Civil Service Commission,

October 10, 1919.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

TEMPORARY (RECONSTRUCTION) REGULATIONS FOR THE SELECTION OF OFFICERS OF CUSTOMS AND EXCISE.

1. Age.—Candidates must have been born on or after 2nd September, 1893, and must have attained the age of 19 on the date fixed for the qualifying examination described below; provided that persons born between 2nd September, 1892, and 1st September, 1893, inclusive, may be admitted if they have served for two full consecutive years either (1) in any civil situation other than that of Registered Boy Clerk to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners or (2) as Registered Boy Clerk appointed on the results of the competition of 22nd September, 1908, or any previous competition.

No candidate under these Regulations may also be a candidate under the Officer of Customs and Excise Competitive Examination Regulations.

2. Nationality.—Candidates must be natural-born British subjects and the children of natural-born British subjects or of natural-born subjects or citizens of an allied country, provided that exception may be made in the case of candidates who have served in H.M. Armed Forces.

3. Education.—Candidates must supply evidence of (1) whole-time, continuous and systematic education up to the age of 17 or until the date of entering His Majesty's Forces, whichever is the earlier, or (2) whole-time continuous and systematic education up to the age of 15 and employment in a Government Department for the space of two years.

Provided that exception to the requirement of this clause may be allowed in the case of (1) candidates who are serving or who have served in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, and (2) candidates who sat for an open competitive examination for the situation of Officer of Customs and Excise and obtained such an aggregate of marks as to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. Military Service.—Candidates must have served in His Majesty's Naval, Military, or Air Forces; provided that a candidate who
