

Council, and the existing Bye-law 34A to be rescinded as from the same date:

And whereas the said new Bye-law has, in accordance with the provisions of the 26th Article of the said Charter, been submitted to the Lords of the Council for allowance:

Now, therefore, their Lordships, having taken the said new Bye-law (a copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, are pleased to allow the same.

Almeric FitzRoy.

Bye-law referred to in the foregoing Order of Council.

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS IN ENGLAND AND WALES.

BYE-LAW 34A.

34A.—The Council may at a meeting convened as prescribed by Section 14 of the Royal Charter and in exercise of the powers thereby conferred elect as an Associate any candidate for admission who has served, or is serving in His Majesty's Forces during war; provided such candidate shall have complied with the provisions of the Royal Charter and these Bye-laws relating to service under Articles and Examinations which are applicable in his case, with such exceptions therefrom and modifications thereof as the Council may by a Resolution passed under the provisions of this Bye-law have made in his favour.

The Council may by a Resolution passed at a meeting specially convened with notice of the object, at which meeting there shall be present not less than twenty-four of the Members of the Council, and for which Resolution not less than three-fourths of those present and voting shall vote, make in the case of any person who purposes to become a candidate for admission who has served, or is serving, in His Majesty's Forces during war such exceptions from or modifications in the provisions of the Royal Charter and these Bye-laws relating to service under Articles and Examinations as are below referred to and as may to them seem reasonable in the circumstances of his case, that is to say:—

(a) That the candidate shall be exempt from the Preliminary Examination.

(b) That any period of service by the candidate in His Majesty's Forces after the date of his Articles or any specified portion of such period shall be deemed equivalent to service under his Articles.

(c) That in the case of a candidate whose Articles are dated before the expiration of one year from the termination of the War of 1914-19, the candidate's period of service under Articles shall be reduced to such period as the Council may decide, provided that such reduced period of service shall not be less than three years, or if the candidate has graduated in any University of the United Kingdom shall not be less than two years.

(d) That the candidate shall be exempt from the Intermediate Examination.

(e) That the candidate may sit for any examination at any time specified by the Council, although not otherwise qualified to sit at that time.

(f) That the Certificate of service required by Bye-laws 82 and 87 or either of them be modified as the circumstances of the case require.

(g) That the candidate's period of service in His Majesty's Forces during war be proved by the Certificate of the candidate's superior officer or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Council.

Any of the aforesaid exceptions or modifications in favour of a candidate may be made in the manner aforesaid from time to time as the occasion for each such exception or modification arises, and without prejudice to the power of the Council to make further exceptions or modifications as are above referred to in favour of the same candidate at a later stage in his candidature.
