War Office,
2nd December, 1919.

With reference to the announcement of the undermentioned awards which appeared in the London Gazette of the 12th March, 1919, the following are the acts of gallantry for which the awards were made:—

AWARDED A SECOND BAR TO THE DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

55271 C./S./M. S. Phillips, D.C.M., 1st Bn., Worc. R. (Drybrook).

On the morning of the 14th October, 1918, he, with fine courage and coolness, rallied his company under exceptionally heavy artillery, trench-mortar, and machine-gun fire, east of Flers, during an attempt to cross the Haute Deule Canal. His company was practically decimated by this fire, and it was only due to his great gallantry in taking his company commander's orders along the line to withdraw that the remainder of his company, amounting to about 20 per cent., were saved.

(D.C.M. gazetted 4th June, 1917.)
(1st Bar gazetted 30th October, 1918.)

6360 C./S./M. T. E. Woodward, D.C.M., 2nd Bn., R. Sco. Fus. (Glasgow).

During the operations extending from 14th October to 20th October, 1918, he displayed marked gallantry and devotion to duty. On the 14th, at Rollegem Cappelle, he collected men of various units, reorganised them, and led them forward. On the night of the 19/20th he did excellent work during the crossing of his company over the River Lys under a heavy barrage. On 20th October, at Belgick, when his company was moving forward to form a defensive flank, he was wounded, but carried on till he had got all his men in position. Throughout he set a splendid example to his N.C.O.'s and men.

(D.C.M. gazetted 1st January, 1917.)
(1st Bar gazetted 30th October, 1919.)

AWARDED A BAR TO THE DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

67143 Sjt. A. Agnew, D.C.M., D/112th Bde., R.F.A. (Manchester).

On the 8th October, 1918, near Beaufort, he was standing on the battery position on which was dumped about 600 rounds 4.5in. quick-firing howitzer shells. The teams had just driven to limber up the guns for an advance when a hostile shell fell and fired the charges lying alongside the shells. He immediately rushed at the blazing charges and succeeded in putting the fire out before the shells exploded. This example of coolness and gallantry undoubtedly saved the lives of many men belonging to the battery.

(D.C.M. gazetted 3rd September, 1918.)
