stores, and bound to London.

Newcastle, Jan. 4. Yesterday came in three Dutch Doggers, with two or three Corn Ships; The Sweepstakes and Witchelsea continue still here.

Plimouth, Jan. 5. The Fortune of this place for Virginia, which failed hence some days ago, was put back the first instant by contrary Winds. The same day came in the Sea Adventure for the Canaries. And this day was put back the Laurence of London, bound to Legborne.

Bristol, Jan. 6. On the 4th came in here the Neptune of this Port in 7 Weeks from Malaga. The Smirna Merchant Man of War is now in Kings-Road.

Coxes, Jan. 6. Last Wednesday came in to this Road the St. Anthony from Figara, bound to Rotterdam, who was in great Distress in the late Storm, having lost her Cables and Anchors, but being refitted, is gone up to Spithead. Yesterday came in here a Dutch Vessel bound to Curassaw. The Greyhound and Quaker Ketch are still in this Road with the outward bound Ships.

Yarmouth, Jan. 6. The Assistance failed yesterday to the Northward; and the Samuel and Henry continue in this Road.

Deal, January 6. This day failed for the River the Pearl and Portsmouth Prize, with the Falk and Maik Ship.

Portsmouth, Jan. 7. On Sunday last failed from Spithead two Dutch Men of War, with several small Vessels bound to the Eastward. The outward bound Ships continue at St. Helens and Spithead.

Kensington, January 6. A Chapter of the most Noble Order of the Garter being held this Evening by the Sovereign and Eleven Knights Companions of the said Order, His Highness the Duke of Gloucester was Elected into this most Noble Society; And having been Knighted by the Sovereign, with the Sword of State, was afterwards Invested with the Garter and George, the two Principal Ensigns of the Order, with the usual Ceremonies.

Advertisements.

ON the 4th instant, a Goldsmith, living in the Strand, was threaten'd by one Millard to have a Robbery soon against him of 40 Guineas; but being by a Justice of Peace put in the Custody of a Person till he gave an account of himself, he made his Escape; he is small, thin Vis'd, fresh coloured, with Pock-holes in his Face, in a bob Wig, broad Hat, and a gray Coat, aged 22. Whoever secures him and gives Notice to Mr. Stradling, Jeweller in York Buildings, shall have 5 l. Reward.

AT the Archimedes in Ludgate Street, London, liveth John Marshall, who hath Invented a new Method to Grind Spectacles in Brass Tools, true, according to the nicest Rules of Art, being approved of by the Royal Society, who have given him their Letters of Approbation, as a Certificate; where are made and Sold all manner of Prospectives, Telescopes, and Microscopes, and other Optick Glasses, by Wholesale or Retail.

LOst or taken from a Stage-Coach, on Monday Night last, about 5 a Clock, between Exeter-change and St. Dunstons Church, a little black Leather Trunk, in which was contained some Linnen, an Account Book, and several Writings, and Papers, with other things. Whoever brings the said Trunk, and the things that were in it, to Mr. Thomas Bever, at the Mand and Star, between the two Temple Gates, shall be well rewarded.

LOst on Thursday the 26th past, about Seven a Clock at Night, a large Pocket Case, of blue Turkey Leather, with 3 Partitions, with some gilt strokes on the outside, belonging to Valentine Grome, or Mr. James Heriots, Goldsmith, at the Naked Boy in Fleet Street, wherein were some Letters, directed to him as aforesaid; and several other Papers belonging to himself, as also a Ticket of 61000 l. Lottery, Number 20570. the Payment of which he has already Ropt. Whoever has found the said Case, upon the delivery of it to himself, shall have 10 s. reward.

LOst or Miss'd the second instant, a Shagreen Case, having in it 24 Stone Rings, five of them were set with Turquoises, some of the old Rock, and some of the New, another a Cornelian Eight square, graven with a Coat mantle and Crest, two garnet Rings made in India plain Gold, a Diamond Ring set with nine Stones, the three largest of a yellow Water, and Enamel'd quite round, two large Amethist Rings, set with a Table Diamond on each side, and two other single Amethist Rings; the one set in plain Gold, the other Enamel'd, one old Ring set with a garnet graven with a Man and a Womans Head together, the rest of the Rings are not now remembered. If any such be offer'd to be Sold, Pawn'd or valued, you are desired to stop them and the Party, and give Notice to the Beadle of Goldsmith-Hall, in Foster-lane, London, and you shall have 40 s. reward, or proportionable for what you shall stop, and if already bought, your Money again, with Content.

STole the 21th past out of the Stable of Mr. John Hollister of Nibley in Westerly Parish, Gloucestershire, a brown bay Mare, well set, about 14 hands, the near Heel behind white, with a figure of 6 on the farther Buttock; also a Troopng Saddle trimm'd with Blue, &c. supposed to be Stolen by one of a middle-stature, aged about 18, brown frisk Hair, thin vis'd; having a brown Coat, and a blue Plush Breeches. Whoever gives notice of the said Mare to George Tooke at the Red Lion in Bridge Street, or to Mr. Hollister aforesaid, shall have 20 s. Reward and Charges.