

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of January, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
 Earl of Desart.
 Lord Chamberlain.
 Sir Maurice de Bunsen.
 Sir Arthur Griffith-Boscawen.
 Captain Frederick Guest.

WHEREAS by the Isle of Man (War Legislation) Act, 1914, His Majesty has power to extend to the Isle of Man any Act which, in the opinion of His Majesty, was passed for the purpose of meeting any emergency created by the present War, subject nevertheless to adaptations for the purpose of making the Act applicable to the Isle of Man:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the 17th day of December, 1914, His Majesty was pleased to order that the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, should extend to the Isle of Man, subject to the adaptations therein contained:

And whereas His Majesty has been pleased by various Orders in Council to extend to the Isle of Man, subject to adaptations, the Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, and various Regulations amending the same:

And whereas the said Regulations have been further amended by Order in Council of the 29th day of October, 1919:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Regulation amending the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Regulations made by Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the 29th day of October, 1919, shall extend to the Isle of Man.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of January, 1920.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 11th day of December, 1919, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the Parish of Lythe, in the County of York, now vested in us:

“ Whereas under and by virtue of an Indenture, bearing date the 5th day of August, 1903, and made between the Reverend William George Harland the Incumbent of the Bene-lice of the Parish of Lythe, in the Diocese and County of York, of the first part, the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, of the second part, the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of York, the Ordinary and Patron of the said Benefice, of the third part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, the lands, tenements and hereditaments, situate in the said Parish of Lythe particularly described in the first schedule to the said Indenture and shown by the pink colour on the plan drawn on the deed became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us:

“ And whereas none of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments are subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed:

“ And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our Common Fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands, tenements and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements and hereditaments, so vested in us as aforesaid under and by virtue of the said Indenture with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England:

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased
