The above Trade Board give similar notice (the Minister of Labour having given his consent to such notice being given) that they propose further to vary the General Minimum Time Rates set out in the Notice dated 21st January, 1918, which were varied by them on 27th October, 1919, such further variation as set out below to be effective from 1st January, 1920, to 31st March, 1920, inclusive, that is to say:—

On Saturday	4½

Provided that all hours worked on Sundays and Statutory Holidays shall be regarded as Overtime, to which the Overtime Rates shall apply. The Trade Board also propose to fix Overtime Rates in respect of male and female workers to apply in respect of hours worked by a worker whether engaged on time-work or on piece-work, in excess of such normal number of hours, as follows, that is to say:—

Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to time and a quarter, that is to say, one and a quarter times the minimum rate otherwise applicable.

3. For all time worked on Sundays and Statutory Holidays, the Overtime Rate shall be equivalent to Double Time, that is to say, twice the minimum rate otherwise applicable.

4. All hours worked in any week in excess of 47 shall be paid for as Overtime, and the Overtime Rates shall also be payable where, on any day not being a Sunday or a Statutory Holiday, the number of hours worked exceeds 8½, or in the case of Saturday, exceeds 4½, provided that the total number of hours worked in the week is not less than 47 or such lesser number of hours (excluding Overtime as defined in this Notice) as the worker has had the opportunity of working in that week.

Provided also that, where it is or may become the established practice of an employer only to require attendance on five days a week, the Overtime Rates shall only be payable where, on any day, the number of hours worked exceeds 9½.

The Trade Board will consider any Objections to the above proposals to vary and fix which may be lodged with them within two months from 28th October, 1919. Such objections should be in writing and signed by the person making the same (adding his or her full name and address), and should be sent to the Secretary of the Hollow-Ware Trade Board (Great Britain), 5, Chancery Lane, London, W.C. 2.

It is desirable that the Objections should state precisely and as far as possible with reasons, what is objected to.

Dated this 27th day of October, 1919.

Signed by Order of the Trade Board.
