The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Trinity College, Cambridge, on the 1st day of November, 1919, and sealed on the 8th day of November, 1919, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

STATUTE to alter and amend the Statutes of Trinity College, Cambridge, which amending Statute was duly made at a College meeting, being a meeting of the Governing Body of the College specially summoned for the purpose and held on the first day of November, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and having been passed at such meeting by the votes of more than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting is now submitted for the approval of the King in Council.

We, the Master, Fellows and Scholars of Trinity College, in the University of Cambridge, in exercise of the powers given to us by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do hereby alter and amend the existing Statutes of our said College in manner following:—

By adding after section 8a of Statute 15, intituled Tenure and Vacating of Fellowships, the following section to form a new section 8b of the same Statute:—

8b. If any Fellow who while holding any qualifying College office or the office of Assistant Lecturer shall have been engaged during the late war in the naval or military service of the Crown, or in some other service of the Crown connected with the said war, or in any work abroad of the British Red Cross Society, shall elect to be placed under the operation of this section, or if he shall have died before the end of the period hereinafter limited for signifying such election, the time during which he shall have been engaged in such service or work shall be reckoned for the purposes of these Statutes as part of the period of his service in his said College office, and he or his executors or administrators shall be entitled to receive payment of any sums by which the payments already received by him or them by way of dividend fall short of the amounts which he or they would have received if he had discharged continuously the duties of his said College office during the time of such service or work, and if he shall by reason of ceasing to hold any qualifying office have actually vacated his Fellowship he shall be deemed not to have vacated it until the date at which he would have vacated it if he had so continuously discharged the duties of his said College office as aforesaid. Provided that this section shall not operate so as to give him any claim in respect of the loss of any of the benefits and advantages of his Fellowship (other than dividends) from the time when he shall have so vacated it until the time when this section shall take effect in his case, or so as to invalidate or affect any act, matter or thing (other than the payment or non-payment of a dividend) done or omitted to be done during the same period in consequence of the vacating of his Fellowship. Provided always that no such election as aforesaid shall have any effect unless and until the Fellow so electing shall signify the same to the Master by writing under his hand within three months after the approval of this Statute by His Majesty in Council.

 WITH RESPECT TO THE COFFIN FURNITURE AND CEREMENT-MAKING TRADE.

Whereas, the Trade Boards Acts, 1909 and 1918, apply to the trades specified in the Schedule to the Trade Boards Act, 1909, and to the trades specified in the Schedule to the
